Media Services

The Louisiana Tech Athletics Media Relations Office looks forward to working with any media outlets during the 2012 football season.

Any member of the office can answer your questions or direct you to someone who can, so please feel free to call us at (318) 257-3144.

Web Page

Louisiana Tech's official athletics web page has up-to-date information on all of Tech's varsity programs. Please visit www.LATechSports.com today.

CollegePressBox.com

CollegePressBox.com is the official media website for Western Athletic Conference and Louisiana Tech football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for Louisiana Tech, the Western Athletic Conference and each of its member schools. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

Working Credentials

Requests for press box seating should be made directly to the LA Tech Media Relations Office before Monday of game week. Admission to the press box of Joe Aillet Stadium is by credential only and credentials are distributed to working members of the media only – no family members or friends. Passes will be mailed if time allows; otherwise, left at Will Call on the stadium's west side at the press box elevator entrance.

Radio/TV Policy

Permission to broadcast from Joe Aillet Stadium and Independence Stadium must be obtained through the LA Tech Athletics Media Relations Department. The visiting team's official network will be provided free broadcast rights. For information concerning courtesy phone lines, contact Patrick Walsh at (318) 257-5305. Additional phone lines can be obtained by calling BellSouth directly at 1-800-866-6701 (outside Louisiana). The third level of the LA Tech Press Box offers an unobstructed view for television cameras.

Press Parking

Parking is limited and passes will be issued on a priority basis. The Joe Aillet Stadium press parking lot is located on the southwest corner of the stadium, just off West Alabama Avenue.

Press Box Services

All vital game information is provided by the LA Tech Stat Crew. An internal press box PA keeps members of the media informed of each play. Post-game quotes from head coach Sonny Dykes and selected players, as well as the visiting coach, are also available. Telephone and high-speed internet lines are available for media usage and a pre-game meal is served at each home game starting approximately two hours before kickoff. Level one provides working space for print and electronic media and the LA Tech Stat Crew along with LA Tech and visiting athletic director booths. Level two provides space for cameras and houses home and visiting radio booths and coaches' booths.

Directions to Joe Aillet Stadium

Will Call

Media Will Call is located at the press box elevator on the west side of the stadium.

Louisiana Tech fans can tune into the LA Tech Sports Network this fall for all live game broadcasts for the Bulldogs 12-game schedule as well as 12 editions of Inside Bulldog Football with Sonny Dykes.

For the 13th straight year, the LA Tech Sports Network will team up with KXKZ-FM (107.5) Ruston as the flagship station for Tech Athletics.

In addition to KXKZ, the LA Tech Sports Network will consist of KLKL-FM 95.7 (Shreveport/Bossier City), KNBB-FM 97.7 (Ruston), KRUS-AM 1490 (Ruston), KJVC-FM 92.7 (Mansfield), KTKC-FM 92.9 (Springhill), KBEF-FM 104.5 (Minden), KTTP 1110 AM (Alexandria), KVCL 92.1 FM (Winnfield) and WUBR-AM 910 (Baton Rouge/Zachary).

All Bulldog football games can also be accessed online (audio for road games/video and audio for home games) by purchasing a subscription to LA Tech All-Access on latechsports.com. Cost of a subscription to LA Tech All-Access is only $9.95 per month or $79.95 for the entire year (which includes all live broadcasts for all of Tech's athletic teams).

This fall all of the Tech football broadcasts can be heard on the LA Tech Sports Network as Dave Nitz, Teddy Allen, Max Causey, Bennie Thornell, Mason Ellenberger and Chris Brister comprise the broadcast team.

Nitz enters his 38th year of calling Bulldog football games as the legendary Voice of the Bulldogs has been calling games since 1974 along with Tech men's basketball and baseball contests. Nitz, who was named the 2009 Louisiana Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association, was also recognized in 2010 as he called his 2000th Louisiana Tech sporting event.

Allen enters his second season behind the mic as he will serve as the color commentator for all 12 contests. The 1982 Tech journalism graduate is a well-known, highly-read award-winning Louisiana journalist having covered local sports for Shreveport, Monroe and New Orleans dailies from 1984 until 1990. He has written columns for the News-Star and the Times for the past 22 years.

Causey also enters his second year on the broadcast team and will serve as the sideline reporter for most of Tech's games. The former Bulldog quarterback has strong ties to Louisiana Tech football with numerous relatives playing and coaching in the program, including his father John, his cousin Mike, and uncles Walter and Tom. He is also the grandson of Bulldog coaching legend and Hall of Famer Maxie Lambright.

Thornell begins his 23rd year as a member of the LA Tech Sports Network as he will serve as the statistician for the majority of Bulldog football games this year while also moving down to the sideline for a selected number of contests. A 1969 graduate of the Louisiana Tech marketing department, Thornell began his association with the LA Tech Sports Network in 1990 as the statistician before moving down to the sideline in 1996 where he has spent the majority of his time.

Mason Ellenberger is the general manager for LA Tech Sports Properties which maintains all the rights to the LA Tech Sports Network. Ellenberger, who enters his fourth year as a member of the LA Tech Athletics family, was instrumental in the growth of LA Tech Sports Properties which was recognized as the #1 new growth property in the Learfield Sports portfolio in 2009-10.

The LA Tech Sports Network team will host a one-hour pregame show prior to each kickoff and a 30-minute post-game show. Tech Gameday, a two-hour pre-pregame show, will also air prior to each home contest at Joe Aillet Stadium live from Tailgate Alley.

For more information on the LA Tech Sports Network, call Ellenberger at 318-257-5331 or email him at mellenberger@ltsportsproperies.com.

Daily Media Availability

The following is a general weekly schedule of media availability for the Louisiana Tech football team. Members of the media are expected to adhere to these policies at all times. All interview requests should be made to Louisiana Tech Associate Director of Media Relations Patrick Walsh at least 24 hours in advance. All media availability times are subject to change. Please contact Patrick Walsh for any changes in the schedule. (Note: First year players are not available to the media unless by special request.)

Monday: Sonny Dykes participates in the WAC's Weekly Coaches' Teleconference at 11:53 a.m. CT. LA Tech's weekly media luncheon starts with food served at noon and statements/interviews beginning around 12:30 p.m. A few players will also be made available. Dykes' radio show airs from 5:30 p.m. – 6:30 p.m. live from the Dawg House in Ruston.
Tuesday: All coaches and players are available following practice.
Wednesday: All coaches and players are available following practice.
Thursday, Friday and Sunday: No availability.
Saturday: Post-game availability only. Members of the LA Tech Athletics Media Relations Staff will escort media representatives to the media room with five minutes remaining in the game. The Louisiana Tech locker room, home or away, is closed to the media at all times. Post-game interview requests should be submitted to Patrick Walsh before the five minute mark in the fourth quarter.

For games in Ruston, all Louisiana Tech post-game press conference will be held in the Jarrell Room located in the Charles Wyly Athletic Center after each game following a 10-minute cooling off period. No interviews will be allowed on the field with players and/or coaches immediately following games. Coach Dykes and selected Louisiana Tech players will be available in the press conference following games. Opposing coaches will be available outside the visiting locker room following a 10-minute cooling off period.

Social Media

Louisiana Tech fans can access the most in-depth information regarding all the University's programs through social media opportunities available online.

LA Tech All-Access – LA Tech All-Access is a subscription based platform that Tech fans can access live video/audio streams of almost every Tech home sporting event and live audio streams of road football, men's basketball, women's basketball and selected baseball and softball games plus press conferences and other special events. For only $9.95 per month or $79.95 for the year, Bulldog and Lady Techster fans can be a part of all of the action.

Facebook/Twitter – Get the most up-to-date information in 140 characters or less by following @LATechFB on Twitter. Associate Media Relations Director Patrick Walsh can also be found on Twitter at @LATechPWalsh and offers information as well as answers questions. LA Tech Athletics can also be found on Facebook.

Hill Oil's Inside Bulldog Football with Sonny Dykes

Louisiana Tech head coach Sonny Dykes will team up with the long-time voice of the Bulldogs Dave Nitz for 12 Monday's during the season for the Inside Bulldog Football radio show.

The one-hour show will air on Mondays from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. live from the Dawg House Sports Grill in Ruston as all Tech fans are encouraged to attend the event in support of LA Tech football.

The show can also be heard each week on the LA Tech Sports Network on ESPN Radio 97.7 FM and via the internet by purchasing a subscription for LA Tech All-Access at www.latechsports.com as Nitz and Dykes will review the previous contest while previewing the upcoming game.

LA Tech players and coaches will be special guests on the show along with former alumni and other members of the LA Tech Athletics family.

Dates for the Shows

WE ARE LOUISIANA TECH UNIVERSITY

WELCOME TO THE FAMILY

" Louisiana Tech will be a top research university. And every top research university in the United States has a top athletic program. That's our goal. We're developing a road map for Tech athletics."

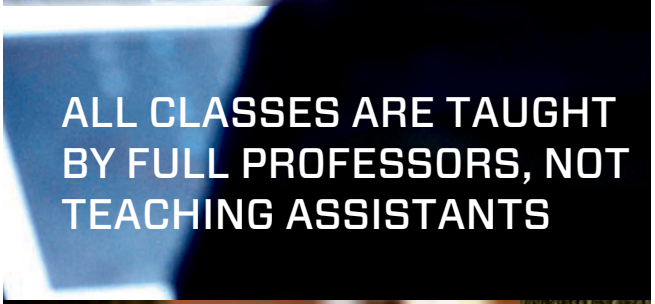
-- Tech President Dr. Dan Reneau

THIS IS LOUISIANA TECH

AT LOUISIANA TECH YOU ARE NOT A NUMBER, YOU ARE FAMILY.

LOUISIANA TECH

- ☆ is classified as a National Tier 1 University, the only Carnegie Doctoral/High Research University and the only SREB Doctoral Four-Year 2 Research University in north Louisiana; also the only university in north Louisiana to earn a spot on the 2012 Best Colleges National Universities list.
- ☆ is ranked as the top university in the state for mid-career median pay for graduates, according to the 2011-12 College Salary Report from PayScale.com. In addition to its top spot in the state, Louisiana Tech was ranked among the top 30 of all universities in the southern United States.
- ☆ is ranked as one of the 100 Best Values in Public Colleges in the nation by Kiplinger's Magazine for the fourth consecutive year.
- ☆ saw 90 percent of first-year and senior students rate their entire educational experience at the University as "good or excellent," according to a 2010 National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE) report.



MORE THAN 700 COMPANIES WORLDWIDE TRAVEL TO CAMPUS EACH YEAR TO RECRUIT LOUISIANA TECH GRADUATES

Louisiana Tech President Dr. Dan Reneau is known as one of the top collegiate presidents in the country and a staunch supporter of both academics and athletics.

"Louisiana Tech University is a family of students, instructors, staff, friends and alumni. We are teachers, doctors, engineers and artists. We are moms and dads, newlyweds, retirees and rookies on the job. Let us help you realize your dreams as we continue to realize the University's dreams together. Join the family."

-- Dr. Dan Reneau, University President

QUARTER SYSTEM – BIG ADVANTAGE FOR THE STUDENT-ATHLETE

Louisiana Tech has a unique advantage of being on the quarter system as opposed to the semester system. The quarter system provides significant advantages for the students:

- ☆ Lighter workload (take 3 classes instead of 5)
- ☆ Shorter academic sessions (12 weeks instead of 18)
- ☆ More frequent breaks during and between academic sessions
- ☆ More opportunities to withdraw or drop a class and still remain TOPS eligible

HELPING PUT THE STUDENT INTO STUDENT-ATHLETE

THE BULLDOG ACHIEVEMENT RESOURCE CENTER (BARC) is committed to the success of Louisiana Tech's student-athletes.

PROGRAMS PROVIDED BY BARC

- ☆ Tutoring and group help sessions in all subjects
- ☆ Supplemental instruction from students who have already successfully completed a certain course
- ☆ Writing assistance
- ☆ Advising opportunities
- ☆ Referral program for students needing additional assistance
- ☆ Computer labs and study hall space

"If you want to really be noticed, and not be just another student at a university, Tech is your best choice … a family-oriented atmosphere where people care. Everyone is great around campus and in town, and there are lots of things to do here if you step out and explore. My first-year college experience has been great."

– Courtney Hayes, So.
(Las Vegas, Nev.)

OLIVIA LUKASEWICH

Soccer standout Olivia Lukasewich was nominated for the NCAA Woman of the Year Award following her outstanding career at Louisiana Tech. During her four-year career, she led the Lady Techster soccer team to its best four-year stretch in program history. She earned her bachelor's degree in health and physical education and graduated Magna Cum Laude.

"Don't pass over Tech because it is a small school or in a small town. The atmosphere is great and very supportive of the school. I love the small class sizes; the teachers know you by name and you get much more personal attention than you might be able to get somewhere else. It really is a family atmosphere."

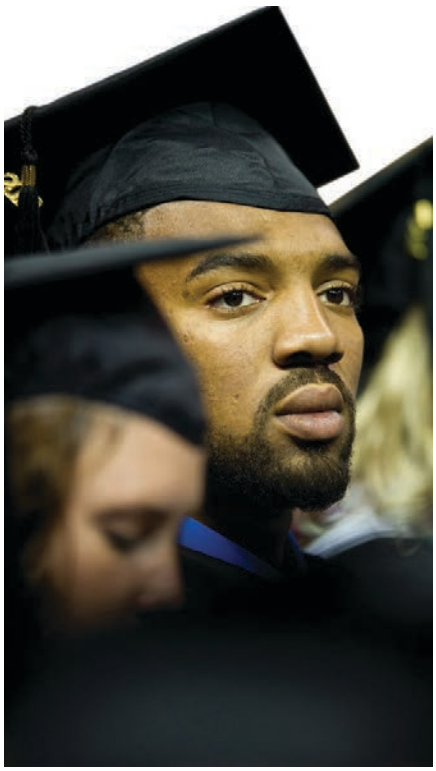
– Jack Lempke, Jr. (Frisco, Texas)

LISA MERRITT and BRAD HERMAN team up in the Louisiana Tech athletics academic center to help the University's student-athletes excel in the classroom and ultimately earn their degrees, something that is the No. 1 goal for the administration and coaches at Tech.

"Tech has helped me mature into the student I am today. I started slowly, but Tech was very inspirational with helping me work toward my overall goal because my professors and coaches taught me that through hard work and faith, all things are possible. I've met people here who will be my friends for the rest of my life. Just as Tech will be."

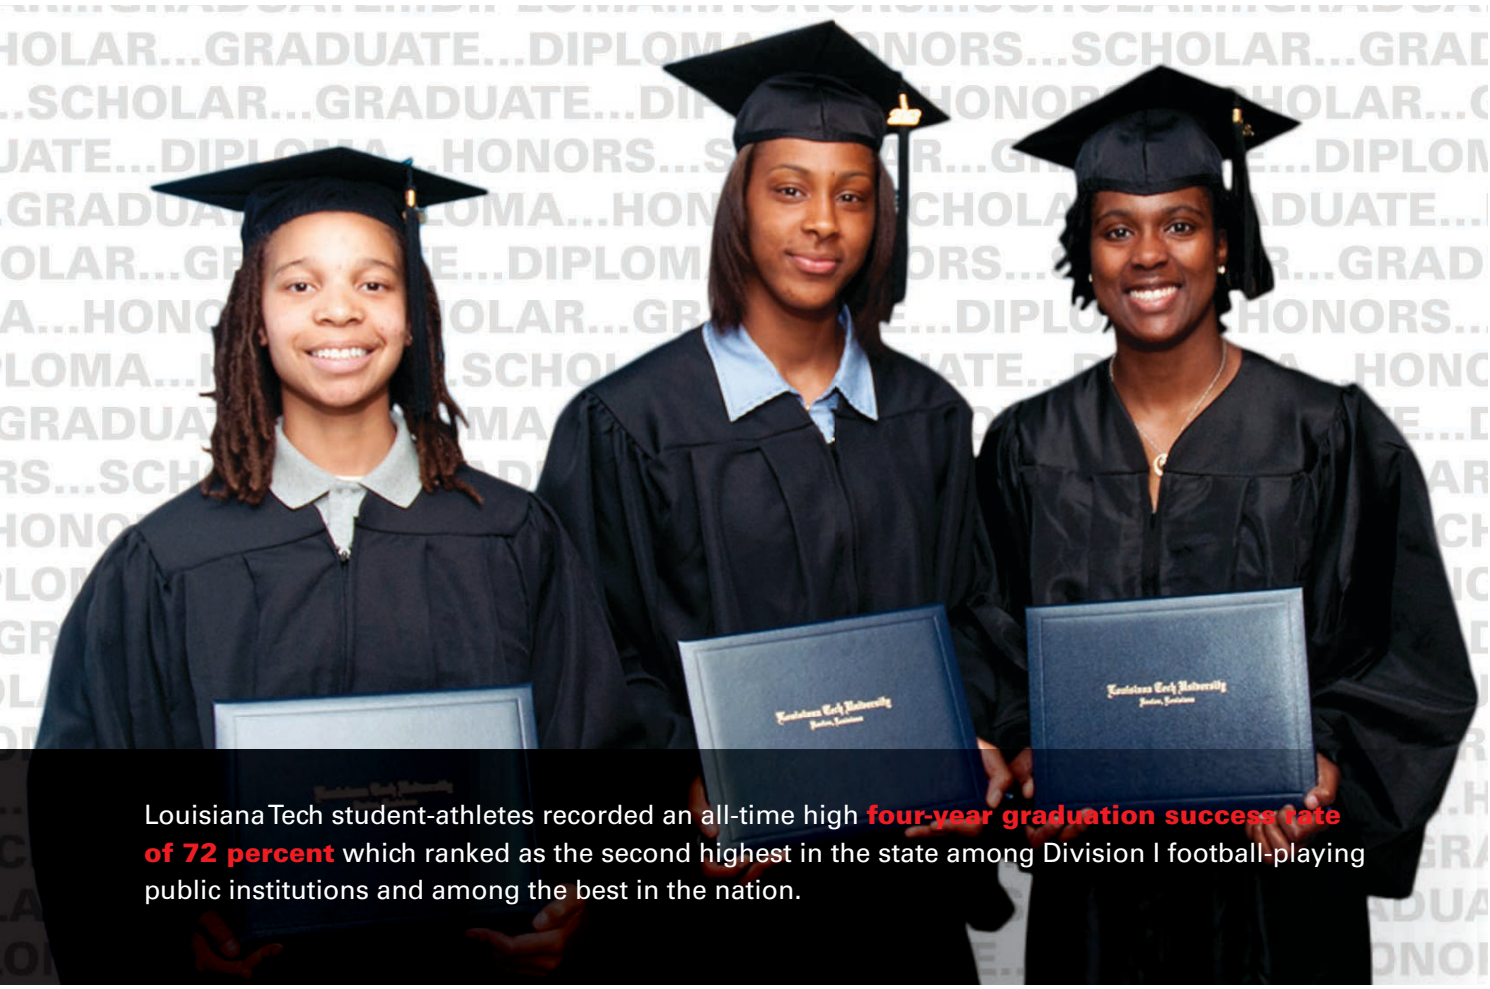
– Philip Longino, Jr.
(Houston, Texas)

TODAY'S FRESHMAN IS TOMORROW'S GRADUATE



LOUISIANA TECH

- ☆ saw 94 student-athletes earn Academic All-WAC accolades in 2011-12.
- ☆ saw nine of its programs record their highest multi-year APR scores ever while five registered their highest single year APR score ever. Four of the programs also earned a perfect 1,000 score on the single year rate.
- ☆ saw the Bulldog football program earn the 2011 Academic Achievement Award presented by the American Football Coaches Association for graduating over 75 percent of its football student-athletes.
- ☆ saw the Bulldog golf program earn an NCAA Public Recognition Award for ranking in the top 10 percent in multi-year APR for their respective sport.



Louisiana Tech student-athletes recorded an all-time high four-year graduation success rate of 72 percent which ranked as the second highest in the state among Division I football-playing public institutions and among the best in the nation.

LOUISIANA TECH

- ☆ boasts the University of Louisiana System's highest graduation rate at 54.2 percent.
- ☆ boasts the ULS' fastest time to completion for first time baccalaureates at 4.7 years.
- ☆ boasts the ULS' highest average freshman ACT scores at 23.8.

STUDENT CENTER --
a large cafeteria-style area that allows students to choose from a variety of eating establishments including, Chick-Fil-A and Burger King as well as a cafeteria

LOCAL RESTAURANTS -- students get plenty of Louisiana flavor as Ruston is full of local restaurants that range from a little Cajun spice to southern down-home cooking

QUADRANGLE --
one of the most frequented areas of campus where students hang out under century-old oak trees to study and socialize

LAMBRIGHT INTRAMURAL CENTER --
an on-campus recreational facility which includes a brand new $12.5 million swimming complex which just opened this spring. The facility also includes a rock-climbing wall, basketball courts, racquetball courts, a bowling alley, men's and women's weightrooms, an indoor track, saunas, steamrooms and a variety of cardio equipment

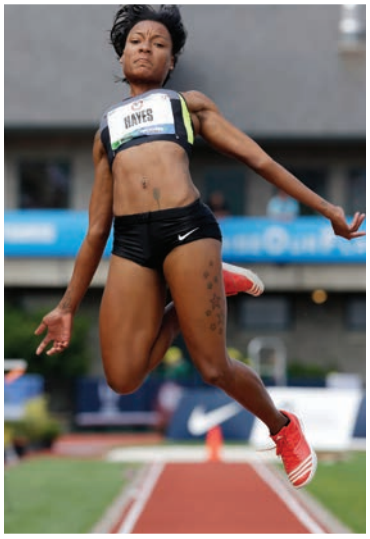
STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Tech students are some of the best fans in the South as all of the University's athletic teams have great followings on game days whether football, basketball or any of the 16 NCAA Division I sanctioned programs.

The MISS TECH pageant is just one of many annual student events on campus, including unity step shows, Greek Week, Spring Fling, homecoming, talent shows, concerts, intramurals, sporting events, student organizations, theatrical and musical productions and more.

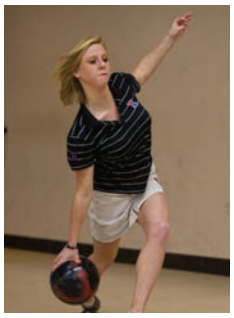
Construction on the brand new $12.5 million recreational and competitive swimming pools was completed this spring. The facility connects to the existing Lambright Intramural Center and is the final phase of a $50 million recreational construction project on campus that included new tennis courts, track and bowling alley. An atrium connects the two facilities and includes a rock-climbing wall as well as Counter Culture, a café complete with sandwiches, soups, smoothies and a variety of drinks.

SUCCESS BREEDS SUCCESS



LOUISIANA TECH'S ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT:

- ☆ accepted an invitation to join Conference USA in an all-sports move starting July 1, 2013.
- ☆ won the NCAA Pack the House Challenge for the WAC for the fifth straight year, the only school in the country to win it four straight years.
- ☆ finished sixth in the Excellence in Management Cup (presented by Texas A&M's Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics), marking the third straight year it earned a Top 10 ranking.
- ☆ set an annual fundraising record with gifts totaling $6 million while the Louisiana Tech Athletic Club (LTAC) set a record for annual membership with 1,252 donors.



ON THE PLAYING FIELDS:

☆ Bulldog football ended the season on a seven-game winning streak to capture the 2011 WAC Championship – first since 2001 – and earned a berth in the Poinsettia Bowl against 15th-ranked TCU.

☆ Track stars Chelsea Hayes (long jump, USA), Jason Morgan (discus, Jamaica) and Ayanna Alexander (triple jump, Trinidad) all qualified for the 2012 Summer Olympics in London.

☆ Bulldog basketball upset No. 1 seed Nevada and advanced to its first ever WAC Tournament championship game under first-year head coach Mike White.

☆ Lady Techster outfielder Dacia Hale tied the NCAA Division I softball single game record with 11 RBI in 17-7 win over perennial NCAA Tournament power Fresno State.

☆ Bulldog golf earned its highest end-of-the-year ranking in program history, finishing 77th and barely missing its first ever NCAA Regional appearance.

☆ Lady Techster basketball recorded its 38th straight winning season and advanced to the WAC Tournament championship game for the eighth time in 11 years.

☆ Scotti Culton and Olivia Lukasewich became the first Tech soccer players to play professionally.

☆ Alena Erofeyeva won 19 singles matches, falling one short of tying the Lady Techster tennis program record set in 1982 while tennis won the most matches in a season since 1994.

☆ Bulldog pitcher Phil Maton was named to the 2012 Louisville Slugger Freshmen All-American Team.

☆ Adriano De Souza was named the ninth head coach in the history of the Lady Techster volleyball program.

USA ... USA ... USA ...

AS IN CONFERENCE USA

After a 12-year affiliation in the highly-respected Western Athletic Conference, Louisiana Tech will make the all-sports move to Conference USA on July 1, 2013.

The 14-team league will include eight schools in the central time zone as Louisiana Tech will boast natural geographic rivalries with a host of outstanding academic and athletic universities including Tulane, Southern Miss, Rice, Tulsa, UTSA, North Texas and UAB. The league also includes highly-respected institutions (outside of the central time zone) in UTEP, FIU, Charlotte, Old Dominion, Marshall and East Carolina.

More than a thousand supporters showed up at the Thomas Assembly Center on May 4 when Conference USA Commissioner Britton Banowsky extended the official invitation to Tech President Dan Reneau.

CUSA Highlights

- ☆ 144 Bowl appearances (64 since 1994)
- ☆ 118 NCAA Appearances in Men's Basketball
- ☆ 10 Men's Basketball Final Four Appearances, five National Championship game appearances and one National Championship
- ☆ 2002 NIT Champions (Memphis) and 2001 NIT Champions (Tulsa)
- ☆ 51 NCAA appearances in Women's Basketball (38 since 1994)
- ☆ 112 NCAA Appearances in Baseball (73 since 1995)
- ☆ 12 College World Series Appearances, with five in a row (2003 National Champions - Rice)
- ☆ 26 NCAA appearances in Volleyball in the last 14 years
- ☆ Two Softball College World Series Appearances
- ☆ Two Men's Soccer College Cup Appearances
- ☆ 17 Men's Golf National Championships
- ☆ Two Women's Golf National Championships
- ☆ 32 National Championships in Track and Field and Cross Country

QUEST for EXCELLENCE

The Campaign for Louisiana Tech Athletics

QUEST FOR EXCELLENCE – Meeting the Needs of Tech's Student-Athletes

The construction of a 90,000-plus square-foot multipurpose facility in the south end zone of Joe Aillet Stadium will benefit every student-athlete at Louisiana Tech University.

STUDENT-ATHLETE BENEFITS INCLUDE:

- ★ New academic center
- ★ New state-of-the-art sports medicine facility
- ★ New strength and conditioning complex
- ★ New coaches offices and locker rooms for football, baseball, soccer, tennis, softball, golf and track and field
- ★ Video room with state-of-the-art capabilities
- ★ New auditorium for team and departmental meetings

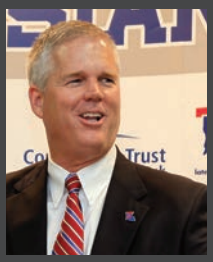
More than $12 million of the projected $20 million has already been committed as the project is moving forward and could break ground as soon as spring of 2013. Tech alums Steve Davison (pictured), Terry Bradshaw and Drake Mills form the Leadership Team that is spearheading the fundraising for the facility, along with Tech Athletics Director Bruce Van De Velde.

LOUISIANA TECH already ranks among the state and conference leaders in student-athlete graduation rate and in Academic Progress Report rate, and the new academic center will further enhance and emphasize the University's commitment to the classroom.

Since Louisiana Tech joined the WAC in 2001, its athletic programs have captured 29 team championships and dozens of individual titles.

Louisiana Tech has contracted with renowned sports architectural firm Populous to develop a master facility plan. Populous has created some of the most recognizable professional sports venues in the country:

- ★ Yankee Stadium
- ★ Busch Stadium
- ★ AT&T Park
- ★ Pepsi Center
- ★ PNC Park
- ★ PETCO Park
- ★ Oriole Park at Camden Yards
- ★ Reliant Stadium



"This project addresses many of the needs of our student-athletes, enhances recruiting and provides a source of pride for our alumni and fans. Our vision is a quest for excellence and a desire, focus and commitment to be an institution that values academic and athletic excellence."

– Tech Athletics Director Bruce Van De Velde

"Quest for Excellence is a watershed event in the history of our athletics program and, through the private contributions of our friends and supporters, will put our University shoulder-to-shoulder with some of the most progressive and respected programs in the nation."

- Tech President Dr. Dan Reneau

LA TECH IN THE COMMUNITY

Lady Techster Soccer donated over 1,000 hours this past year conducting clinics for area youth.

The Bulldog basketball team is just one of the many Louisiana Tech programs that interacts with area elementary children during the year.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

LA Tech student-athletes volunteered more than 3,000 hours of community service this past school year with all 16 Division I sanctioned programs involved in some aspect of giving back to the community. Community service projects range from interaction with local schools to the Boys and Girls Club to the Methodist Children's Home to the local retirement/nursing homes to the DART Pumpkin Patch.

Bulldog football hosts Pigskins & Pearls every year which raises thousands of dollars for the Boys and Girls Club.

Members of the LA Tech track and field team helped with the annual canned food drive in Ruston during the holidays.

JOE AILLET STADIUM

The college football atmosphere in Ruston is filled with energetic fans, beautiful women and spicy food … a taste of Louisiana and the South that all Bulldog fans have come to know and love.

SPIRIT OF '88

An icon at Joe Aillet Stadium, the Spirit of '88 is a bronze Bulldog statue in the south endzone of the stadium that commemorates the blood, sweat and tears of the 1988 Louisiana Tech team that blazed the path into Division I-A football. As a salute to that 1988 team, every Louisiana Tech player and coach touches the Spirit of '88 upon entrance onto the field prior to every home game.

THE WALK OF PRIDE

A tradition that started in 2007 was the Walk of Pride, where Bulldog fans line the street and welcome the players as Tech arrives at Joe Aillet Stadium two hours prior to kickoff.

DAWGZILLA

The 1,400 square foot high definition video board – the largest in the WAC – has improved the fans' game-day experiences at Joe Aillet Stadium.

TECH XX

How about them Dawgs! Tech XX is the mascot of the Louisiana Tech Bulldogs and patrols the Joe Aillet Stadium sidelines each Saturday night during the fall.

ESPN IS IN THE HOUSE!

ESPN Radio produces a 2-hour pre-game show live from Tailgate Alley for every Bulldog home game. The talent analyzes the contest while conducting interviews with representatives from both teams.

BAND OF PRIDE

Led by one of the all-time great band directors in Jim Robken, Louisiana Tech's Band of Pride brings the true sound of college football to Ruston with pre-game, halftime and post-game performances.

TAILGATING

Over the last decade, tailgating on game days at Joe Aillet Stadium has become the thing to do as Bulldog fans donned in blue start firing up the grills in preparation for kickoff. Bar-B-Q cook-offs, face painting, Tailgate Alley, the Kids Zone and all-around family fun exists for Bulldog fans of all ages.

THE BLUE

Louisiana Tech's super-rabid student organization that paint themselves blue from head to toe on game day helping make Joe Aillet Stadium a tough place for visitors to play.

BIG WINS GREAT PERFORMANCES SPECTACULAR PLAYS

LOUISIANA TECH'S football program has experienced numerous highs during the course of its 100-plus year history, claiming 25 conference titles, numerous bowl berths and a plethora of All-Americans and NFL players.

From the very first win in the program's history (a 6-0 victory over LSU in 1904) to winning the 2011 WAC Championship, Louisiana Tech football has always made its fans proud.

And since making the move from I-AA to I-A in 1989, Louisiana Tech has proven time after time it belongs among the big boys of college football defeating the likes of Alabama (twice), California, Michigan State, Mississippi State (twice), Ole Miss and Oklahoma State since the mid 90s.

From big wins to great performances to spectacular plays, Louisiana Tech football has always shown the heart of a champion.

LOUISIANA TECH LEGEND

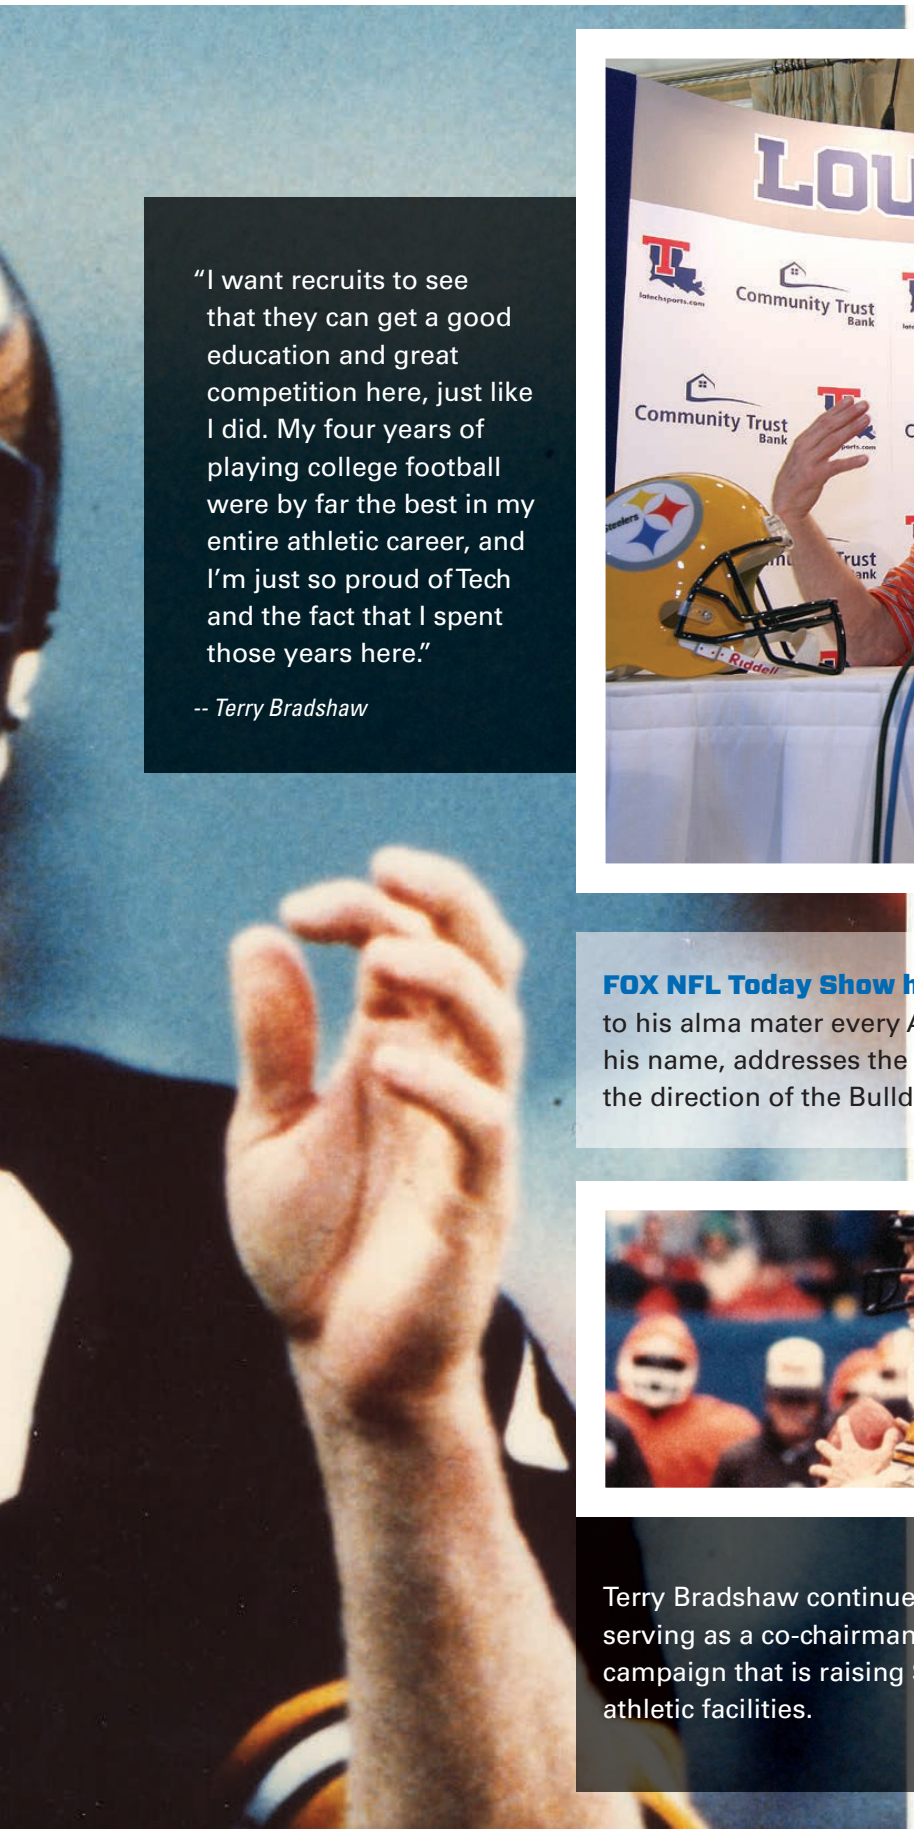
Terry Bradshaw, one of only two quarterbacks in NFL history to win four Super Bowls, donated priceless items of personal memorabilia to his alma mater. He also serves as one of the chairman for the Quest For Excellence campaign.

- ☆ Super Bowl championship rings from Super Bowls IX, X, XIII, XIV
- ☆ Miniature replica trophies from the four Super Bowls
- ☆ Professional Football Hall of Fame bust
- ☆ College Football and Professional Football Hall of Fame rings
- ☆ Helmet and jersey from Super Bowl victory

All of these items are secured and on display at the Charles Wyly Athletic Center, home of the Bulldog football program.



"I want recruits to see that they can get a good education and great competition here, just like I did. My four years of playing college football were by far the best in my entire athletic career, and I'm just so proud of Tech and the fact that I spent those years here."

-- Terry Bradshaw

FOX NFL Today Show host TERRY BRADSHAW, who returns to his alma mater every April to play in a golf fundraiser bearing his name, addresses the local media about his excitement over the direction of the Bulldog football program and the University.

Terry Bradshaw continues to support his alma mater, currently serving as a co-chairman for the Quest for Excellence capital campaign that is raising $20 million to elevate Tech's athletic facilities.

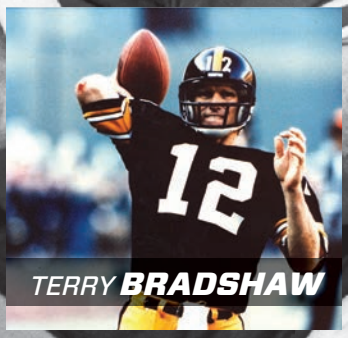
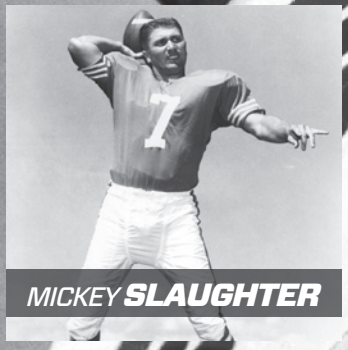
QUARTERBACK UNIVERSITY

LOUISIANA TECH has a long history of producing professional quarterbacks, including Hall of Famers Terry Bradshaw, Matt Dunigan, Mickey Slaughter and Tim Rattay. Most recently, Tech has boasted two NFL quarterbacks in Luke McCown and Tim Rattay.



TERRY BRADSHAW is one of only two quarterbacks to win four Super Bowl titles as the Blonde Bomber led the Pittsburgh Steelers during the 1970s and 80s. He is a member of the NFL and College Football Halls of Fame.

MATT DUNIGAN was inducted into the Canadian Football League Football Hall of Fame in 2006 after a stellar 14-year professional career. He finished his career with 43,857 passing yards and 306 touchdowns.



MICKEY SLAUGHTER played for the Denver Broncos from 1963 through 1966 after being selected as the 50th overall pick in the 1963 draft. He is a member of the Louisiana Tech Hall of Fame.

TIM RATTAY spent nine years in the NFL with the San Francisco 49ers, Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Arizona Cardinals following a record-setting career at Louisiana Tech. Rattay ended his Bulldog career ranked in the Top 5 in NCAA history in passing yards and total offense.

LUKE McCOWN begins his ninth season in the NFL, his first with the New Orleans Saints. McCown was one of the most prolific passers in NFL history, ending his career ranked in the Top 10 in NCAA history in passing yards, total offense and passing touchdowns.

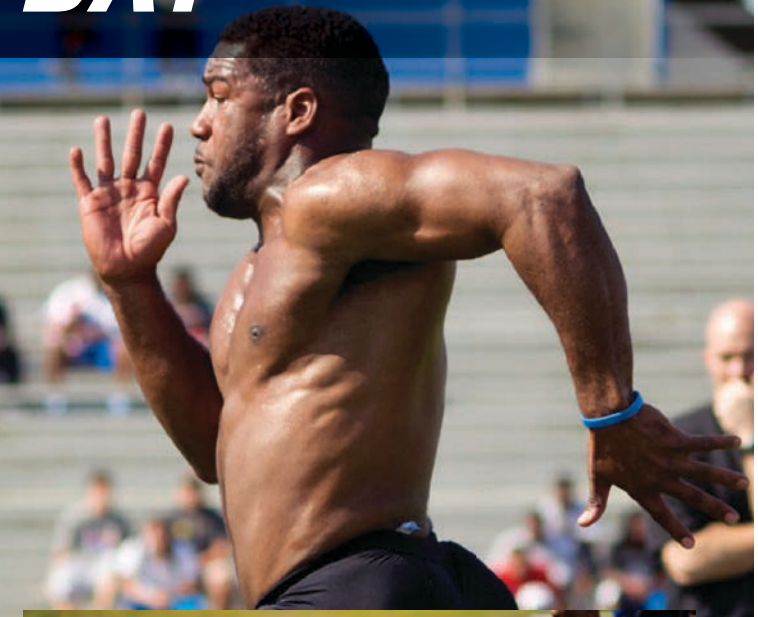
REPRESENTATIVES FROM DOZENS OF NFL TEAMS CONVERGE ON THE LOUISIANA TECH CAMPUS EVERY SPRING FOR THE BULLDOG FOOTBALL PROGRAM'S ANNUAL PRO DAY.

LOUISIANA TECH PRO DAY



PRO DAY gives NFL scouts an opportunity to view potential Louisiana Tech pro prospects each year by putting them through a series of strength, speed and agility tests prior to April's NFL Draft. The Karl Malone Weightroom and FieldTurf surface of Joe Aillet Stadium are the perfect settings, giving both the scouts and the participants an ideal environment to conduct the session.

Louisiana Tech head coach Sonny Dykes strongly believes that providing the opportunity for NFL scouts to get a firsthand look at Bulldog players ready to make the next step is an important factor in furthering playing careers on the next level.

LOUISIANA TECH TO FACE BATTLE OF EXPECTATIONS, LOOKING FOR REPEAT CONFERENCE TITLE IN 2012

Entering its third year under head coach Sonny Dykes and coming off a Western Athletic Conference title, the 2012 installment of Bulldog Football is expected to be improved over last year's championship team but will have to battle those expectations as well.

The Bulldogs return 16 starters (and 50 letterwinners) off a team that rebounded from a 1-4 start to win seven straight games and claim the school's first WAC title in a decade.

OFFENSE

With eight starters returning, the Sonny Dykes- and Tony Franklin-led offense is expected to continue the marked improvements it made last fall, when it averaged 30.1 points and almost 400 yards of offense per game.

While the last two years have seen a lack of stability at quarterback, Tech enters the 2012 campaign with the job on Colby Cameron's shoulders to win or lose. Last year Cameron replaced the departed Nick Isham midway through the year as he led Tech to a win at Utah State and never looked back. The redshirt senior played in seven games – started in six – and threw for over 1,600 yards and 13 touchdowns in that span.

Backing Cameron up will be Zach Griffith, a redshirt sophomore who sat out last season after joining the program from Fullerton Community College. In the T-Day Spring Game, Griffith showed he was more than capable as he was 38-for-44 for 419 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions while directing the second team offense.

Following Cameron and Griffith, Tarik Hakmi and Andy McAlindon stand ready to serve while Texas Tech transfer Scotty Young will direct the scout team offense in 2012 as he is forced to sit out due to the NCAA transfer rule.

The offensive back field looks to be as talented and deep as ever despite Lennon Creer exhausting his eligibility and the tragic loss of 21-year old running back Tyrone Duplessis to a heart attack on Feb. 2, 2012.

Former walk-on tailback Hunter Lee emerged as the team's go-to (and only) running back late last year as injuries and other circumstances decimated Tech's backfield. Lee stepped up admirably with 650 yards rushing on 135 carries and five touchdowns, averaging 4.8 yards per rush. Ray Holley ran for 144 yards on 36 carries before a back injury at Mississippi State ended his season early, but he has been granted another year of eligibility by the NCAA.

A pair of talented freshman will follow that experienced pair as Tevin King and Kenneth Dixon round out the tailbacks. The two are both highly regarded athletes but with very different styles as King brings a speedy, quick move presence on the field while Dixon, at 6-0, 211 pounds prior to camp, has a tough downfield-running presence.

While Cameron may be the so-called "Field Marshall" there is no mistaking the leadership of "General" Quinton Patton whether he is on or off the field. Patton registered over 1,200 yards receiving and 11 touchdowns last season, averaging 15.2 yards per catch and an explosive manner that can leave defenders trailing in the dust. His off-the-field leadership is highly regarded as well, providing a source of comedy or motivation when needed. Patton will be backed up by the speedy and experienced Richie Casey and D.J. St. Julien. Casey is dangerous at any position as he even connected with David Gru on a 45-yard pass at Utah State that set up the team's first touchdown.

After spending most of 2011 battling injuries, Myles White emerged late in the year as a dangerous inside receiver capping the season off with 110 yards receiving including a 61-yard touchdown catch against No. 15 TCU in the Poinsettia Bowl. He finished the year with a respectable 414 yards receiving, averaging 13.8 yards per catch. White is expected to be spelled by newcomer Travis Reyes, a junior college product of Foothill JC.

Also on the inside will be the steady hands of David Gru, a quiet but constant receiver that is as reliable as anyone else on the field. Gru averaged 13.0 yards in his 26 catches (339 yards total) with one touchdown. He will be aided by Jon Greenwalt at the inside receiver "Y" position. Greenwalt joined the program in time for spring practice and exploded in the T-Day Spring Game with six catches for 161 yards.

Rounding out the receiving positions will be Jacarri Jackson leading the way at the other outside position. The coaching staff spent most of 2011 working with Jackson on becoming a more consistent player, utilizing his talents more often. Jackson's biggest play of the year came at Nevada with his over-the-shoulder, 25-yard catch from Cameron that set up the game-winning touchdown two plays later. Also at the "X" receiver position will be D.J. Banks, a Tulane transfer that sat out the 2011 season but brings explosive athleticism to the field. Banks caught four passes for 102 yards and a touchdown in the T-Day Spring Game showing he is dangerous on the field, particularly in gaining yards after the catch.

Paving the way up front will be a talented offensive line that returns four starters that have a combined 91 starts between them. The line is led by center Stephen Warner, a preseason watch listee for both the Outland and Rimington Trophies and a first team All-WAC selection last year. A former walk-on from nearby Ruston High School, Warner has the unique job of not only being the center but also calling the cadence prior to snaps.

Aiding Warner and his 28 career starts on the front lines are veterans Oscar Johnson (13 career starts), Jordan Mills (22 career starts) and Kevin Saia (28 career starts). Johnson, a right guard last year, has moved to left tackle to replace the graduated Kris Cavitt and Matthew Shepperd has moved from back-up center to projected right guard. Shepperd will spend fall camp battling Joshua Robinson for that position.

Larry Banks is expected to battle Oscar Johnson for the left tackle spot while Josh Parrish and Jeremy Graffree will be available to spell Saia at left guard. Alec Davis and Jens Danielson, both of whom joined the program in time for spring practice, will be the back-ups at center and right tackle, respectively. Overall, this year's offensive line has the most depth it has had in years.

DEFENSE

Tommy Spangler's "GATA" defense was opportunistic and swarming last season, taking advantage of opponent's miscues last year and creating those miscues when they weren't presented. The highlight of the defense was ranking third in the country in interceptions, third in pick-sixes and 12th in turnover margin while posting the best scoring defense in two decades. The challenge for the group this fall will be to replicate that success despite losing five starters.

The defensive line may be the most experienced group as a whole to return despite the loss of Matt Broha and Christian Lacey. Returning with plenty of game experience this fall is second team All-WAC tackle Justin Ellis and Shakeil Lucas, both projected to be starters. Jon'al White also returns to the line while Vince Cano is making the move from offensive line to defensive line.

On the ends, IK Enemkpali is a strong, athletic end with the ability to pressure the quarterback. Enemkpali registered 3.5 sacks and 7.5 tackles for a loss last year and those numbers are expected to rise in 2012 as he gets stronger and gains more experience. He will be backed up by Andre Taylor, who continues to improve at the end.

On the left side of the line, Kendrick James will replace Broha as the starter and registered 19 tackles including 1.5 sacks last season. He is expected to share time on the left end with Vontarrius Dora, an athletic defensive lineman that redshirted his true freshman year in 2011.

Overall, on the defensive line the term "starter" is just a phrase used but with no meaning. Guided by Stan Eggen, Tech's defensive line rotates 8-10 players through any given series to keep the players fresh and explosive.

The losses at linebacker is where Tech's defense will be affected the most. Replacing a pair of All-WAC linebackers in Adrien Cole and Jay Dudley is no small task, especially when you consider Cole was the 2011 WAC Defensive Player of the Year. Cole and Dudley combined for 230 tackles, 31 tackles for a loss and five interceptions last season.

At MIKE linebacker, Solomon Randle is expected to start and is the most experienced linebacker on the roster with eight career starts. Randle actually has considerable experience, sharing playing time with Cole in 2010 and gaining more experience in 2011. He will be followed by Ches Morrison on the depth chart, a blue collar player that has spent the last few years working hard on the scout team and on special teams.

At SAM linebacker, Rufus Porter showed during spring practice he is ready for the task. Porter was one of the more vocal players on the team during spring practice although he did not play in the T-Day Spring Game. Also vying for time will be Antonio Mitchum, a player who saw time on special teams last year and finished the T-Day Spring Game with 13 total tackles including 2.5 tackles for a loss.

Leading the secondary will be safety Chad Boyd, a big playmaker for the Bulldogs entering his senior year. Boyd was fourth on the team in tackles last year with 76, picked three passes and the national media has already taken note of him as he was named to the Jim Thorpe Award preseason watch list. Behind Boyd is Quinn Giles, also a senior, who registered four interceptions and 34 tackles last season.

The only defensive back from last year's team that had more tackles than Boyd was Jamel Johnson, Tech's free safety who also returns. Jamel Johnson quietly racked up 88 tackles and two interceptions last year while starting in all 13 games. Kendall Hayes backs up Johnson a year after seeing some time in the secondary and gaining lots of game experience on special teams.

At Nickle, Craig Johnson looks to continue making the steady gains he made last season when he was thrust into game action during week two after Ryan Williams suffered a season-ending knee injury. Johnson learned on the job as he tallied 27 tackles, two tackles for a loss and an interception. Johnson will share playing time with the hard-hitting Javontay Crowe who registered 36 tackles and an interception last season.

Dave Clark at right corner is the most experienced of a very young group of cornerbacks on this year's roster and the only one to have started a collegiate game. Clark recorded 33 tackles and three interceptions last season, coming on strong midway through the year. He has the chance to lead a young but very talented group this fall.

At left corner, Bryson Abraham and Levander Liggins will vie for playing time. Abraham spent most of the spring going against Patton, learning very quickly to adjust to incredibly talented receivers. Liggins has game experience, but mainly only on special teams as a return man. They will be challenged by a group of freshmen coming in that are as athletic as any secondary signing class in the region.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Since special teams coordinator Mark Tommerdahl joined the program in 2009, Louisiana Tech has consistently fielded one of the best special teams units in the country. That unit received national attention in 2011 and has a chance to repeat its success in 2012.

Tech punter Ryan Allen put up incredible numbers kicking the ball last season as he averaged over 46 yards per punt while leading the nation with 39 punts inside the 20 and 22 punts inside the 10. Not unnoticed by the rest of the country, Ryan Allen won the Ray Guy Award (nation's top punter) and became the first punter from a non-BCS school to do so. He was also the only player from a non-BCS school to win a national award in 2011.

Allen's leg continually flipped the field for the Bulldogs in 2011 and during the Poinsettia Bowl ESPN announcer Joe Tessitore emphatically stated, "Good things happen when Ryan Allen is on the field."

Matt Nelson returns for his senior year as a seasoned veteran kicker that went 15-for-21 in field goals last season and converting 46 of 48 extra points. A second team All-WAC selection last fall, Nelson averaged 60.7 yards per kickoff.

The return game is dynamic and dangerous with every member of last year's punt and kick-off return teams back for another season. Andrew Guillot averaged 12.0 yards per punt return while Craig Johnson returned a punt for a touchdown against New Mexico State.

Levander Liggins proved to be a capable and speedy kickoff return man after Lyle Fitte suffered a season-ending knee injury while Chandler Spence and Richie Casey also return. Expect to see D.J. Banks back on kicks as well, providing several weapons for Tommerdahl's return units.

SCHEDULE

With the loss of Fresno State, Hawai'i and Nevada and the addition of Texas State and UTSA, the league's schedule does not look as formidable on paper but Utah State and San Jose State round out the league slate and by that point in the season could be playing for bowl eligibility, a conference championship or both. The (Utah State) Aggies and the Spartans have the potential to make a run this season.

However, like last season, Louisiana Tech's early non-conference schedule should prepare the Bulldogs for the rigors of a conference slate. Tech hosts new Southeastern Conference member Texas A&M on Thursday, Aug. 30 at Shreveport's Independence Stadium. New (Texas A&M) Aggie coach Kevin Sumlin knows all about Tech after coaching Houston to a 35-34 win over the Bulldogs last season in Ruston and will utilize all of his SEC and Big 12-level talent to get a win.

Tech then has to face a Case Keenum-less Houston squad on the road on Sept. 8 in trying to avenge that 35-34 loss where the Bulldogs led 34-7 late in the third quarter. Keenum and Sumlin are gone but the Cougars return a wealth of talent in 2012.

The Bulldogs come back home on Sept. 15 to host Rice in a preview of what will be a Conference USA game beginning in 2013. Following that, Tech hits the road for two more BCS games: at Illinois on Sept. 22 and at Virginia on Sept. 29. The final non-conference game will be on Oct. 6 in Ruston as the Bulldogs host UNLV.

SONNY DYKES

Head Coach

Sonny Dykes was introduced as the 32nd head coach in Louisiana Tech history on Jan. 20, 2010 in front of an overflowing Jarrell Room filled with Bulldog fans at the Charles Wyly Athletic Center. In just his second season, his parade was rained on from start to finish.

In a downpour at Joe Aillet Stadium on Nov. 26, the Dykes-led Bulldogs blanked New Mexico State, 44-0, to cap off a seven-game winning streak and to clinch the program's first Western Athletic Conference championship in a decade. For that, Dykes was named the 2011 WAC Coach of the Year.

The streak and title should not have come as a surprise to Bulldog fans as Tech showed they belong with the big boys early in the year, despite a 1-4 start. In the end, an opportunistic defense that was third in the nation in interceptions and pick-sixes along with a fundamentally sound offense and the 2011 Ray Guy Award-winning punter helped LA Tech notch its first seven-game win streak since 1974.

In his first season, Dykes put his high octane offense into effect, resulting in him being one of only four of the nation's 22 new head coaches to improve a team's conference record from the year before. Dykes' exciting brand of offense improved in several areas of the NCAA statistical ranks including passing offense (91st in 2009 to 62nd in 2010) and total offense (66th to 52nd) while the team's average offensive national rank improved from 65th in 2009 to 54th in 2010.

Dykes, son of Texas Tech coaching legend Spike Dykes, has coached in the PAC-10, Southeastern Conference and Big 12 during his 16 years in the college football profession while also serving under some very successful head coaches including Mike Leach and Mike Stoops.

He won the 2006 Mike Campbell Top Assistant Award, presented by the All-American Football Foundation, and was a nominee for the 2009 Broyles Award, which goes to the nation's top assistant coach.

Dykes came to Louisiana Tech after completing his third season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arizona, leading the Wildcats to an 8-5 record and an appearance in the Holiday Bowl. That Holiday Bowl appearance marked Dykes' 10th bowl appearance as a coach with all 10 appearances coming within an 11 year span.

A spread-offense specialist, Dykes' offensive attack set at least five single-season records at Arizona while also racking up a pile of single-game marks in the UA record book. Former Wildcat quarterback Willie Tuitama, a disciple of Dykes, notched career numbers that are among Arizona's best.

"Coach Dykes has demonstrated throughout his coaching career all the leadership qualifications we are looking for in the next leader for our football program," said acting athletics director Bruce Van De Velde. "His coaching success has been achieved at the highest level of competition, from the SEC to the Big 12 to the Pac-10."

Rivals.com cited Dykes as one of the countries brightest offensive minds and top ten college recruiters in the country.

"I have worked my entire life to get to this point, and I have had lots of great mentors that have worked with me and taught me and brought me along," said Dykes. "I am very fortunate to be here."

Dykes' Arizona team went 6-3 in the Pac-10 Conference during the 2009 campaign, finished tied for second in the league with Oregon State and Stanford.

Fond of the passing attack, Dykes Arizona offense in 2008 ranked 16th in scoring and 33rd in total offense while developing an outstanding run-pass balance.

Dykes orchestrated an Arizona offense that was ranked 10th nationally in passing yards per game in 2007 as he coached then-junior Tuitama to honorable mention All-Pac-10 honors that year. That same season, he helped develop the offensive scheme that pushed receiver Mike Thomas to first-team all-league status as a junior and senior ('08).

Prior to his tenure at Arizona, Dykes was co-offensive coordinator working with then-head coach Mike Leach and inside receivers coach Dana Holgorsen running Texas Tech's wide-open passing attack in 2005-06 after having been Texas Tech's wide receivers coach since 2000. The Red Raiders were among the top six nationally in total offense and passing during the span.

Texas Tech was No. 3 in passing and No. 6 in total offense in 2006 under his co-direction, throwing for 370 yards and accumulating nearly 450 overall. He directed an offense that scored 32 points per game in 2006 with two receivers ranked top three in the nation and a third in the top 20 in receptions per game.

While in Lubbock, Dykes helped develop Joel Filani into a two-time first team All-Big 12 honoree and a sixth-round NFL draft selection by the Tennessee Titans in 2007. Receiver Jarrett Hicks also signed a free-agent deal with the San Diego Chargers that year.

Dykes also worked with quarterback Graham Harrell who completed 412 passes for 4,555 yards and 38 touchdowns in 2006, ranking Texas Tech third nationally in total offense that season.

Prior to his five seasons at Texas Tech, Dykes spent two non-consecutive seasons at Kentucky, first coaching tight ends as a graduate assistant in 1997 and then coaching special teams and wide receivers in 1999 under the "Air Raid" attack of former UK coach Hal Mumme. Dykes coached Kentucky's James Whalen to AP All-America honors after his Division I-A record for receptions by a tight end.

Sandwiched in between his two stints in Lexington, Dykes was the wide receivers coach at Northeast Louisiana where he helped receiver Marty Booker set school season and career records and earn Blue-Gray and Shrine Game spots before getting drafted in the third round by the Chicago Bears in 1999.

A 1993 graduate of Texas Tech, Dykes lettered for three years as a baseball player for the Red Raiders. At age 40, Dykes is one of the nation's youngest coaches in the Football Bowl Subdivision.

Dykes is married to the former Kate Golding and they have two daughters, Alta Carolina (Ally) who is four and Charlotte Reese (Charlie) who turns 18 months old on Oct 18.

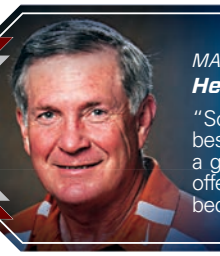
WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT SONNY DYKES

MIKE STOOPS
Assoc. Head Coach/Def. Coordinator, University of Oklahoma

"Coaches aspire to be head coaches, and it's a great opportunity at Louisiana Tech for Sonny. He did some awfully good things here, helping change our offense dramatically in his first season and taking it farther each step afterward. He comes from a coaching family and worked in some outstanding offensive systems. I'm eager to see how it goes in Ruston and won't be surprised if points and yards are one feature for his new program."

TOM DIENHART
Yahoo! Sports/Rivals.com Writer

"Sonny Dykes is one of the top offensive minds in college football and has built some dynamic attacks. He also is a tireless worker whose terrific personality makes him a magnetic recruiter. I expect Sonny to have great success."

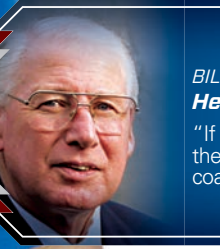


MACK BROWN
Head Coach, University of Texas

"Sonny Dykes is a perfect fit at LA Tech. His dad, Spike, was one of the best coaches of all time, and Sonny is a chip off the old block. He has a great smile and super personality, but has also become a master of offensive football. He has been able to beat teams with better personnel because of his offensive expertise."

TED MILLER
ESPN.com Writer

"It wasn't just that Arizona's offense ranked 115th in the nation the year before Dykes came aboard as offensive coordinator. It was the Wildcats entrenched tradition of lousy offenses. Yet Dykes immediately transformed that beleaguered unit. First, he made it competent. Then he made it good. Then he made it pretty darn scary. It was about more than Xs and Os. It was about leadership and inspiring confidence. You know, stuff good head coaches do."



BILL SNYDER
Head Coach, Kansas State University

"If he is anything like his father, and I truly believe he is, he will endear the entire University and its constituency to him. Sonny is an excellent coach and a loyal and caring person."

JOE TESSITORE
ESPN game broadcaster & College Football Live host

"The program has a certain confidence and energy. I could sense it just by being around Coach Dykes for last year's bowl game against TCU. Teams don't stay the same, they either get better or worse, to me there is no doubt which direction Sonny's team is headed. He's found a way to get the best result he can no matter the circumstances. Knowing some of the injuries and obstacles they had to overcome last year I would expect Louisiana Tech to be even more competitive this year. They have more experience, proven results and a belief in Sonny's system."

GARY PATTERSON
Head Coach, Texas Christian University

"Louisiana Tech doesn't receive the credit they deserve for how good a football team they are."

KEVIN CURTIS

Cornerbacks

Kevin Curtis enters his third season as the cornerbacks coach at Louisiana Tech.

His cornerbacks had anything but a "sophomore slump" in their second year under his direction as Tech's defense ranked third in the nation in both interceptions and pick-sixes. The highlight of those interceptions – and the kick-start to winning at Utah State – was Terry Carter's 22-yard interception return for a touchdown.

In his first season, the Bulldogs tallied 12 interceptions as Ryan Williams led the Tech cornerbacks with two.

Curtis joined the LA Tech staff in 2010 after serving two years at Navarro Junior College where he coached the secondary.

While at Navarro, Curtis' teams went 21-2, won two conference championships and were the 2009 C.H.A.M.P.S. Heart of Texas Bowl champions. Curtis' teams were ranked first in the country in interceptions and had five all-conference honorees while he recruited the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex and West Texas areas.

Curtis was a two-time All-American and three-time All-Big 12 safety at Texas Tech, playing for the Red Raiders when Dykes was on the Texas Tech staff. After a successful collegiate career, Curtis was drafted in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers, where he spent three seasons. After one year with the Houston Texans, Curtis played two years as the team captain for the Cologne Centurions of NFL Europe before returning to the United States to coach.

"I am very pleased to bring Kevin Curtis on our staff," Dykes said. "I had an opportunity to work with and get to know him at Texas Tech where he was a great player. Kevin is an outstanding person whom I had the chance to see coach when I recruited the Navarro area and I knew it wouldn't be long before he was a highly sought-after coach on the Division I level. He is a great recruiter and will be a very strong, positive role model for our players."

STAN EGGEN

Defensive Line

Long-time college coach Stan Eggen begins his fifth season as part of the Louisiana Tech staff and his second as coach of the defensive line.

In addition to 28 years of college coaching experience, Eggen has a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the country, a reputation that has earned him the recruiting coordinator title beginning in the spring of 2010.

During the 2011 WAC championship season it was Eggen's suffocating defensive line that led the charge, registering 29 of the team's 32 sacks and held 12 of Tech's 13 opponents to fewer rushing yards against the Bulldogs than they averaged for the season.

Eggen's first year guiding the defensive line witnessed Matt Broha record a tackle for a loss in 11 of the team's 12 games in 2010 and vaulted the junior to third in the school's all-time sacks record with a year still to play.

During Eggen's second season with LA Tech and as coach of the linebackers, he oversaw a unit that ranked 40th in the nation in both pass defense and pass efficiency defense. Linebacker Adrien Cole garnered first team all-WAC honors as he led LA Tech with 93 total tackles, a mark that ranked him 50th in the nation.

In his first season with the Bulldogs, Eggen helped coach a defensive unit that ranked 13th nationally against the run, allowing only 103.9 yards per game, the fewest by a Tech team since the program joined the Football Bowl Subdivision in 1989. Tech also allowed only 23.7 points per game, the best by a Bulldog team since 1992. The Bulldogs also posted a 21-0 shutout over San Jose State during the season, the first shutout by a LA Tech team since 1996 (a span of 148 games). It was also the first road shutout since 1988 (a span of 225 games).

The Bulldogs success defensively led the program to the 2008 Independence Bowl title as LA Tech defeated Northern Illinois 17-10, the first bowl victory in more than three decades.

Not only did Eggen's linebackers succeed on the field in 2008, but off the field as well as Quin Harris was named one of 15 National Scholar-Athletes, the first in Louisiana Tech history. Harris was also named a Draddy Award finalist and one of 13 Wuerffel Award finalists.

Prior to coming to Ruston, Eggen served as the defensive line coach at Texas A&M under coach Dennis Franchione from 2003-2007. During his time with the Aggies, Texas A&M participated in three bowl games, including the 2005 Cotton Bowl, the 2006 Holiday Bowl and the 2007 Alamo Bowl.

Eggen has been named as one of the Top 20 recruiters in the country multiple times by Rivals.com and was named as one of the Top 10 recruiters in the country by Scout.com. Prior to his stint at Texas A&M, Eggen served as the defensive line coach at Alabama under Franchione in both 2001 and 2002. The 2001 Crimson Tide squad participated in the Independence Bowl.

He also served under Franchione at TCU (1998-00) and New Mexico (1997) where he worked as the defensive line coach. He helped lead the Horned Frogs to three straight bowl appearances, including the 1998 Sun Bowl and the 1999 and 2000 Mobile Bowl. Eggen was an integral part of helping lead a TCU defense in 2000 that ranked first in scoring defense and first in total defense in the country.

Eggen and the Lobos participated in the 1997 Insight.com Bowl.

He had two stints at UNLV (1991-92, 1994-96) sandwiched around one year at Nevada in 1993. He was the defensive coordinator at UNLV from 1994 through 1996, gaining valuable experience and helping the Rebels to the 1994 Las Vegas Bowl.

Prior to that, he coached at Utah State (1986-90), Drake (1984-85), Memphis (1982-83), Southeast Missouri State (1981) and North Dakota (1979-80). While at Utah State, three of his players that he recruited or coached earned Big West Defensive Player of the Year honors.

His postseason resume speaks for itself. He has been a part of nine bowl games. Two of his defensive linemen from the 2007 A&M squad - Red Bryant and Chris Harrington - were selected in the 2008 NFL Draft.

Over his last three coaching stops, Eggen has coached more than a dozen defensive lineman who were selected in the NFL Draft and more than a total of 20 who signed NFL contracts. He has mentored the likes of the Tennessee Titans' Antwan Odom, Green Bay Packers' Johnny Jolly and Buffalo Bills' Aaron Schobel.

Eggen, a native of Dilworth, Minn., earned his bachelor's degree in education from Moorhead State (Minn.) in 1977 and his master's degree in education from North Dakota in 1981. He and his wife, Christina, have three daughters, Sloane, Paige and Shelby. Paige and Shelby are Louisiana Tech students while Sloane is a 2011 graduate of Louisiana Tech.

TONY FRANKLIN

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Tony Franklin joined the Louisiana Tech staff as the offensive coordinator in February 2010, bringing an exciting offensive attack back to Joe Aillet Stadium.

During Franklin's second year in Ruston he orchestrated an offense that was fundamentally sound and continually improved weekly. Tech ranked third in the nation with five different scoring drives of over 90 yards during the 2011 season. That precision guided Tech's offensive explosion at Fresno State when the Bulldogs scored 34 points and notched over 400 offensive yards in the first half alone.

In his first year on staff, Tech's offense exploded into a high octane mechanism in the middle of the season resulting in Tech scoring at least 20 points in six of the last seven games with the team scoring more than 30 points in four of those contests.

Franklin joined the LA Tech family after spending one season as the offensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee. At MTSU, Franklin's offense generated 421.7 yards and 32.0 points per game, the fourth and seventh highest totals in school history. The Blue Raider offense, which produced three all-Sun Belt Conference players, had 30 or more points nine times and topped the 400-yard mark on eight occasions. Franklin's 2009 unit set school records in total yards, passing yards, and total points, while finishing 23rd nationally in scoring and 27th in total offense.

The end result was a 10-3 season that witnessed a 32-31 win over Maryland early in the season and a year capped off by a 42-32 win over Southern Miss in the New Orleans Bowl, the school's first bowl in the FBS era. The 10-win season was the most by any Blue Raider team since 1992.

Quarterback Dwight Dasher came of age in Franklin's offensive schemes. Dasher, a second team all-conference performer and MVP of the New Orleans Bowl, ranked 7th in the nation in total offense, threw for a school record 23 TD passes, and was named the SBC Player of the Week three times. Franklin made his way to Middle Tennessee after a brief stint as the offensive coordinator at Auburn in 2008 and the previous two seasons in the same capacity at Troy.

In his two seasons at Troy, the Trojans went 16-9 overall and 12-2 in the Sun Belt Conference while collecting two conference championships. During that span his offense scored 30 or more points 11 times, including games against Florida, Georgia, and Oklahoma State.

In his first season at Troy, in addition to helping the Trojans to their first Sun Belt Conference title and a victory in the New Orleans Bowl, Franklin also helped engineer the second-ranked offensive unit in the Sun Belt just one year after the team ranked last in the league in total offense. The Trojans ranked first in the league in passing offense, again one year after ranking last, despite having faced three of the top 20 ranked passing defense teams in the country during the season, and improved in conference scoring from 12 points to 25 points per game.

Franklin joined the University of Kentucky football staff in 1997 following 16 years as a high school football coach. During his four-year tenure at UK, the Wildcats enjoyed unprecedented success on the offensive side of the ball, including setting several NCAA, SEC, and school records. After coaching running backs for three seasons, Franklin was named offensive coordinator for the 2000 season and led the Wildcats to success as the nation's second-best passing offense as well as the nation's 11th-best team in total offense.

Franklin's two-back combinations at Kentucky outgained any two-back combinations in the SEC in total yards from scrimmage for three straight seasons. Quarterbacks Tim Couch, Dusty Bonner, and Jared Lorenzen each led the SEC in passing during their time as UKs quarterbacks, and Couch was the first player selected in the 1999 NFL draft. Several other UK players reached their goals in making NFL teams after their experience in the high-powered offense.

Franklin was also named one of the top 10 recruiters in the South during his four years at Kentucky as he helped lead the Wildcats to their first back-to-back bowl appearances in 15 years and their first New Year's Bowl game appearance in 50 seasons.

USA Today took notice of Franklin's football coaching and teaching abilities in a feature story in 2005 which detailed his consulting successes as a nationally sought-after offensive football coach.

Franklin also received rave reviews for his second book, Victor's Victory, which chronicled the tragic death and spectacular life of 15-year-old Hoover High football player Victor Dionte Hill. Hill died from sudden cardiac arrest on the football practice field during one of Franklin's consulting sessions. The book has helped to continue the mission of Cheryl Hill, Victor's mother, to make teachers, coaches, and parents aware of the need for automatic external defibrillators (AED's) in every school and youth organization in Alabama.

Franklin achieved both his bachelor's and master's degrees in education from Murray State University, where he was a two-year starter as a running back. He is married to Laura Franklin, and they have three girls: Chelsea, Caroline, and Caitlin.

DAMON HARRINGTON

Assistant A.D./Strength and Conditioning

Damon Harrington developed a reputation as a fierce competitor during his playing days as a linebacker for Louisiana Tech during the late 1990s.

Harrington still has the same hard-nosed reputation among the Bulldog players, but it comes as the head strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana Tech.

Harrington was hired as the head strength and conditioning coach at Tech in January, 2006, his second stint in the role after he spent the previous two years as the assistant director for player development at Georgia Tech working with all aspects of the Yellow Jackets football strength and conditioning program alongside another former Bulldog coach, Eric Ciano.

Before taking the position at Georgia Tech, Harrington served as the head strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana Tech in 2002 and 2003, overseeing a program which serves all 16 of the university's NCAA sanctioned sports.

He also spent two years as the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana Tech under Ciano in 2000 and 2001.

Since returning to his alma mater, Harrington has been instrumental in improving the strength and conditioning program at Louisiana Tech.

One of the many improvements during Harrington's regime has been the implementation of supplements for the Tech student-athletes, including chocolate milk and muscle milk, which helps with the recovery period after workouts.

Harrington's regiment workout program has helped the Bulldog football players break more than 25 strength records (by position) in the last five years and ultimately has helped lead to a number of fourth-quarter come-from-behind wins.

Under the direction of Dooley, Harrington and his staff have implemented the Dawg Fight Program, which incorporates ATTITUDE, TEAM, DISCIPLINE, TOUGHNESS and EFFORT. This program is designed to prepare the players to be as physically and mentally tough as possible in order to play hard for four quarters and make the plays at the end of games that will ultimately lead to victory.

In the past three seasons, Louisiana Tech has posted five fourth quarter come-from-behind wins. In the four seasons prior, the Bulldogs had posted a total of five fourth quarter come-from-behind wins.

Harrington began his playing career at Louisiana Tech as a walk-on to the Bulldog football program in 1995 before earning a scholarship his sophomore season. He started every game at linebacker during his junior and senior seasons, leading the team in tackles both years with 121 in 1998 and 122 in 1999.

The Elkton, Md., native earned All-Louisiana honors in 1998 and 1999 while also being named to the All-Independent team by Football News in 1999. Harrington earned his bachelor's degree from Tech in fitness and wellness in 2000 and completed his master's degree in sports science in 2002.

He is certified by the College Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA).

Harrington is married to the former Meg Everett of Alexandria, and the couple have a five-year-old son, Luke, and a three-year-old daughter, Addison.

PIERRE INGRAM

Running Backs

Pierre Ingram joined the Louisiana Tech staff in March of 2010 as Tech's running backs coach.

His second year guiding the running backs witnessed an unlikely story unfold as walk-on Hunter Lee, who did not receive a single FBS scholarship offer, stepped up amid injuries and ran for 650 yards on 135 attempts as a true freshman. The ground game churned out over 1,900 yards in 2011 in an offense that averaged almost 400 yards per game as the team won seven straight games on the way to a WAC championship.

In his first season directing Tech's tailbacks, Ingram guided Lennon Creer's 1,181 yard campaign during the 2010 season that included a 252-yard performance against San Jose State – the seventh most in a single game in Tech history. Creer also posted a 149-yard rushing day at No. 2 Boise State, more yards than 12 of Boise's 13 opponents recorded against the Broncos as a team during 2010.

Ingram joined the Bulldogs after winning a national championship at Villanova, where he coached the tight ends as an offensive assistant. In addition to working with the tight ends, Ingram was responsible for recruiting in Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee.

"Pierre [Ingram] comes from a winning program and he will bring tremendous energy to our program," said Dykes. "He loves the game and I'm looking forward to him bringing his energy and passion to the program. He will also be a great recruiting asset for us."

Prior to joining the Villanova staff in May 2009, Ingram served as the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at Texas A&M-Commerce from January 2009 to June 2009. Before his short stint at Texas A&M Commerce, he was the assistant wide receivers coach at Cortland State.

During his stay at Cortland State, Ingram helped the team reach the NCAA quarterfinal round for the first time in school history and he coached the second wide receiver in school history to a 1,000 yard receiving season.

Ingram is a 2006 graduate of Middle Tennessee State University where he was a four-year letterman in football as a wide receiver. In 2006, he garnered the team's Most Dependable Receiver Award. After earning a Bachelor of Liberal Arts from Middle Tennessee, he went on to obtain a Masters of Science in Sport Management from Cortland State.

He is married to the former Dani Maye. The couple have a 10-month old daughter, Berkley, who was born the night of Louisiana Tech's 38-28 win over San Jose State on Oct. 29, 2011. Pierre Ingram paced the sidelines during the game, coaching the backs to 260 yards of offense then joined Dani in Monroe in time for the birth of their daughter.

ED JACKSON

Assistant A.D./Character Education Coordinator

Long-time Louisiana Tech assistant coach Ed Jackson is now in his fifth year as the Bulldogs assistant strength and conditioning coach and is beginning his 19th season as a part of the Tech staff.

Jackson also works with the character education program for the Louisiana Tech athletics department.

For years Jackson has been actively involved as the counselor and sponsor for the university's Fellowship of Christian Athletes and his current role enables him to continue to mold the lives of Tech student-athletes.

Jackson played collegiately for Louisiana Tech in the early 1980s, but he never dreamed that a quarter of a century later he would still be a part of the Bulldog program.

In addition to his role as the character education coordinator, Jackson will also be working with the team as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

He will be trying to instill the same life lessons he learned as a player at Tech that helped him achieve so many years of success as a player, coach, husband, father and man of strong faith.

During his playing days at Tech, Jackson earned All-Southland Conference honors and first team All-Louisiana honors and was a member of the 1977 and 1978 Independence Bowl teams.

Jackson played professionally in the NFL for the Oakland Raiders, in the USFL for the Tampa Bay Bandits and Orlando Renegades and in the CFL for the Toronto Argonauts.

After his professional playing career ended in 1985, Jackson began his coaching career at Hinds Community College where he served as the defensive line coach from 1987 to 1991 and the defensive coordinator in 1992. During those six years, Jackson coached eventual NFL stars in Leon Lett, Marvin Washington, John Copeland, Pervis Hunt, Grady Jackson and Gary Walker.

Jackson returned to his alma mater in 1993 when he was hired by Joe Raymond Peace as the defensive ends coach. After four years at that position, Jackson was promoted prior to the 1997 season to assistant head coach by Bulldog head coach Gary Crowton while also moving to the Tech linebackers.

The father of five returned to the Bulldog defensive line in 2000 where he spent the past seven years.

During his 16 seasons as a coach at Tech, Jackson helped lead the Bulldog football program into the 21st century, including a trip into the Associated Press Top 25 in 1999 and a Western Athletic Conference championship title and subsequent bowl berth in 2001.

Jackson was also a finalist for the 1999 American Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year award.

He earned his bachelor's degree in education from Tech in 1983, and his master's in education administration from Mississippi College in 1989.

Jackson has five daughters: Ashley, Adrianna, Andrea, Aisha and Alexis.

JEFF KOONZ

Linebackers

Jeff Koonz joined Louisiana Tech in 2010, coaching the linebackers in Tommy Spangler's GATA defense.

In his second season in Ruston, Tech's defense was the "Year of the Linebacker" with starting linebackers Adrien Cole and Jay Dudley accounting for 230 total tackles – 65 percent of Tech's tackles on the season. Cole led the team with 128 tackles and 13 tackles for a loss as he was named first team All-WAC and the WAC Defensive Player of the Year while Dudley was responsible for 102 tackles, eight tackles for a loss and four interceptions returned for 94 yards, three of which were returned for a touchdown.

His first year at Louisiana Tech saw three of his linebackers finish the season in the top four on the team in tackles with Adrien Cole earning second team All-WAC honors.

Koonz previously served as a defensive quality control assistant at Texas, helping lead the Longhorns to a Big 12 title and an appearance in the 2009 BCS national championship game against Alabama.

"I am really excited to have Jeff [Koonz] join our staff," said Dykes. "He comes very highly recommended and has worked under some great defensive-minded coaches like Gene Chizik and Will Muschamp. He brings a lot of knowledge and will be a tremendous asset to the program. He has great experience for a young coach, coming from top programs and learning from successful people."

Prior to his one-year stint at Texas, Koonz was the secondary coach at Iowa State for two seasons under Chizik while also assisting with special teams. Koonz's year as overseeing the defensive quality control at Texas was his second stint with the Longhorns having previously served as a graduate assistant coach in Austin during the 2005-06 seasons, coaching the linebackers.

"What a great opportunity this is to be a part of a wonderful program like Tech's," Koonz said. "Coach Dykes' reputation in the football profession is phenomenal and to be a part of what he is doing at Louisiana Tech is exciting."

Koonz was also a graduate assistant coach at Auburn during the 2004 campaign, coaching the secondary, and was a student assistant coach at Auburn for over a year.

He graduated from Auburn in 2004 with a Bachelor's of science degree in physical education and received his Master's degree in educational administration from Texas in 2006.

Koonz married the former Maura McDermott in July 2011 and the couple have a five-month old daughter, Mary Margaret, born on April 6, 2012.

ROB LIKENS

Assistant Head Coach/Wide Receivers

Rob Likens enters his third season at Louisiana Tech as an assistant head coach and wide receivers coach.

Likens directed a wide receiving corps that registered 3,229 receiving yards with 21 touchdown catches during a 2011 campaign that claimed seven consecutive wins and a WAC championship. Quinton Patton, a 2011 Biletnikoff Award Watch List honoree, finished the year with 1,202 receiving yards (ranking seventh in school history) and 11 touchdowns (tied for fourth in school history). Patton is the first Bulldog receiver to catch for over 1,000 yards since 2000.

In his first year at Tech, Likens oversaw a receiving corps that improved from 91st in the country in 2009 to 62nd in 2010 despite a revolving door at quarterback through the first third of the season. Likens coached Taulib Ikharo to a ninth-place rank in receptions per game among WAC receivers.

Prior to joining the Louisiana Tech family, Likens led Central Connecticut State as offensive coordinator to more wins than any other four-year period in school history.

Likens coached the Northeast Conference's top rushing offense for four straight seasons. CCSU's ground game also ranked in the nation's top-10 every year under Likens. The Blue Devils averaged 239.18 yards per game on the ground in 2008. It was the seventh best team effort in the FCS. Central Connecticut also paced the NEC in scoring offense, averaging 30.0 points per game.

"Rob is a great addition to our staff," said Dykes. "I have known him for a while and have wanted to work with him for a long time. He has a great knowledge of the offense we want to install and as a Mississippi native, he brings a tremendous recruiting base, connections and experience."

Likens coached CCSU's ground game to a ranking in the nation's top-10 among FCS schools every year during his tenure as well as a winning record in all four seasons, capping off the 2009 season with a 9-3 mark. The CCSU rushing offense was tops among FCS schools in 2006.

Under Likens' guidance, the Blue Devils led the conference in scoring offense in two seasons, had three undefeated home records, averaged just under 30 points per game in four seasons (29.1) and won more games in a four-year span than any collection of teams in school history. Likens coached two 1,000-yard rushers, two Walter Payton finalists and two All-America running backs in Justise Hairston and James Mallory.

Likens also coached the school's all-time leader in passing efficiency (Aubrey Norris, 139.4) and two NEC Offensive Players of the Year in Hairston and Mallory. In all, Likens had 13 all-conference selections in his four seasons.

James Mallory earned second team All-NEC honors in 2008. With 1,520 yards, he became the second player in school history to crack the 1,500 mark in rushing. Mallory was also the fourth player to go over 1,000 career rushing yards under Likens. Aubrey Norris, who enters this season as the top-rated passer in program history, also accomplished the feat last season. That duo joins Jo Jo Freeman and Justise Hairston on the list of four. Also under Likens's tutelage in 2008, Nick Colagiovanni became the program's 11th receiver to eclipse 1,000 career yards.

In 2007, Likens' offense was No. 1 in total and rushing offense in the Northeast Conference. The Blue Devils posted 387.7 yards per game, including 257.6 yards per game on the ground, ranking 10th in the nation in rushing offense.

The Blue Devil offense set numerous school records in 2006, including total yards and rushing yards in a single season. CCSU led the country in rushing yards per game (284.9) and finished 10th in total offense at 386.8 yards per game. As a team, CCSU set a new school mark with 42 rushing touchdowns and scored a school-record 51 touchdowns in 11 games. Likens coached Hairston, the nation's leading rusher, to AP All-America, AFCA All-America and Sports Network Mid-Major All-America honors. He also accompanied the NEC Offensive Player of the Year to the Hula Bowl. Hairston, who finished eighth in the Walter Payton Award voting, also appeared in the Texas vs. the Nation game.

LIKENS FAMILY
Soni, Rob and Nicolas

In all, CCSU's offense has rewritten eight team records and six individual and game records under Likens. He has coached four first team All-NEC selections, four second team All-NEC selections and five NEC Offensive Player of the Week honorees. Prior to joining Central Connecticut State, Likens spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator at Southeast Missouri State. He was the wide receivers coach at Temple University in the Big East Conference from 1998-2003. Before Temple, Likens was an assistant coach at North Alabama where he helped guide the Lions to become the first program in NCAA scholarship football to three consecutive playoff championships, a feat that has only been replicated by Appalachian State (2005-06-07) since.

Likens returns home to the south as he was a former wide receiver at Mississippi State, earning his bachelor's degree in 1990. He earned his master's degree from North Alabama in 1995.

Likens and his wife, Soni, have a three-year old son, Nicolas Cutter.

PETE PEROT

Offensive Line

As Pete Perot continues in his third decade on the Louisiana Tech staff, Bulldog fans will be thrilled to see the former NFL player on the sideline once again this fall as the Tech veteran enters his 23rd year in Ruston.

He guided a veteran offensive line in 2011 that ended the year with a combined 109 starts, 91 of which return for the 2012 campaign. Starters Stephen Warner and Kris Cavitt were named first team All-WAC with Warner, a former walk-on from Ruston High School, returning as the starting center this fall with 28 consecutive starts under his belt.

Perot's experience came through in during the 2009-10 seasons as the offensive line paved the way for a Tech tailback to record 1,000 rushing yard seasons in consecutive years for the first time since Ryan Moats grabbed the nation's attention in 2003-04. Lennon Creer's 1,181 yards in 2010 followed Daniel Porter's 2009 mark of 1,164 rushing yards as Creer slashed through opposing defenses over the last two-thirds of the season.

His return to the Louisiana Tech sidelines resulted in an offensive line that paved the way for an offense that finished the 2009 season ranked 29th in the nation in rushing and 46th in the country in scoring. Perot's offensive line also paved the way for Daniel Porter to become the school's all-time rushing leader with 3,352 career rushing yards as he became only the second player in Tech history to record back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

The long-time fan favorite was able to enjoy the Bulldogs postseason success as he returned to the Tech sideline to coach in the 17-10 Independence Bowl victory over Northern Illinois in late December.

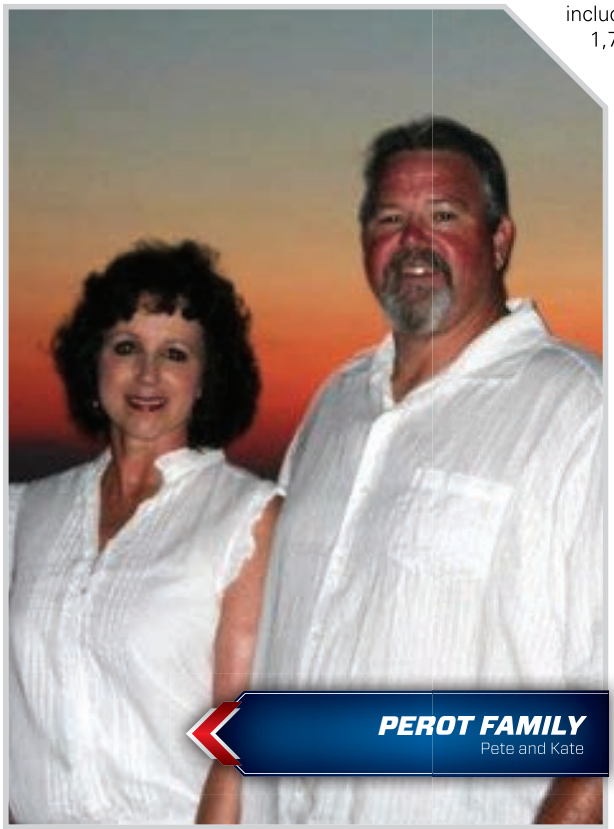
Perot came to Louisiana Tech in 1986 as a volunteer assistant following an eight-year NFL career with the Philadelphia Eagles (1979-84) and New Orleans Saints (1985-86) which was highlighted by his start for the Eagles in Super Bowl XV.

In 1988, he was promoted to offensive line coach at Tech where he stayed until he departed for the same position at Southern Miss in 1997. After three years on the Golden Eagles staff, Perot returned to Tech in 2000 where he has been a mainstay on the Bulldog staff.

Perot has earned a reputation as one of the top offensive line coaches in the South, tutoring such greats as William Roaf (New Orleans Saints, Kansas City Chiefs), Grant Williams (New England Patriots) and Joey Chustz (Jacksonville Jaguars). Under Perot's tutelage, Roaf earned All-America honors in 1992 and was one of three finalists for the coveted Outland Trophy before being selected in the first round of the NFL Draft by the Saints.

The Natchitoches, La., native also coached former Bulldog left guard Aaron Lips, who earned all-WAC honors for three straight seasons while also starting a Tech Division I record 47 straight games. Lips was named to the Outland Trophy Watch List as a senior.

During his career at Tech, Perot's offensive lines have paved the way for the top eight single season rushing performances in Bulldog history, including Ryan Moats' record-breaking 1,774 yards and 18 touchdowns in 2004, and eight of the top 10 overall.



PEROT FAMILY
Pete and Kate

While at Southern Miss, Perot helped the Golden Eagles to three straight bowl appearances where his offensive lines paved the way for three straight 1,000 yard rushing performances (one by Eric Shaw in 1997, and two by Derrick Nix in 1998 and 1999). His 1999 line placed three USM players on the Conference USA All-Freshman team.

As a collegiate player, Perot started all four years on the offensive line at Northwestern State before being drafted in the second round of the 1979 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles.

The father of two also serves as the liaison between the Bulldog football program and NFL scouts.

Perot is married to the former Kate Adams of Hodge, La., and the couple has two sons, Joey and Josh. Kate is an admissions counselor at Louisiana Tech and is also a Tech alumna.

TOMMY SPANGLER

Defensive Coordinator/Safeties

Tommy Spangler enters his sixth season as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Louisiana Tech and his reputation as one of the college football world's top defensive minds has only grown over the last few years with the Bulldogs.

During that time, Spangler has taken a Bulldog defense that ranked dead last in the country (among FBS programs) in scoring defense, rushing defense and total defense prior to his arrival and coached them into one of the top defensive units in the Western Athletic Conference.

His energy and passion for the game and defensive philosophy are the reasons why former Louisiana Tech head coach Derek Dooley hired the veteran coach as the Bulldogs defensive coordinator and why, upon Sonny Dykes' arrival there was no better defensive coordinator to be found.

That top defensive unit in the WAC set a new standard during the 2011 season, holding 12 of 13 opponents to fewer rushing yards against the Bulldogs than what they averaged on the year and ranking third in the nation in interceptions and pick-sixes despite facing eight senior quarterbacks in its first nine games of the year.

He guided a defense that had six All-WAC selections for the 2011 season and a group that scored six defensive touchdowns, the best scoring defense Tech has seen in two decades. The Bulldog defense ended the year ranked 13th in the nation in turnover margin and had a +15 turnover margin during the team's seven-game winning streak.

Spangler's safeties accounted for five of the team's interceptions with Chad Boyd leading the way with four picks returned for 75 yards during the 2010 season. His defensive game plan held Navy's impressive triple option run game to under 300 yards for the second consecutive year.

Prior to Spangler's arrival on campus, Tech ranked dead last in the country in total defense (483.33 ypg) and scoring defense (41.7 ppg) and next-to-last in rushing defense (225.38 ypg) in 2006. However, under Spangler's guidance, the Bulldog defense has made huge strides and propelled the program to the 2008 Independence Bowl title.

In 2008, the Bulldogs allowed only 103.9 yards per game on the ground, the best since the program joined the FBS in 1989 and an improvement of over 120 yards per game in only two years. Tech ranked 13th nationally in rushing defense and did not allow a single 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tech also allowed only 23.7 points per game, the best by a Bulldog team since 1992. It was an improvement of 18.0 points per game in the past two years. The Bulldogs also posted a 21-0 shutout over San Jose State during the season, the first shutout by a LA Tech team since 1996 (a span of 148 games). It was also the first road shutout since 1988 (a span of 225 games).

In his first two years at Tech, six Bulldog defenders earned all-WAC honors including safety Antonio Baker, a two-time first team honoree.

The 48-year-old Spangler spent the past two decades as a full-time coach on the college football sideline where he served the first 10 years at Georgia Southern, helping lead the program to a pair of Division I-AA national titles. He spent 10 seasons at Division II Presbyterian College in Clinton, S.C., where he served as the head coach from 2001-2006.

In 2006, Spangler's defense at Presbyterian ranked first in the South Atlantic Conference in scoring defense (13.2 ppg) and total defense (233.5 ypg) en route to a 7-4 record. In 2005, he led Presbyterian to a 10-2 mark, the South Atlantic Conference title and the school's first appearance ever in the NCAA Division II playoffs, earning him the league's Coach of the Year Award.

He also garnered two American Football Coaches Association Region 2 Coach of the Year Awards while at Presbyterian. His Presbyterian defenses were ranked in the top half of the South Atlantic Conference in all defensive categories each of his last eight seasons there, and his 1998 Blue Hose unit forced an incredible 48 turnovers in 11 games and ranked first nationally in turnover margin (+2.27).

After taking the job as the secondary coach at Georgia Southern in 1987, Spangler was promoted to co-defensive coordinator in 1990 and then took over the sole reins of the program's defense in 1992.

The Stone Mountain, Ga., native earned the Southern Conference Defensive Coach of the Year Award in 1993 as the Eagles won the league title and advanced to the playoffs. His defense ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense.

Spangler played defensive back at the University of Georgia from 1979 through 1982 and was a member of the 1980 Division I National Championship team that defeated Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl. He lettered his senior season helping Georgia to the 1982 Southeastern Conference title, the program's third straight.

He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Georgia in the spring of 1984.

Spangler is married to the former Kim Pierce of Ft. White, Fla., and they are the parents of three children: Pierce, Peyton, and Gracie.

MARK TOMMERDAHL

Special Teams Coordinator/Inside Receivers

Louisiana Tech landed one of the top assistant coaches in the South when long-time special teams coach Mark Tommerdahl joined the Bulldog staff in 2009. He enters the 2012 season having coached two All-Americans in the past three seasons.

Coaching the inside receivers and serving as the special teams coordinator, Tommerdahl came to LA Tech with more than two decades of Division I coaching experience serving as an assistant coach on some of the top programs in the country. He has served as an assistant coach on 13 bowl teams as well as six league champions and two division champions.

Tommerdahl's special teams acumen was highlighted in 2011 when punter Ryan Allen won the Ray Guy Award. Allen became the first player from a non-BCS school to win the award for the nation's top punter and was the only player from a non-BCS school to win a national award in 2011. Allen consistently flipped the field for Tech's defense and led the nation with 39 punts inside the 20 with only five touchbacks the entire year.

His experience and game-planning on special teams helped Phillip Livas tie an NCAA record in 2010 with the return specialist's eighth career return for a touchdown. Livas ended his career with four punt returns and four kickoff returns for a score.

Tommerdahl's coaching helped Dennis Morris garner all-America honors as well as being named the Tight End of the Year by the College Football Performance Awards. Morris finished his senior year at LA Tech with 38 catches for 623 yards and he had a national-leading 12 receiving touchdowns among tight ends in 2009.

Prior to spending the 2008 season at UL-Monroe, Tommerdahl served as the tight end and special teams coach at Texas A&M for five years. During his tenure with the Aggies, Tommerdahl helped lead the program to the Cotton Bowl (2004), the Holiday Bowl (2006) and the Alamo Bowl (2007).

He coached present-day Dallas Cowboys tight end Marcellus Bennett, who ended his Texas A&M career as the program's all-time positional leader in receptions and yards.

Tommerdahl's special teams units in College Station were also among the nation's best, ranking in the Top 20 in the nation in net punting 2006 (14th) and in 2007 (5th) and in kick-off returns in 2003 (10th), 2006 (2nd), and 2007 (20th).

The Alabama Crimson Tide were fortunate enough to land Tommerdahl's services during the 2001 and 2002 seasons as he served as the program's tight ends and special teams coach. He helped the Crimson Tide to the 2001 Independence Bowl and the 2002 SEC West Division title.

Tommerdahl also served as the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator during stints at TCU (1998-2000), New Mexico (1997) and Minnesota (1995-96) where he coached a Lou Groza finalist at all three schools.

TCU's kickoff return units were ranked No. 1 in the nation in back-to-back seasons while his special teams units ranked No. 1 in the league in three of four statistical categories.

In 1997 at New Mexico, four of the Lobos special teams units were ranked in the top 20 in the country as the team won the WAC Mountain Division title.

The Fergus Falls, Minnesota native began his collegiate coaching career in 1984 as a graduate assistant at Wyoming where he spent the next 11 seasons serving in numerous capacities including the tight ends coach, offensive coordinator and backfield coach. He helped lead the Cowboys to four bowl appearances and three WAC titles.

Tommerdahl earned his bachelor's degree in business and physical education from Concordia College in 1983 and his master's degree in business administration from Wyoming in 1986. He is married to the former Annette Jondahl.

THOMAS GRAHAM

Graduate Assistant

Former Tech deep snapper Thomas Graham was named a defensive graduate assistant coach in March 2011.

During his first year on staff Graham assisted the defensive coaches, specifically helping with Spangler's safeties. Tech's opportunistic defense was third in interceptions and in pick-sixes during the 2011 campaign and was the program's best scoring defense in two decades as the Bulldogs rattled off seven consecutive wins to claim its first Western Athletic Conference championship in a decade.

A four-year letterwinner at Louisiana Tech, Graham followed in his older brother Matt's footsteps during his four years where he started every game of his career as the Bulldogs' deep snapper, setting a new LA Tech career record for games played and started with 50.

After red-shirting in 2005 while his brother Matt finished his four-year career as the Tech deep snapper, Graham started all 50 games over the last four years, including the 2008 Independence Bowl victory over Northern Illinois.

In addition to the bowl victory, a couple of Graham's career highlights included recovering a fumble against Top 25 Boise State as a freshman and earning the LA Tech special teams player of the week award against Kansas as a junior.

Graham played three years for coaches Tommy Reeder and Billy Laird at Ruston High School where he earned all-state honorable mention honors his final two seasons.

His younger brother, Gantt, works as a student equipment manager.

HUNTER McWILLIAMS

Graduate Assistant

Hunter McWilliams joined the Louisiana Tech staff in 2010 and beginning with the 2012 season he moved over to the coaching side as a graduate assistant coach.

When he first joined the program, McWilliams was in charge of operations for the football team as well as assisting Sonny Dykes with special projects related to the football program.

McWilliams comes to Louisiana Tech after spending the last three years as a financial advisor for Eltekon Financial in Austin, Texas and previously worked as a fishing guide for Discovery Land Company.

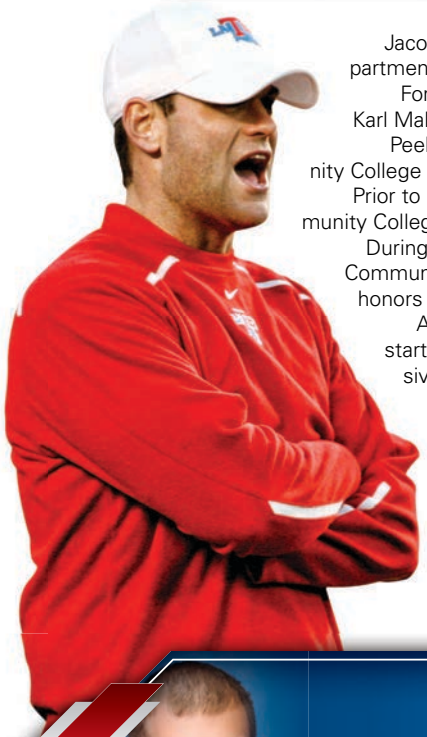
During 2009, McWilliams worked as a private deep snapper coach and was an assistant coach for Westlake Pop Warner football.

A two-year starter at deep snapper for the University of Texas (1999-2000), McWilliams converted 100 percent of his snaps and lettered both years as a walk-on. He received his degree in government from the University of Texas.

McWilliams is the son of David McWilliams, former head football coach of Texas and Texas Tech. He married the former Catherine Wagner in 2011.

JACOB PEELER

Graduate Assistant



Jacob Peeler joined the Louisiana Tech program in 2009 as an intern in the strength and conditioning department and starting in 2012 will move over to the coaching side as a graduate assistant coach.

For the past three seasons, Peeler has been Harrington's go-to guy assisting in day-to-day duties in the Karl Malone Weight Room.

Peeler returned to his alma mater after a short stint as the offensive line coach at Independence Community College in Kansas.

Prior to his time at Independence CC, Peeler served as the assistant offensive line coach at Itawamba Community College.

During his junior college playing career, Peeler played every offensive snap during his two years at Holmes Community College in 2002 and 2003 where he earned first team all-state and first team all-NJCAA Region 23 honors as well as All-American accolades.

After signing with LA Tech and redshirting in 2004, Peeler saw action in four games as a junior before starting all 13 games at center during his senior season helping pave the way for more than 4,000 offensive yards. He also earned Academic all-WAC honors.

Peeler earned his bachelor's degree in education from Louisiana Tech in 2006 and his master's in kinesiology from Mississippi State in 2008.

KEITH BUNCH

Assistant A.D./Sports Medicine

Keith Bunch enters his sixth year at Louisiana Tech as the head athletic trainer, where he oversees the Bulldogs' Sports Medicine Department while serving as the primary contact for the football program.

Bunch came to Ruston following a two-year stint as the associate head athletic trainer at Presbyterian College where he worked primarily with the Blue Hose football program. Prior to his time at PC, Bunch worked one year at Carolina Sportscare and Physical Therapy Clinic in Beaufort, S.C., while working with the area high school outreach program.

The 2002 graduate of the College of Charleston oversees a sports medicine department that works with Louisiana Tech's student-athletes from all 16 NCAA sanctioned programs.

Since his arrival on campus, Bunch along with associate head athletic trainer Michele Dummett have been instrumental in spearheading a number of improvements in the Sports Medicine Department. Some of these improvements include renovations and upgrades to the athletic training rooms in both the Charles Wyly Athletic Complex and the Thomas Assembly Center, the creation of additional positions within the sports medicine staff, and the creation of Docs for Dogs -- a team of local specialty doctors that serve all of the LA Tech student-athletes.

Bunch earned his undergraduate degree in athletic training at the College of Charleston where he worked with the Cougars' women's soccer and baseball programs. While working on his bachelor's degree, Bunch completed a pair of internships with The Citadel football program in the fall of 2001 and Wando High School during the spring of 2002.

The Lodge, S.C., native earned his master's degree in higher education administration with a minor in sports management from Auburn in May of 2004. Bunch worked closely with the Tigers' football program during that time.

Bunch is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) and the Louisiana Athletic Trainers' Association (LATA).

BRADLY HERMAN

Student Success Specialist

Bradly Herman joined the Louisiana Tech Athletic Department in 2011 as the student success specialist in the academic center working with the Bulldog football team.

Herman comes to Tech after working in the student athlete support services at Auburn since January, where he worked primarily with the Tigers baseball, swimming and diving teams.

He received his undergraduate degree in psychology from Louisiana Tech in 2002 and his master's degree in industrial in 2003. He then earned a master's degree in sports administration from Northwestern State in 2007.

Prior to joining the SASS staff at Auburn, the Harrisonburg native was an associate psychologist in Pineville from 2004-2007. He also worked as an assistant academic coordinator at Northwestern State from 2007-2008.

Herman also worked at Arkansas State where he was an academic coordinator from 2008-2010. He is married to Amy Herman and the couple has one son, Titus.

LESLIE KILETICO

Recruiting Office Coordinator

Leslie Kiletico is in her sixth year with the Louisiana Tech football staff as the recruiting office coordinator.

Kiletico's duties in the football office include organizing recruiting visits for prospective student-athletes, planning travel for coaches' recruiting trips, compiling prospective player information and handling all mailings to recruits.

Kiletico graduated from Louisiana Tech in the spring of 2007 with a degree in marketing and is originally from Marrero.

JASON RUSSELL

Intern (Strength and Conditioning)

Jason Russell joined the Louisiana Tech strength and conditioning program as a graduate assistant in June 2011. He is primarily responsible for working with the men's basketball and women's volleyball teams as well as assisting with the football program.

Russell came to Louisiana Tech after serving as a volunteer assistant and intern at Sam Houston State for almost two and a half years. At Sam Houston, he worked primarily with the men's and women's golf teams as well as assisting with the football program and all other sports.

A three-year letterman on the track and field team at Sam Houston State, Russell threw the shot put, hammer and weight throw before graduating with a degree in kinesiology and a minor in health in August 2010.

Russell is currently working toward his master's degree in sports performance at Tech and resides in Ruston.

CHRIS VASZILY

Director of Player Development

Chris Vaszily returned to Louisiana Tech in 2010 as an intern with the strength and conditioning program and beginning in 2012 changed duties as he was named the Director of Player Development. Vaszily comes to Tech after serving as the special teams coordinator for Louisiana-Monroe in 2009.

Vaszily's first stint at Tech was from 2001-05 when he served as special teams, tight ends and wide receivers coach when Louisiana Tech entered the Western Athletic Conference and won its first league title during the 2001 season.

Prior to his first stop in Ruston, Vaszily was the special teams coordinator and linebackers coach at Charleston Southern University for one season, a I-AA member of the Big South Conference. His year at Charleston Southern came after spending one season coaching tight ends, running backs and special teams for the Barcelona Dragons of the NFL Europe League.

Vaszily also has worked as the tight ends, receivers and special teams coach at Liberty during the 1999 season, was the defensive backs coach and assistant strength coach at Itawamba Community College during the 1997-98 seasons and was a strength and conditioning intern for Mississippi State in 1994. He broke into the coaching ranks at North Penn High School in Lansdale, Pa., coaching defensive backs and receivers.

Vaszily is a 1990 graduate of Albright College and earned his master's in sport science from the United States Sports Academy in 1994. He is married to the former Laurie LaBlue and the couple has two sons, Cole and Ty.

PATRICK WALSH

Associate Media Relations Director

Patrick Walsh joined the Louisiana Tech Media Relations Department in 2009 and serves as the associate media relations director. He is the primary contact for football, men's and women's cross country and men's and women's track and field.

In his tenure at Louisiana Tech, Walsh was responsible for the promotion of Ryan Allen for the 2011 Ray Guy Award, an honor that Allen claimed as the only non-AQ student-athlete to win a national award that year. Walsh is also credited with promoting the 2011 WAC Championship football team to a Poinsettia Bowl berth, highlighting the teams successes to various bowls as the Bulldogs became eligible for postseason play with a seven-game winning streak.

During the 2009-10 academic calendar year, Walsh promoted hurdler Antoinette Cobb for the Honda Inspiration Award as she set school and conference records after beating a case of colon cancer. Cobb became the first athlete from Louisiana and from the WAC to win that award.

Walsh came to Louisiana Tech from The Citadel, where he last served as the primary contact for baseball and cross country while serving as the secondary contact for football, as well as the webmaster for CitadelSports.com. He also oversaw game operations duties for The Citadel Baseball at Joseph P. Riley, Jr. Park.

At The Citadel, Walsh was involved with a trio of publications that were recognized on a national scale by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), with his 2007 track and field media guide finishing 24th in the nation. Walsh was heavily involved with the 2008 football guide that finished eighth among Division I-FCS programs and the 2006 football guide that was 12th among I-AA teams.

A member of CoSIDA, Walsh also serves on the Publications Committee and was a judge for the 2007 women's golf media guide publications contest.

Walsh arrived at The Citadel following a seven-month stint as the Sports Information Assistant at Newberry College in Newberry, S.C., a NCAA Division II member of the South Atlantic Conference. At Newberry, Walsh was responsible for media relations and game operations for Indians baseball, cross country, tennis and volleyball, as well as being the assistant contact for men's basketball.

Walsh was also in charge of marketing and promotions for several Newberry sports. His work helped lead Newberry Volleyball to a NCAA Division II top 20 ranking in attendance. In addition to those duties, Walsh was also the play-by-play announcer for Newberry volleyball and baseball radio broadcasts.

Walsh is a 2005 graduate of the University of South Carolina where he majored in Sport and Entertainment Management and was a member of the South Carolina Honors College. At USC, he was a student assistant in the Sports Information office where he worked with several Gamecock sports and was the public address announcer for South Carolina Baseball at Sarge Frye Field.

While at South Carolina, he was recognized by the College Sports Information Directors Association (CoSIDA) for his work on the 2003 South Carolina Track and Field Media Guide, which was named second in the nation, and for the 2002 South Carolina Volleyball Media Guide which placed first in the region.

Walsh, born in Oxford, Ohio, currently resides in Ruston along with his wife, the former Blair Brandon of Fort Worth, Texas.

JOE AILLET STADIUM

Joe Aillet Stadium has been home to Louisiana Tech football for the past 40-plus years as Bulldog fans have watched legends such as Terry Bradshaw, Roger Carr, Fred Dean, Pat Tilley, Matt Dunigan, William Roaf, Troy Edwards and Tim Rattay all don the Tech red and blue.

Opened in 1968 at a capacity of 23,000, Joe Aillet Stadium – which wasn't given its current name until Nov. 11, 1972, when it was dedicated in honor of the former Tech coaching legend – has proven instrumental in some of the biggest wins in the program's 100-plus year history.

The facility was upgraded in 1985 when a luxury sky box was added to the press box and again in 1989, when an additional 7,600 seats were added, increasing the seating capacity to 30,600.

In the summer of 2006 Joe Aillet Stadium received a new surface as FieldTurf Mono – which is considered the top of the line artificial turf – was installed by FieldTurf Tarkett. In the summer of 2008, that turf was replaced with a new version to include the athletic department's new logo.

A brand new, state-of-the-art videoboard was installed in the north end zone in time for the 2009 season, a $2 million addition to the facility. Built by Daktronics, the national leader in scoreboard and videoboard manufacturers, it is 25 feet x 45 feet and can show one display or be split into multiple replays. In addition, the south end zone received a brand new LED scoreboard that all fans can easily see during the day or at night.

The stadium's namesake – Joe Aillet is a member of the Louisiana Tech Athletics Hall of Fame and the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame – guided his Tech teams to a 151-86-8 record and nine conference championships from 1940-1966. The winning tradition Aillet established during his days of coaching at Louisiana Tech has continued as the Bulldogs have posted 10 perfect seasons in the facility's history.

From the first game ever played in the stadium, a 35-7 win over East Carolina on Sept. 28, 1968, to a 22-14 victory over SEC foe Mississippi State in 2008, Joe Aillet Stadium has been the site of some of the most magical moments in Louisiana Tech football history.

Joe Aillet Stadium has proven to be a tough place for opposing teams to play for more than four decades. Over the course of the stadium's history, Tech has dominated opponents as the 132-56-2 record indicates a winning percentage of 70 percent. Since Tech moved up to Division I-A in 1989, the Bulldogs have registered a mark of 70-30 at Joe Aillet Stadium, a winning percentage of about 70 percent.

In that inaugural game against East Carolina at Joe Aillet Stadium, a young quarterback named Terry Bradshaw guided the Bulldogs to the victory as Tech fullback Buster Herren scored the first touchdown ever at the stadium on a two-yard run with 6:20 remaining in the second quarter. It was just the first of many memorable moments for Tech fans in Ruston.

On two different occasions over the past 40-plus years, Tech has registered streaks of 18 straight wins at Joe Aillet Stadium.

The first such streak started with a 23-0 win over UL-Monroe in the final game of the 1971 season and ended with a 49-20 win over Tennessee-Chattanooga in the fifth game of the 1975 season. That run by coach Maxie Lambright's teams included two small college and one Division II national championship seasons.

During the late '80s and early '90s, the Bulldogs won their first 18 home games after joining the Division I-A ranks. Tech defeated Northern Illinois 42-21 in the first home game of the 1989 season to begin the streak with the last of the 18 wins being a 17-16 victory over Northern Illinois in 1993.

Included in that string of wins was a 31-30 victory over Colorado State on Nov. 17, 1990, that catapulted the Bulldogs into the 1990 Independence Bowl. Tech trailed 30-14 late in the third quarter before scoring 17 unanswered points, capped by Gene Johnson's 16-yard touchdown pass to Bobby Slaughter with 2:14 to play. The Bulldog defense held the Rams to four and out on their final possession as a wild celebration ensued, which ultimately ended in the goal posts in the south end zone being torn down by Tech fans.

One of the biggest individual matchups in the stadium's history came on Sept. 5, 1998, when two future NFL quarterbacks squared off as Central Florida's Daunte Culpepper led his team to a 64-30 win over Tech's Tim Rattay and the Bulldogs. Culpepper passed for 370 yards and four scores while rushing for 69 yards and two more touchdowns while Rattay passed for 524 yards and three touchdowns.

The 2000 season saw a milestone reached at Joe Aillet Stadium as the Bulldogs under head coach Jack Bicknell recorded the 100th win in the facility's history. True freshman quarterback Luke McCown tied an NCAA Division I freshman record by tossing six touchdowns in the milestone 48-14 victory over UL-Lafayette on Oct. 14, 2000.

Joe Aillet Stadium hosted its first nationally televised game on Dec. 5, 2002, when ESPN came to town to produce Louisiana Tech's game against Fresno State. Although Tech fell in the contest, it was another milestone for the program and the facility it has called home.

The 2004 season opened with another nationally televised home game, as the Bulldogs defeated Nevada 38-21 Sept. 6 on ESPN2. This was just a preview of things to come during the season at Joe Aillet Stadium.

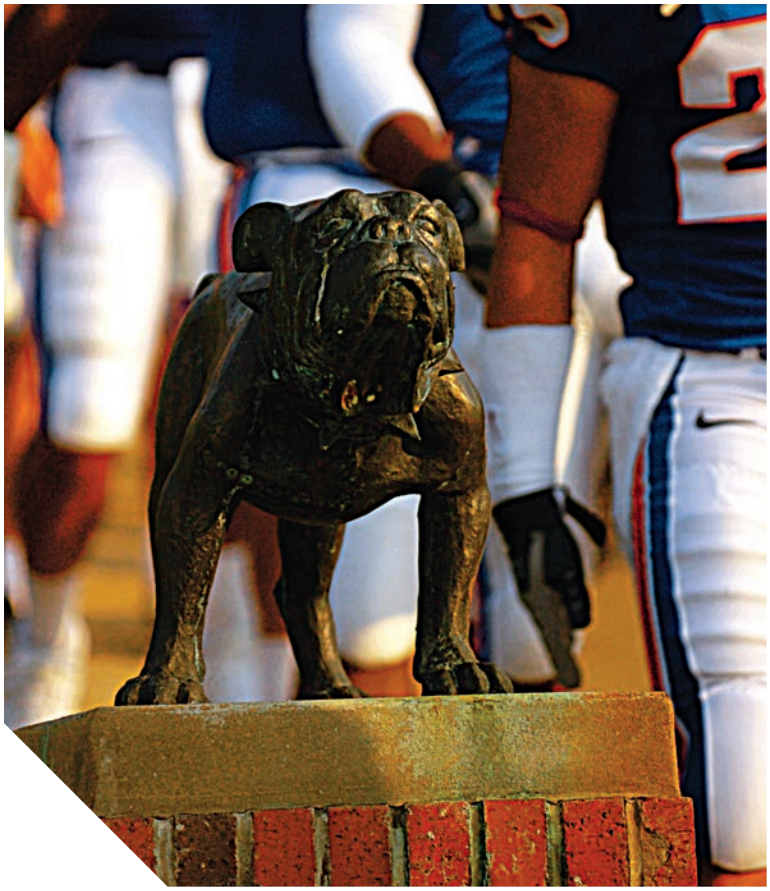
Less than one month later, Tech fans were able to witness one of the greatest games in Joe Aillet Stadium history, as Louisiana Tech downed No. 17 Fresno State 28-21 on Oct. 2. Tech trailed 13-0 early in the second quarter before running back Ryan Moats and the Bulldog defense turned up their level of play. Moats rushed for 236 yards and four scores, including the game-winner with just under four minutes to play, which was set up by an interception deep in Fresno State territory.

The win was sealed when current Green Bay Packers star Tramon Williams intercepted Paul Pinegar with less than :30 remaining, starting a wild celebration that saw the goal posts in both end zones torn down.

The 2011 season saw disappointing lows early on but a wet championship finish. After leading Houston 34-7 with 20 minutes to play, Tech dropped a heart-breaking 35-34 decision to the Cougars but ended the year with seven straight wins, including two at home, as the Bulldogs clinched the 2011 WAC Championship with a 44-0 route of New Mexico State in a driving rainstorm in late November.

These games and many more are what have made Tech fans the real winners over the years.

As the warm fall evenings approach and another year of Bulldog football begins, Joe Aillet Stadium will once again host some of the best college football the nation has to offer.



SPIRIT OF '88

At the south end of Joe Aillet Stadium stands a bronze Bulldog statue named the Spirit of '88.

The statue commemorates the 1988 Bulldog football team which blazed the path into Division I-A football for Louisiana Tech.

That 1988 team had to endure one of the most difficult schedules in school history. In what was the nation's 11th toughest schedule that year, the Bulldogs faced five I-A bowl teams including Houston, Florida State and Texas A&M.

The results were as expected: losses like 60-0, 56-17 and 66-3 ... but as a team, the Bulldogs grew. Those experiences likely played a key role in Tech finishing 5-4-1 the following year, its first in I-A, and 8-3-1 in 1990's Independence Bowl season.

The statue, which every Tech player touches as he walks down the ramp before every home game, also brought good fortune to the Bulldogs at home. On Oct. 14, 1989, when it was unveiled, Tech proceeded to pummel a very good Northern Illinois team, 42-21. That was just the start of one of the best runs in Tech football history.

Over the next four-plus seasons, home games were few and far between, but each one resulted in a win. The Bulldogs eventually reeled off 18 consecutive home victories, tying the all-time stadium record set by head coach Maxie Lambright's great teams of the early 1970s.

Some wins have been more magical than others. The endings to three of the biggest wins in school history have taken place in the south end zone ... almost as if the Spirit of '88 has played an integral role.

In only Louisiana Tech's second season in the Division I-A ranks, the Bulldogs trailed Colorado State 30-14 late in the third quarter and their bowl hopes looked bleak. However, 17 unanswered points later, Tech had rallied for a 31-30 win over the bowl-bound Rams to earn their own Independence Bowl berth.

The winning touchdown pass from Gene Johnson to Bobby Slaughter in the final minutes came fittingly in the south end zone, just in front of the Spirit of '88.

Eleven years later, Tech clinched a share of its first Western Athletic Conference title with a 48-42 win over Boise State at Joe Aillet Stadium. With the Broncos driving towards what looked like a game-winning score late in the contest, the Spirit of '88 magic struck once again.

Ryan Dinwiddie's potential game-winning touchdown pass bounced off the helmet of a Tech defender and high into the air before Bulldog defensive lineman Brandon Avance plucked it out of the air, giving Tech the victory.

Some might say it's a coincidence that the two biggest wins in the program's Division I-A history had been decided in the south end zone under the watchful eyes of the Spirit of '88.

However, the third time proved it was more than just chance.

On a warm Oct. 2 evening in 2004, Louisiana Tech found itself trailing No. 17 ranked Fresno State 21-20 late in the fourth quarter.

Fresno State had the football and the momentum, trying to move out of its own end zone -- the south end zone -- against a Tech defense and its 12th man, or should we say Dawg.

On third down Fresno State quarterback Paul Pinegar was intercepted by Byron Santiago who returned the football down to the 16-yard line.

Two plays later, Ryan Moats gave Tech a 28-21 lead and the eventual win as he rushed eight yards to the right corner of the south end zone. The Bulldogs had defeated the 17th-ranked team in the nation.

A Joe Aillet Stadium crowd of almost 20,000 celebrated wildly with the Tech players, coaches and the Spirit of '88.

Some may say the powers of that bronze Bulldog are a fluke. Tech fans won't agree. The numbers say 67 wins and just 28 losses since the Spirit of '88 was unveiled.

So fluke or not, the Bulldogs will continue to touch it each home game and hope the wins continue.

INDEPENDENCE STADIUM

Independence Stadium and Louisiana Tech have a long, successful history together as the Bulldogs have played 70 games in Shreveport, including four trips to the Independence Bowl.

All-time the Bulldogs are 45-22-3 (.664) in games played in Independence Stadium. Northwestern State is the most common opponent for Tech in Shreveport as the two programs met 48 times with the Bulldogs claiming a 34-12-2 mark in those games and a 33-12-2 mark in Independence Stadium.

Although the majority of the games that Tech has played in Shreveport came during the old State Fair Games against Northwestern State, starting in the late '30s and ending in the late '80s, Tech has played some other big-time college football games at the site.

In the last two decades, Louisiana Tech has faced Northern Illinois (2008), Houston (1988), Maryland (1990), Baylor (1996), California (1997), Texas A&M (1999), Oklahoma State (2002) and Miami (2003) at Independence Stadium. Thrilling last-minute victories against California (41-34) and Oklahoma State (39-36) highlight the Bulldogs' successful history in Shreveport.

In all, Tech has played 19 different teams at Independence Stadium, and the Bulldogs have appeared in four Independence Bowls, beating Louisville 24-14 in 1977, losing 35-13 to East Carolina in 1978, tying Maryland 34-34 in 1990 and defeating Northern Illinois 17-10 in 2008.

Louisiana Tech opened the 2003 season at Independence Stadium as the Bulldogs played host to five-time national champion Miami on Aug. 28, 2003, in a nationally televised game on ESPN, which saw a Louisiana Tech regular season home attendance record of 43,279.

Independence Stadium originally opened as State Fair Stadium in 1925. It has gone through numerous renovations and expansions over the years with the most recent being the installation of FieldTurf in late 2010.

WAC
WESTERN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

After completing its 50th year of intercollegiate competition, the Western Athletic Conference continues to evolve and feature some of the nation's best programs. One thing that remains unchanged is the persistent nature of the schools in the WAC to advance their programs to contend at the top levels of the NCAA.

The WAC provides its student-athletes the chance to travel to scenic destinations and gain exposure in some of the nation's most diverse markets. In addition, the WAC's student-athletes work to achieve the highest levels of success with the academic support of their respective institutions.

The WAC has experienced tremendous success over the years. Since 2000, a total of 43 football teams have been invited to bowl games, including more than half of its teams in 2008 with a record-tying five. The conference has sent teams to BCS bowl games three times since 2006. In men's basketball, the WAC has sent at least two teams to the NCAA Tournament in 24 of the past 29 seasons. In baseball, the WAC has boasted two national champions since 2003. In women's basketball, Louisiana Tech basketball has played in all but three NCAA postseason tournaments during its history.

In 2001, the WAC partnered with ESPN for coverage of football and basketball giving the conference national exposure from one of the most respected broadcast entities in the country. The WAC also officially added WAC.tv in 2006 to give fans streaming internet access to many of its postseason championships including volleyball, soccer, swimming and diving, basketball, softball and baseball.

The WAC is the sixth oldest among the nation's 11 Division I-A conferences. Its history traces back to July 27, 1962, when the original six-team league of Arizona, Arizona State, Brigham Young, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming began competition.

The first championship was held in November 1962, when Arizona won the men's cross country title and New Mexico followed with the first WAC football title. Arizona finished second in the NCAA College World Series and, less than three years later, Arizona State claimed the league's first NCAA title when the Sun Devils won the College World Series trophy. Fresno State was the last WAC school to earn an NCAA team title when it won the College World Series in 2008.

Since 1962, several changes have occurred. UTEP and Colorado State became members in September 1967, while Arizona and Arizona State withdrew on June 30, 1978. The WAC then added San Diego State (1978), Hawai'i (1979) and Air Force (1980). Before 1990, the WAC sponsored championships only in men's sports. However, a merger with the High Country Athletic Conference formed a single conference under one administrative structure, and the 1990-91 athletic year was the first in which both men and women competed under the WAC name. Fresno State was added in 1992, and then in 1996, the women's programs from Air Force and Hawai'i along with six new schools (UNLV, Rice, San Jose State, SMU, TCU and Tulsa) came into the WAC. Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, UNLV, New Mexico, San Diego State, Utah and Wyoming withdrew on June 30, 1999. Nevada (2000), Boise State (2001) and Louisiana Tech (2001) were added while TCU withdrew following the 2000-01 season. In 2005, Idaho, New Mexico State and Utah State joined the WAC after Rice, SMU, UTEP and Tulsa withdrew. Boise State withdrew prior to the 2011-12 season. The current membership began on July 1, 2012 when the WAC added Denver, Seattle, UT-Arlington, UTSA and Texas State to replace withdrawing members, Fresno State, Hawai'i and Nevada. Boise State returns in 2013-14 in all sports except football.

The WAC has had just six commissioners in its history. Paul Brechler was named the first leader of the conference and held the position from 1962-1968. He was followed by Wiles Hallock (1968-71), Stan Bates (1971-80), Dr. Joe Kearney (1980-94), Karl Benson (1994-2012) and current interim commissioner Jeff Hurd (2012-present).

Presently, the WAC crowns team and individual champions in 19 sports – eight men's and 11 women's. For the men, there are championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis, indoor track and field and outdoor track and field. Championships for women are held in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field and volleyball.

The WAC office has been located in the Denver area since the conference's inception with the exception of a two-year stay in Phoenix from 1964-66.

JEFF HURD, WAC INTERIM COMMISSIONER

Jeff Hurd was named interim commissioner of the WAC on March 9, 2012. He has been associated with the conference for more than half of its existence as he joined the WAC staff in 1985 as the Director of Conference Relations.

Prior to taking the reins of the 50-year-old conference, Hurd also served as associate commissioner, then as senior associate commissioner where he oversaw communications, television operations and the basketball tournament. He was also responsible for team sport scheduling and was the administrator for football, men's basketball and baseball.

Hurd is a graduate of the University of Missouri School of Journalism and began his professional career as the Sports Editor of the Hannibal (Missouri) Courier-Post. He also worked for the Tulsa Tribune, was the Sports Information Director at the University of Tulsa and the Director of Public Relations for the Missouri Valley Conference prior to joining the WAC.

A native of Minot, North Dakota, Hurd and his wife, Cheri, reside in Centennial, Colo., and are the parents of four children: Shannon, Michael, Kristen and Kevin.

Southern Miss 19, LA Tech 17

September 3, 2011

M.M. Roberts Stadium, Hattiesburg, Miss.

HATTIESBURG, Miss. - Danny Hrapmann's 49-yard field goal with 2:32 to play lifted Southern Miss to a 19-17 win over Louisiana Tech before 22,356 rain-soaked fans at Roberts Stadium Saturday night.

After the Bulldogs (0-1) took a 17-13 lead midway through the fourth quarter on a one-yard plunge by Lennon Creer, Southern Miss took its next two possessions inside LA Tech territory where it converted on a pair of field goals - one by Corey Acosta and the game-winner by Hrappman.

Tech had two final chances but turned it over on downs around midfield with just over two minutes to play and then ran out of time with the ball inside USM territory to end the game.

USM led 10-3 after a Hrappman 38-yard field goal attempt with only :14 to play in the third quarter when the Bulldogs special teams struck on one of three big plays they made during the night.

Lyle Fitte took the ensuing kickoff following Hrappman's field goal and returned it 86 yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 10-10. It was the 10th longest kickoff return in Bulldog history and the sixth straight year that a LA Tech player has returned a kickoff or a punt for a score.

"The return was a heck of a play," said Tech head coach Sonny Dykes. "He got some good blocks and Lyle is a good return guy. He will do that against some folks this year. We had to have some plays on special teams because we weren't making many on offense."

USM retook the lead early in the fourth on a Hrappman field goal when the Tech special teams unit struck again. This time the Bulldog punt coverage unit made the play as Justin Goodman recovered a muffled punt on the USM three-yard line, setting up Creer's one-yard run two plays later as LA Tech took a 17-13 advantage with 9:43 to play.

Corey Acosta then capped a six play drive for USM with a 42-yard field goal cutting the advantage to 17-16 with 7:44 remaining in the contest. The Bulldogs offense was unable to move the football on its next possession as Tech was forced to punt, setting up the game-winning drive by USM.

Tech freshman quarterback Nick Isham completed 20-of-36 passes for 176 yards but was hurt by six dropped passes by Bulldog receivers. Quinton Patton led Tech receivers with five catches for 95 yards while Creer led the Tech ground game with 53 yards on 17 carries.

"I thought Nick was composed," said Dykes. "That was what was most impressive to me. He played against a good football team in the rain on the road. He never got rattled. He made a couple of mistakes early. I was pretty impressed with the way he played though."

Defensively, Jamel Johnson recorded a career-high 12 tackles while Jay Dudley added 10 and Adrien Cole nine. Matt Broha recorded six tackles and one sack while Dave Clark had two tackles, one pass breakup and his first career interception.

USM outgained Tech 379 to 244 in total yardage.

Southern Miss took the opening kickoff 72 yards on seven plays and took a 7-0 lead on a 12-yard run by Kelvin Bolden with 11:38 to play in the first quarter. The scoring drive was highlighted by a 25-yard pass to William Spight on a third down and four play, setting up the touchdown.

Following the scoring drive, both defenses stiffened as neither offense was able to move the football with any consistency.

Tech's best scoring opportunity of the first half came when linebacker Adrien Cole blocked a 45-yard field goal attempt midway through the first quarter and defensive back Dave Clark returned it to the Eagles 23-yard line.

However, USM held as Isham failed to convert on a fourth down and one quarterback keeper as the Eagles took over possession.

LA Tech 48, UCA 42 (OT)

September 10, 2011
Joe Aillet Stadium, Ruston, La.

RUSTON, La. - Freshman Nick Isham directed a 72-yard scoring drive in the final two minutes of regulation and running back Lennon Creer made up for a crucial fourth-quarter fumble as Louisiana Tech downed Central Arkansas 48-42 in overtime before 20,652 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium Saturday night.

Creer's fumble with 2:08 to play in the fourth quarter was returned 73 yards by UCA's Jerre McKnight as the Bears (1-1) took a 42-35 lead and were on the brink of the upset.

However, Isham - playing in only his second collegiate game - calmly led the Bulldogs down the field on a seven play, 72-yard drive that was capped off by Ray Holley's seven-yard scoring run with only 58 seconds to play.

The key play on the drive was a 49-yard pass hookup from Isham to Quinton Patton that put the Bulldogs inside the redzone. Patton ended the night with 211 yards receiving, tying him for 10th place all-time in a single game with former Bulldog Tommy Spinks who accomplished the feat in 1968 against Louisiana-Lafayette (formerly USL).

Two plays later, Holley scored his second rushing TD of the game and Matt Nelson's extra point tied it up.

Tech's defense forced a three-and-out on UCA's final possession as the final seconds ticked off the clock on a punt by Kevin Buford.

The Bulldogs won the toss and elected to go on defense to begin the overtime. Despite surrendering 372 yards through the air to UCA quarterback Nathan Dick, Tech's defensive unit stood tall in the extra period holding the Bears to three total yards on three plays and forcing a 39-yard field goal attempt by Eddie Camara, who had hit two earlier in the game.

However, linebacker Adrien Cole broke through the line to block the attempt, giving the Bulldogs offensive unit an opportunity to win the game.

Creer, who rushed for 177 yards and three touchdowns on a career-high 32 carries, took a handoff on the first play, cut right off tackle and galloped down to the two-yard line. Two plays later, he found the endzone, sending the Tech sideline and the Bulldog faithful remaining in the stands into a celebration.

Isham finished the game 22-of-37 for 318 yards and two scores with one costly interception late in the first half.

Patton, playing in only his second game for Tech, burned the UCA secondary twice in the opening quarter, the first time on a 42-yard strike from Isham, giving the Bulldogs a 7-0 lead with 10:10 to play.

After UCA cut the lead to 7-3 on a Camara 39-yard field goal, Isham to Patton struck again - this time on a 72-yard bomb. It marked the longest pass play for Tech since Zac Champion hit Phillip Livas on a 70-yard pass in 2007.

Creer scored his first touchdown of the night in the second quarter on a five-yard run, giving Tech a 21-10 lead. Tech had one final opportunity in the second quarter to add to its lead but Isham threw an interception which was returned inside Tech territory, setting up a 3-yard scoring toss from Dick to Dominique Croom as Tech lead 21-17 at the half.

Holley (4-yard run) and Creer (12-yard run) scored in the third quarter to give Tech a 35-20 lead before UCA scored 22 unanswered points - the final seven coming on the 73-yard fumble return by McKnight.

Chad Boyd led Tech with 10 tackles, including 1.5 TFL, while Cole added nine tackles, one sack and 1.5 TFL.

Houston 35, LA Tech 34

Joe Aillet Stadium, Ruston, La.

RUSTON, La. - Patrick Edwards' 32-yard touchdown reception with 1:36 to play capped a furious second half rally as Houston defeated Louisiana Tech 35-34 before 24,642 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium Saturday night.

Edwards leaping catch in the back of the north endzone capped an 84-yard, six play drive as Houston (3-0) scored the final 28 points of the game.

Tech took a 34-7 lead on Ray Holley's seven-yard run with just over five minutes to play in the third quarter, before the Cougars scored four straight touchdowns.

Tech (1-2) had one final chance to retake the lead but Lennon Creer was stopped just short on a fourth down play at the Bulldogs 37-yard line with just under a minute to play as Houston ran the final seconds off the game clock while a sea of blue streamed out of the Joe Aillet Stadium gates in shock.

"Well, tough football game," said Tech head coach Sonny Dykes. "When you have coached as long as I have coached, you end up in a lot of tight, tough football games and that was one of the more disappointing ones I have ever been a part of. I thought we played really well for about three quarters and then just kind of fell apart in the fourth quarter.

"We have to learn how to finish a game off. We've played two games against teams picked first and second in Conference USA in Southern Miss and Houston and lost by two and lost by one. If we want to get this program where we want it to be we have to learn how to win those games against good teams. We just weren't able to do it today."

Behind a stellar defensive performance through the first 40 minutes of action and a ball control offense that kept the high-powered UH offense on the sideline, LA Tech took a 20-7 lead into the halftime locker room as Matt Nelson booted a 47-yard field goal at the end of the half.

Nick Isham threw a 16-yard strike to Quinton Patton with 6:47 to play in the third making the score 27-7 and after a Quin Giles interception, Holley's seven-yard run gave Tech its biggest lead of the night.

However, Case Keenum - who had been held in check through the first 40 minutes of play - passed for 280 of his game-high 351 yards in the second half as he led Houston on four touchdown drives, including three in the fourth quarter.

After Bryce Beall's two-yard run early in the fourth quarter made the score 34-21, Tech marched 42-yards on nine plays and looked to be in control until Holley fumbled on the UH 22-yard line, giving the Cougars life.

Keenum took Houston 80 yards on nine plays as Beall scored again - this time from four yards out - to cut the deficit to 34-28 with 7:25 to play. Keenum completed a key fourth-down and four pass to keep the drive alive.

Following an Isham interception on Tech's next possession, the Bulldog defense stood tall forcing a three out with 5:40 to play. However, the Bulldog offense could muster only one first down as Houston took over following a Ryan Allen punt with 2:46 to play - setting up the game-winning drive.

"We talked at halftime about playing each play, and how we can't get it all back at one time," said Houston head coach Kevin Sumlin. "It's going to take every play. We've been in that position (before), but we have guys who know what it takes to win."

On Tech's final possession, the Bulldogs took the field minus several key players, including Patton, Creer, Myles White and Taulib Ikharo.

"We are just trying to find guys and get them lined up," Dykes said. "It's hard to put a drive together when you're banged up like that but we have to learn how to do it. That's part of it. Good football teams have players that step up and make plays and we have to be more than one tricked pony and somebody has to step up in those situations and make a play."

Isham completed 20-of-31 passes for 199 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions while Patton led Tech with five receptions for 82 yards and one score before leaving the game following his touchdown reception.

Creer - despite missing more than a quarter with an injury - rushed 25 times for 99 yards and one score while Holley added 62 yards and two touchdowns on the ground. Keenum completed 25-of-40 passes for 351 yards and three scores and two interceptions.

Jay Dudley led Tech with 11 tackles while Adrien Cole added eight and two tackles for loss.

Mississippi State 26, LA Tech 20 (OT)

Davis Wade Stadium, Starkville, Miss.

STARKVILLE, Miss. - For the fourth straight weekend, Louisiana Tech found itself in a dogfight late in the game and for the third time the Bulldogs came up just short as Chris Relf's 17-yard touchdown pass to LaDarius Perkins in overtime gave Mississippi State a 26-20 overtime win Saturday night.

It was another game filled with positives for head coach Sonny Dykes and the Bulldogs, but in the end, it was another tough loss.

Tech (1-3) wasn't able to capitalize on two opportunities late in the fourth quarter with the game tied at 20-20 and after freshman quarterback Nick Isham threw his second interception of the game on the Bulldogs only possession in overtime, Mississippi State (2-2) made them pay.

On a second-down-and-two play from the 17-yard line, Relf lofted a pass into the left corner of the end zone to Perkins who had beaten the Tech corner as the more than 56,000 Mississippi State fans erupted in celebration.

The loss marked the third time this season that LA Tech has fallen with all three setbacks coming by two points or less or in overtime.

With just over three minutes remaining in the fourth quarter and the game tied, Tech looked to be in prime position to pull the victory - what would have been its third straight against Mississippi State.

After driving 60 yards on nine plays - which included a highlight real 28-yard catch by Hunter Lee off a tipped ball - Tech was faced with a third down and three play from the MSU 21-yard line. After a timeout, Isham dropped back and threw an ill-advised pass into the endzone that was intercepted by Mississippi State, ending the Louisiana Tech threat.

Following a three-and-out by the LA Tech defense, Tech took over on its own 35-yard line with 2:32 to play. Two straight runs netted six yards and on third down and four, Isham found Taulib Ikharo over the middle around midfield for what would have been a Tech first down. However, Ikharo dropped the pass, forcing Tech to punt and eventually leading to OT.

Mississippi State took an early 7-0 lead when Chad Bumphis picked up a 72-yard Ryan Allen punt on the 18-yard line, made several LA Tech defenders miss and raced 82 yards to the end zone for the first score of the night.

Tech answered back on a Matt Nelson 43-yard field goal that capped a nine-play, 48-yard drive. Early in the second quarter, LA Tech took its first lead of the game on a Lennon Creer four-yard touchdown run as Nelon's extra point made the score 10-7.

The Bulldogs from Mississippi scored the final 10 points of the half - on a Vick Ballard 11-yard run and a Derek DePasquale 36-yard field goal - as MSU took a 17-10 lead into the halftime locker room.

Midway through the third quarter, Tech's special teams unit made a big play snuffing out a faked punt as the Bulldogs took over at the MSU 34-yard line. Six plays later, Isham found Quinton Patton in the corner of the end zone for a score - on a play that was originally ruled out of bounds before instant replay overturned it in LA Tech's favor.

DePasquale and Nelson traded field goals down the stretch to tie the game at 20-20, setting the stage for overtime.

Isham ended the night 29-of-40 for 233 yards and one score with two interceptions. Quinton Patton caught 11 passes for 87 yards and one score while Creer rushed 24 times for 82 yards and one score.

Tech outgained Mississippi State 359-340 as both teams recorded 20 first downs in the game.

The Bulldog defense stood tall all night long led by Adrien Cole (16 tackles), Jay Dudley (13 tackles) and Jamel Johnson (11 tackles).

Hawai'i 44, LA Tech 26

Joe Aillet Stadium, Ruston, La.

RUSTON, La. - Hawai'i quarterback Bryant Moniz passed for 410 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Warriors to a 44-26 win over Louisiana Tech in the Western Athletic Conference opener for both teams before 25,212 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium Saturday night.

"It was a disappointing performance," said Tech head coach Sonny Dykes. "I'm embarrassed of how our team played. I'm not pleased with the product we put on the field. We've got to get better, be able to play better and react better, and handle situations that occur in the game better than we did tonight."

In a game that was marred by numerous stoppages of play by officials - including a 20-minute stoppage in the second quarter on a review of a play - , Hawai'i used a pair of non-offensive touchdowns on back-to-back plays midway through the third quarter to pull away for the win.

After Tech closed a two-touchdown halftime deficit to 20-13 on a Nick Isham seven-yard scoring toss to Taulib Ikharo with 13:37 to play in the third quarter, the Bulldogs lost the momentum - and the game - over the next six minutes.

Moniz led Hawai'i on a 10-play, 65-yard drive which was capped by his six-yard touchdown pass to Billy Ray Stutzmann. The score strike illustrated the frustrations of the night for Tech as Moniz was under heavy pressure on the third down play and blindly tossed it towards the endzone while going down as Stutzmann came up with the catch amongst four Bulldog defenders.

Trailing 27-13, Tech's offensive unit took over on its own 37-yard line. After converting a third down play, Isham was intercepted by Richard Torres on an out-route as the Hawai'i defensive back raced 49-yards untouched to the endzone for a three-touchdown lead.

"I saw a hole in the defense and changed the route,"Isham said. "The defender was playing man and instead of staying on his guy he jumped the out route I threw." The situation went from bad to worse moments later as Lyle Fitte fumbled the kickoff and Tank Hopkins scooped and scored from 16-yards out as the Bulldogs found themselves trailing 41-13 with seven minutes to play in the quarter.

Tech scored two final touchdowns - one on an Isham 10-yard pass to Lennon Creer and the final on an Isham four-yard run - but it wasn't enough as the Bulldogs fell for the fourth time in five games.

"It is pretty embarrassing and very disappointing," said cornerback Terry Carter. "We have a bunch of great fans, and I am apologizing for the way we competed on the field. I promise that will never happen again."

Tech took an early 6-0 lead in the first quarter on a 2-yard pass from Isham to Quinton Patton, who finished the game with seven catches for 126 yards.

However, Moniz then threw three first half touchdown passes to Royce Pollard (27, 13, 9), who victimized the Tech secondary with 10 catches for 216 yards (all career-highs) and three scores.

Isham completed 29-of-51 passes for 305 yards and three touchdowns but threw two interceptions and was sacked four times in the game.

Creer was also held in check, totaling only 63 yards on 16 carries in the game.

LA Tech 24, Idaho 11

Kibbie Dome, Moscow, Idaho

MOSCOW, Idaho - Louisiana Tech needed a win.

The Bulldog defense needed to make a statement.

Both were accomplished Saturday afternoon as Tech defeated Idaho 24-11 in the Kibbie Dome as the Bulldogs defense forced four turnovers and allowed only a field goal as Tech (2-4, 1-1 WAC) snapped its three-game losing streak.

With the victory, Tech improved to 5-2 all-time against Idaho (1-5, 0-2 WAC) and ruined the Vandals homecoming celebration.

With the Tech offense struggling in the opening half, the Bulldog defense stopped the Vandals time after time while also contributing the only touchdown of the opening 30 minutes of play.

After a scoreless first quarter, Matt Nelson's 23-yard field goal on the first play of the second stanza gave Tech a 3-0 lead. Following an Idaho safety that cut the lead to 3-2, the Bulldogs defense struck with the game-changing play as linebacker Jay Dudley recorded the first of three interceptions by Tech on the day and returned it 53 yards for a score.

Nelson's extra point gave Tech a 10-2 lead with 4:47 to play in the second quarter. Idaho kicker Trey Farquhar made the score 10-5 at the half with a 43-yard boot late in the second.

After both teams failed to score early in the second half, Tech finally put together a touchdown drive, covering 53 yards on seven plays with walk-on running back Hunter Lee paving the way. Nick Isham's six-yard strike to David Gru in the back of the endzone with 6:19 to play gave Tech a 17-5 advantage.

One possession later, Lee and the Bulldog offense marched 40-yards on six plays to grab a 24-5 advantage on a one-yard run by Isham with only 5 seconds to play in the third quarter.

Idaho's offense had numerous opportunities to put scoring drives together but the Bulldogs defense stood tall, holding Vandals quarterback Brian Reader to only 19-of-47 passes for 244 yards and three interceptions. Jamel Johnson and Quin Giles both recorded interceptions in the second half.

The only touchdown of the game for Idaho came on special teams when Justin Veltung returned a punt 81 yards for a score with 3:35 to play in the game.

With Lennon Creer standing on the sideline for most of the second half, the little-used Lee made the most of his opportunity, rushing a career-high 28 times for 134 yards. His 18-yard gallop over the left side with just over a minute to play sealed the win for Tech.

While the Tech defense did its part, it was helped by the incredible punting performance by Ryan Allen, who punted 10 times for a career-best 48.0 yard average, including six punts down inside the 20-yard line. Four of Allen's punts were downed inside the Vandals 10-yard line.

With Idaho playing two-deep coverage for most of the game, Isham took what the defense gave him, completing 25-of-39 passes for 163 yards and one score. Quinton Patton caught nine passes for a total of 34 yards while Gru had four for 28 and the score.

Creer ended the game with 54 yards on 10 carries but sat most of the second half while Lee posted career numbers.

Adrien Cole led the Tech defense with eight tackles and one fumble recovery while Dudley added six tackles and the interception return for a touchdown one day after his birthday.

LA Tech 24, Utah State 17

October 22, 2011

Romney Stadium, Logan, Utah

LOGAN, Utah - Louisiana Tech's defense recorded a second straight stellar performance and backup quarterback Colby Cameron came on to lead the Bulldogs to a 24-17 come-from-behind Western Athletic Conference victory over Utah State Saturday at Romney Stadium.

The win for Tech (3-4, 2-1 WAC) is the fourth straight WAC road victory for the program, the longest streak since entering the league in 2001.

The victory wouldn't come easy against a Utah State team that was averaging 39.0 points a game this season. However, the Bulldogs defense made play after play during the game and Tech won the special teams battle - which included a rare loss of down penalty on an illegal touch on a punt by the Aggies late in the game.

After opening the game with an impressive 10-play, 87-yard drive that culminated with a Lennon Creer three-yard touchdown run, the Tech offense went dormant, recording only 66 more total offensive yards through the third quarter.

Freshman quarterback Nick Isham struggled, completing only 10-of-22 passes for 63 yards and missing a number of open receivers while dodging a pair of interceptions that Utah State defenders dropped.

However, the Tech defense kept the Bulldogs in the game. Terry Carter's 22-yard interception return for a touchdown with 11:36 to play in the third quarter, gave Tech a 14-10 lead. It was his first interception since returning one for a score against San Jose State in 2008.

Utah State answered with a nine-play, 87-yard drive that resulted in a 17-14 lead when their freshman signal caller Chuckie Keeton scrambled 29-yards to paydirt with 7:41 to play in the third quarter.

After two more empty possessions by the Tech offense, head coach Sonny Dykes made the switch at quarterback, giving Cameron his first action of the year.

The junior responded leading Tech on an eight-play, 58-yard drive as Hunter Lee scored his first career touchdown from eight yards out with 10:07 to play as the Bulldogs regained the advantage on the scoreboard 21-17. The key play on the drive was a third down and one call where Cameron audiblized out of a run and lofted a pass down the sideline to Quinton Patton, who drew a defensive pass interference penalty.

The 15-yard penalty gave Tech the ball on the USU 17 and after three plays, the Bulldogs were faced with a fourth down and one from the eight. Lee took the handoff from Cameron and ran off the right tackle untouched for the go-ahead score.

Utah State was able to only gain one first down on its next two possessions. Facing a fourth- down and one on its own 33 with less than five minutes to play, the Aggies opted to punt. USU punter Tyler Bennett dropped the snap and under duress from the Tech rush, kicked the football off the ground about 35 yards down the field.

However, under NCAA rules, it was an illegal touch and a 10-yard penalty was marked off from the spot of the foul. The loss of down on the penalty gave the Bulldogs the football on the USU 11-yard line with 4:30 to play.

Tech ran three straight plays before Matt Nelson kicked a 24-yard field goal to up the advantage to 24-17 with 1:44 left in the game.

Utah State had one final opportunity to tie the game, but the Bulldog defense held on a fourth down scramble by Keeton, and Tech took over and ran out the clock.

Offensively, Tech managed only 232 yards for the game including 86 yards on the ground and 146 through the air. Cameron completed 4-of-6 passes for 38 yards while Creer led the ground attack with 62 yards and one score. Lee added 28 yards and one touchdown.

Defensively, Tech held the potent USU offense to only 294 yards. The Aggies entered the contest averaging more than 300 yards per game on the ground but Tech limited USU to only 166, including holding Robert Turbin to only 81 yards.

Adrien Cole recorded 14 tackles in the game. Utah State's Bobby Wagner recorded 20.

For the second straight game, Tech punter Ryan Allen was phenomenal, averaging 52.2 yards per punt while downing seven of his eight punts inside the Aggies 20-yard line.

LA Tech 38, San Jose State 28

Joe Aillet Stadium, Ruston, La.

RUSTON, La. - Colby Cameron threw for 237 yards and Lennon Creer paced an impressive Tech ground assault with his seventh career 100-yard rushing performance as Louisiana Tech defeated San Jose State 38-28 before 19,642 fans at Joe Aillet Stadium Saturday afternoon.

While the offense was recording 497 total yards, the Bulldog defense forced five turnovers, including a season-high four interceptions as Tech held SJSU to a mere 12 yards rushing on 17 carries.

The Bulldogs (4-4, 3-1 WAC) used a five-minute stretch that included the final possession of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half to blow open a close game as Tech defeated the Spartans (3-5, 2-2 WAC) for the fifth straight time.

Tech led 17-14 late in the second quarter but capitalized on two interceptions to score 21 straight points as the Bulldogs led 38-14 with over 10 minutes to play in the third quarter.

The barrage started when Tech safety Jamel Johnson intercepted a Matt Faulkner pass with 51 seconds to play in the second quarter and returned it deep into Spartan territory. Three plays later, Cameron hit Quinton Patton on a two-yard TD toss - the duo's second scoring hookup of the game as Tech took a 24-14 lead into intermission.

After a 40-yard kickoff return by freshman Levander Liggins to open the second half, the Bulldogs marched 60 yards on 12 plays and took a 31-14 lead on a 1-yard touchdown dive by Creer with 11:15 to play in the third quarter. Tech converted a pair of third downs and one fourth down on the scoring drive.

On the first play of scrimmage for San Jose State following the kickoff, Tech linebacker Jay Dudley intercepted Faulkner and raced 36-yards untouched to the endzone as the Bulldog lead ballooned to 38-14. It was the third straight game that LA Tech has returned an interception for a score, and the second for Dudley who also accomplished the feat in the 24-11 win over Idaho on Oct. 8.

San Jose State would add a Chandler Jones five-yard touchdown reception late in the third quarter and a Ryan Otten 20-yard scoring reception late in the fourth quarter, but it wasn't enough as the Bulldogs won for the third straight time.

After Matt Nelson gave Tech the early 3-0 lead on a 25-yard field goal following a Chad Boyd interception early in the first quarter, SJSU took the lead thanks to a big special teams play. The Spartans recovered a Andrew Guillot fumble on a punt return giving them first and goal at the Tech 1-yard line. Brandon Rutley, who was held to only 23 yards rushing on 14 carries, scored on the first play as SJSU took a 7-3 lead.

Tech answered early in the second quarter as Cameron directed a 10-play, 94-yard drive that was capped by a 21-yard touchdown run by Richie Casey on a reverse as the Bulldogs regained the lead 10-7. The drive was highlighted by a 31-yard run by Hunter Lee, who finished the game with 83 yards on 12 carries in the game.

San Jose State's offense, which was held in check through most of the first half, did record one big play when Faulkner hit Noel Grigsby on a 60-yard touchdown with 8:29 to play in the second quarter. The Jens Alvernik extra point gave SJSU the 14-10 lead.

However, it was short-lived.

On Tech's ensuing possession, the Bulldogs used some trickery as a flea flicker pulled the Spartan safeties up as Cameron hit Patton on a 90-yard scoring strike. Patton caught the ball at midfield, sidestepped one defender and outraced two more to the endzone for the fifth longest pass play in Louisiana Tech history.

It was also the longest play from scrimmage for Tech since 2004 when Matt Kubik hit Tramissian Davis for a 93-yard touchdown in a win at SMU.

Nelson's extra point gave Tech a 17-14 lead which it held until the final seconds of the first half when the Bulldogs began to pull away with the second touchdown from Cameron to Patton.

Creer rushed 31 times for 112 yards and one score while Lee added 83 yards. In addition to his 237 yards passing, Cameron added 49 yards on 15 carries on the ground.

Patton paced the Tech receivers with five catches for 116 yards and two touchdowns while David Gru and Taulib Ikharo added three receptions each.

Faulkner completed 33-of-49 passes for 327 yards and three scores but threw four interceptions. The Bulldogs scored 17 points off of the five turnovers.

Defensively, Dudley recorded 10 tackles, one tackle for loss and one interception return for a touchdown while Javontay Crowe added a career-high eight tackles and Johnson registered seven with one interception. Boyd and Justin Goodman also added interceptions.

Tech converted 12-of-25 third and fourth down conversions while the Bulldog defense held the Spartans to converting only 4 of 14.

LA Tech 41, Fresno State 21

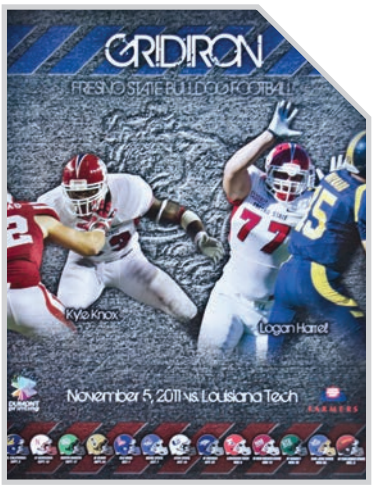
Bulldog Stadium, Fresno, Calif.



FRESNO, Calif. - A bank of lights at Bulldog Stadium went out late in the fourth quarter of Saturday night's Western Athletic Conference match-up between Louisiana Tech and Fresno State. It was fitting. After all, Louisiana Tech had turned out the lights on Fresno State well before that point.

Colby Cameron passed for a career-high 358 yards and four touchdowns and the LA Tech defense held Robbie Rouse and Co. in check as the Louisiana-based Bulldogs won for the fourth straight time with a 41-21 victory in what is the final game scheduled against Fresno State, which departs for the Mountain West next year.

Tech gave Fresno State an emphatic sendoff.

With the win, Tech (5-4, 4-1 WAC) remained one game behind Western Athletic Conference leader Nevada with two league games remaining. LA Tech will step out of WAC play next week when it travels to Ole Miss before finishing the year at Nevada Nov. 19 and at home against New Mexico State Nov. 26.

On its way to winning for the fifth consecutive time on the road in a WAC stadium, the Bulldogs offense torched Fresno State early and often as Tech racked up 400 yards of total offense in the first half while building a 34-7 halftime lead.

Tech jumped out to an early 14-0 lead on a pair of scoring tosses from Cameron to wide receiver Quinton Patton, the first covering 45 yards and the second 22 yards. Patton finished the game with 97 yards on six receptions and his two scores gave him nine for the year, which moved him into a tie for ninth with Chad Mackey, Ken Liberto, and Delwyn Daigre for touchdowns in a single season.

Matt Nelson tacked on a 26-yard field goal early in the second quarter to push the lead to 17-0 before Fresno State responded with its first drive of the night. Derek Carr hit Victor Dean on a six-yard strike, culminating an eight-play, 82 yard drive.

It was the first time all night that the announced crowd of 27,965 Fresno State fans had an opportunity to make some noise for the home team.

Tech running back Lennon Creer soon silenced them. With Tech leading 17-7, the Bulldogs drove 90 yards on six plays and grabbed the momentum back when Creer ripped off a 53-yard touchdown run untouched. Nelson's extra point made the score 24-7 with 7:38 to play. Creer ended the night with 113 yards on 17 carries.

After another stellar defensive stop by the Tech defense on Fresno State's ensuing possession, the Bulldogs struck again as Cameron rolled out and hit Myles White for a 75-yard touchdown - the final 35 yards covered with Patton giving him an escort to the endzone.

Nelson hit a 40-yard field goal with nine seconds to play in the opening half as Tech took a 34-7 lead - and all the momentum - into the locker room.

Any chance of a second half comeback by Fresno State was doused early in the third quarter when the Bulldogs drove 80-yards on seven plays and took a 41-7 lead on a six-yard pass from Cameron to Richie Casey.

Fresno State scored a couple of meaningless touchdowns - one in the third and one in the fourth - while the Tech defense recorded a pair of second half interceptions as both Jay Dudley and Dave Clark registered their third of the year.

Tech is now plus 11 in turnover margin in its last four games and the Bulldogs 15 interceptions leads the WAC.

Making just his second start of the year, Cameron completed 18-of-32 passes in the game. David Gru (4-72), Casey (3-58-1) and White (2-130-1) were Tech's top receiving threats.

Defensively, Tech held the WAC's leading rusher Robbie Rouse to only 97 yards on 24 carries with a long of nine yards. Rouse rushed for 286 yards against the Bulldogs last season.

LA Tech 27, Ole Miss 7

Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. - Walk-on running back Hunter Lee rushed for 127 yards and Louisiana Tech's defense recorded a pair of second half scores as the Bulldogs dominated Southeastern Conference foe Ole Miss 27-7 Saturday night at the Rebels homecoming game before 44,123 fans at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

With the victory, LA Tech (6-4, 4-1 WAC) becomes bowl eligible after recording its fifth straight win of the season. It also sets up a showdown next weekend in Reno against Nevada.

Tech, which posted its eighth win all-time against an SEC team and its first since defeating Mississippi State 22-14 in 2008, got another stellar defensive effort from a unit that has spearheaded the Bulldogs recent success.

In its usual opportunistic fashion, the Bulldogs defense came up big with the game still on the line. With Tech holding onto a 13-7 lead late in the third quarter, safety Chad Boyd picked up a fumble and raced 33-yards untouched to the end zone - taking the air out of the remaining Ole Miss fans and energizing the more than 3,000 Bulldog fans that made the road trip.

The fumble recovery for a score by Boyd was the first by a Tech player since Carlin Thomas returned a fumble for a TD in a 30-23 loss at Oklahoma State in 2001.

It didn't take long for Tech to put the final nail in the proverbial coffin as safety Javontay Crowe recorded his first career interception and raced 26 yards for a touchdown with 11:08 to play in the game. It was the fourth interception return for a touchdown of the year for Tech, which ranks as the third most in the country behind only UL-Lafayette and Southern Miss.

Although the final score was lopsided, it could have been much worse.

In the opening half, Tech missed on numerous scoring opportunities. Ole Miss took an early 7-0 lead on a Randall Mackey 34-yard touchdown pass to Brandon Bolden with 8:53 to play in the opening quarter. It woke up the Bulldog defense which held the Rebels to only 51 more total yards the rest of the first half.

While the Bulldog defense dominated, the Tech offense misfired. Colby Cameron dropped two perfect downfield throws into the hands of receivers D.J. St. Julien and Myles White, but neither was able to make the would-be touchdown reception.

Junior kicker Matt Nelson also had his first half troubles, missing field goals of 40 and 35 yards. He would redeem himself hitting a 43-yarder at the end of the half and a 35-yarder early in the third quarter.

Even the Bulldog special teams misfired on a great fake punt call as punter Ryan Allen - earlier this week named a semifinalist for the Ray Guy Award - hit defensive end Matt Broha on a pass play picking up a first down inside of Ole Miss territory. However, Tech was flagged for a penalty and the play was negated forcing a Bulldog punt.

Cameron did finally make the play of the first half for Tech's offense as he eluded an Ole Miss defender in the backfield on a scramble on third down and lofted a perfectly thrown pass over four Rebel defenders into the back of the endzone for a 22-yard scoring strike to Taulib Ikharo with 3:32 to play in the first half.

It appeared as the teams would enter the halftime locker room tied after Ole Miss failed to move the football on its next possession passed midfield as the Rebels punting unit pinned Tech back on its 5-yard line with 35 seconds to play.

However, instead of kneeling on the ball to run out the clock, Lee took a handoff and raced 48 yards to the UM 47-yard line. A pair of Cameron completions - one of 13 yards to Quinton Patton and one of nine yards to Ikharo - set up Nelson for the 43-yard field goal and a 10-7 Tech advantage.

Lee recorded his impressive outing after starting tailback Lennon Creer left the game in the first quarter with an injury. Creer was questionable to return but the Tech coaching staff didn't need the bruising tailback as Lee carved up the Ole Miss defense on the ground.

Adrien Cole led Tech with 10 tackles while Christian Lacey, Matt Broha, Justin Ellis and IK Enemkpali each registered sacks. The Tech defense also recorded three takeaways and had eight pass breakups in the game.

LA Tech 24, Nevada 20

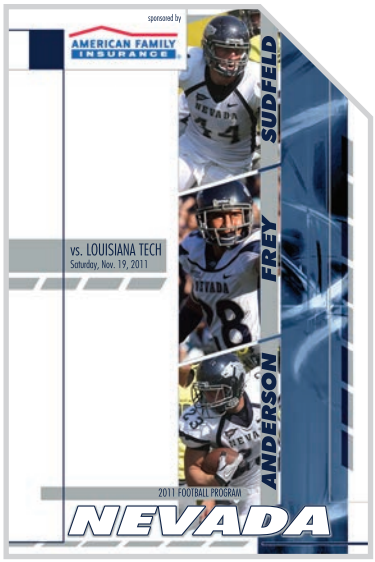
Mackay Stadium, Reno, Nev.

RENO, Nev. - Just when it looked like Nevada's stranglehold on Louisiana Tech would continue, the Bulldogs woke up.

Colby Cameron's eight-yard touchdown pass to Taulib Ikharo with 51 seconds to play completed an amazing fourth quarter come-from-behind victory as Louisiana Tech snapped a six-game losing streak against the Wolf Pack with a 24-20 win at Mackay Stadium Saturday afternoon.

"It was a big win for us," said Tech head coach Sonny Dykes. "The way it unfolded and how we got down and hung in there, it was not easy. It happened because our guys worked hard, invested and believed in each other. This was a heck of a comeback. We had opportunities early but we couldn't make plays. Once we started rolling and starting making plays, we got the momentum. Our players wanted to win so badly. I'm so proud of them for what they did today."



Stefphon Jefferson's four-yard touchdown run with 13:01 to play in the fourth quarter gave Nevada what appeared to be an insurmountable 20-3 advantage.

However, that's when the Bulldogs offense shifted gears. Cameron, who finished the game 25-of-45 for 355 yards and three touchdowns, orchestrated an 11-play, 69-yard drive that was capped by a nine-yard strike to Quinton Patton. Matt Nelson's extra point made it 20-10 with 9:11 to play.

After the Tech defense forced a three-and-out, the Bulldogs took over and marched 89 yards down the field in six plays as Cameron found Myles White for a 14-yard touchdown pass as the Bulldogs pulled to within 20-17 with 5:56 to play in the game. The drive was highlighted by a number of big plays including a 24-yard strike to Patton and a 27-yard run by Cameron.

"We were trying to get some sort of score quickly," Dykes said. "The faster, the better. For us to be able to score that fast meant we didn't have to onside kick. That was big. Our defense came out and made some big stops. We got the ball back with plenty of time and we made some big plays."

It was time for the LA Tech defense - which has made big play after big play this season - to make another one with an opportunity to win the WAC title on the line.

After surrendering one first down, Tech forced another Wolf Pack punt as the Bulldogs offense was pinned down on their own seven-yard line with 2:26 to play in the game.

Tech was faced with a third down and 12 from its own five-yard line when Cameron found Hunter Lee for a 23-yard pickup and a first down. Cameron then found Patton for 35 yards and Jaccari Jackson for 25 yards as the Bulldogs had first and 10 on the Wolf Pack 11-yard line.

After a three-yard pickup by Lee on first down, Cameron found Taulib Ikharo on a fade route for an eight-yard touchdown pass as the Bulldogs took their first lead of the game.

"To drive 93 yards for the game winner ... that was awesome," Dykes said.

Nevada had one last opportunity starting on its own 21-yard line with 47 seconds to play. However, Adrien Cole - who ended the night with 17 tackles - sacked Cody Fajardo on the last play of the game to secure the win.

The victory was improbable after the Bulldogs managed only 161 yards of offense through the first three quarters of action while Nevada recorded 425 of its 465 total yards.

"We never got into a flow in the first half," Dykes said. "We are an offense where when we make a first down, the second one is easier and then the third one is easier. In the first half we never made one. We misfired on everything. Once we got the momentum and made some plays, good things started happening.

"I talked (to the defense) the day before about not looking at the scoreboard. Just hang in there and expect something good to happen. And that's what happened. We will enjoy this (victory) until tomorrow and then all of our focus will be on New Mexico State. The more games you win, the bigger they become at the end of the day. Next week will be big."

LA Tech 44, New Mexico State 0

Joe Aillet Stadium, Ruston, La.

RUSTON, La. - It was a fitting end to a championship run.

Louisiana Tech's defense recorded its first shutout at home since the mid-1990s, the Bulldog offense used a balanced attack led by walk-on running back Hunter Lee and the special teams unit added a score of its own as Tech blanked New Mexico State 44-0 Saturday afternoon under rain-soaked conditions at Joe Aillet Stadium.

With the win, Tech (8-4, 6-1 WAC) won the Western Athletic Conference regular season title for the first time since 2001 and earned a trip to the San Diego Poinsettia Bowl on Dec. 21 to face either TCU or Boise State.

"It's good to get that last win and have a chance to look back at the whole thing now," said Tech head coach Sonny Dykes. "It's been a fun ride for this whole football team and it's been great for everybody associated with this program. Surely, it feels great to win a championship and when we started camp, we knew we had the personnel to do so. We started off the season kind of rough, and everybody hung in there. It speaks about the character of our team as a whole because losing is a difficult thing to do."

Heading into the day tied with Nevada in the league standings, Tech's lopsided win parlayed with the Wolf Pack's 21-17 loss at Utah State gave the Bulldogs the outright league championship belt.

Following the final gun, WAC Commissioner Karl Benson presented the championship trophy to the team while Poinsettia Bowl Chairman Bruce Binkowsky extended the invite to the postseason game in San Diego.

Tech started the scoring on its first possession as Tech drove 77 yards in 12 plays and took a 3-0 advantage on a Matt Nelson 32-yard field goal at the 9:15 mark of the first quarter. The big play of the drive was a 35-yard completion from Colby Cameron to wide receiver Taulib Ikharo.

After the Bulldogs defense forced a punt, Cameron directed LA Tech's first touchdown drive of the game as this one covered 89 yards on 10 plays. The drive started with a 42-yard completion to Quinton Patton and culminated with a six-yard strike to Ikharo. Nelson extra point was no good as Tech led 9-0.

The game stayed tight until late into the second quarter when Tech scored a pair of touchdowns in the final 30 seconds of the half. The first game on a Hunter one-yard plunge with only 28 seconds remaining in the second quarter, culminating an impressive 13-play, 96-yard drive - the longest of the season for Tech. Cameron gained 44 yards rushing on the drive, including a 24-yard scamper that put the Bulldogs in the red zone.

Trailing 16-0 New Mexico State opted to take a chance late, and the decision backfired. Freshman quarterback Travaughn Colwell was intercepted by Bulldog linebacker Adrien Cole who returned it 45 yards for a touchdown as Tech took a 23-0 lead into the locker room.

"It was critical because it all changed over a one minute span," Dykes said. "It was 9-0 and a minute later it was 23-0. That was the key for us. We put together a nice drive to score and then returned an interception to score again. That's something we've done all season. Our defense has done an excellent job at creating turnovers and then making big plays out of those turnovers."

The interception return for a TD was the Bulldogs sixth on the season.

"Defensively, they kept us in it early in the game when they were up 9-0," said NMSU coach Dwayne Walker. "I take full responsibility for the interception right before halftime because I told them to take a shot at the end zone and just see what we can get out of it. I wanted to at least get into field goal range and he (Adrien Cole) went and returned the interception for a touchdown. That's when it all went downhill for us."

Any change of an Aggie comeback was doused in the third quarter as Lee touchdown runs of six- and seven-yards bookended an 82-yard punt return for a touchdown by Craig Johnson as Tech took a commanding 44-0 lead into the final period.

Lee rushed for a career-high 148 yards and three touchdowns while Cameron passed for 217 yards and one score, including eight receptions for 105 yards and one touchdown to Ikharo.

Cole led a tenacious Bulldog defense, recording 12 tackles.

Tech's defense held an Aggies team that had entered the game averaging over 27 points per game to zero as New Mexico State totaled 279 yards and the Bulldogs defense registered seven sacks.

The victory was the seventh straight for the Bulldogs, the longest winning streak since the early 1970s and the eight regular season wins is the most since the 1999 Tim Rattay-led Bulldogs went 8-3 in 1999.

The Bulldogs bowl bid is the first since 2008 when Tech defeated Northern Illinois 17-10 in the Independence Bowl.

#15 TCU 31, LA Tech 24

2011 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl

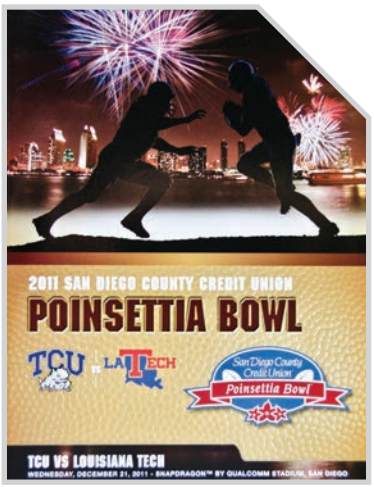
Qualcomm Stadium, San Diego, Calif.

SAN DIEGO - Fifteenth-ranked TCU scored two fourth quarter touchdowns to complete a 31-24 come-from-behind victory over Louisiana Tech in the 2011 San Diego Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl Wednesday night at Qualcomm Stadium.

With Tech (8-5) leading 24-17 midway through the fourth quarter, TCU running back Luke Shivers completed an impressive 18-play, 72-yard drive with a one-yard plunge with 7:49 to play to tie the game at 24-24.

After a three-and-out by the Bulldog offense on its ensuing possession, TCU (11-2) took the lead on a 42-yard strike from Casey Pachall to Skye Dawson with 4:26 to play. The touchdown came on a third-down-and-five play where TCU caught the Bulldogs blitzing and the speedster Dawson beat the LA Tech secondary for the score.



Quarterback Colby Cameron and the Bulldog offense had one final opportunity but another three-and-out - the third of the second half - forced a Tech punt and TCU ran out the clock by grinding out two first downs via the ground.

The Bulldogs had the momentum in the opening two quarters as Matt Nelson's 23-yard field goal with 8:30 to play in the first quarter gave Tech a 3-0 lead. The score capped a 13-play, 65-yard drive by Tech which was highlighted by a 28-yard pass from Cameron to Quinton Patton that took the Bulldogs down to the TCU 12-yard line.

However, Tech was unable to get into the endzone on six plays inside the TCU red zone, forcing the field goal attempt.

Following a Hunter Lee fumble inside the TCU 35-yard line late in the first quarter, the Horned Frogs drove deep inside Tech territory and tied the game on a Ross Evans 25-yard field goal with 14:11 to play in the second quarter.

Tech countered immediately with a seven-play, 59-yard drive that was capped by Cameron's two-yard strike to Patton - a play that was initially ruled as an incompletion but that was overturned after instant replay. Nelson's extra point made it 10-3. The drive was highlighted by a 26-yard toss from Cameron to Taulib Ikharo that took the ball down to the TCU four-yard line.

The Bulldogs appeared to have all the momentum heading into half until TCU corner Greg McCoy intercepted a Cameron pass with just over two minutes to play and returned it to the LA Tech 25-yard line. Four plays later, Ed Wesley tied the game on a seven-yard run with only 55 seconds to play in the half.

The two teams entered the locker room tied despite the fact Tech ran 21 more offensive plays than the Horned Frogs and outgained TCU 266-144.

TCU took its first lead of the contest on their opening drive of the second half as Matthew Tucker scored from one-yard out, ending an 11-play, 55-yard drive.

Trailing 17-10, Tech was forced to punt on its next possession but the Bulldogs special teams came up big as Josh Cuthbert recovered a muffed punt by Brandon Carter inside the TCU red zone. Three plays later, Lee hit paydirt from two yards out and the game was tied again at 17-17.

After neither team was able to move the ball on their next possessions, the Bulldog defense came up with a turnover as Quinn Giles intercepted Paschall on the Tech 39-yard line. On a third-down-and 10 play, Cameron found Myles White deep over the middle for a 61-yard touchdown. Nelson's extra point was good as Tech regained the advantage 24-17.

TCU then put together the drive of the night, marching 72 yards on 18 plays and tying the game at 24 on a one-yard run by Shivers. The Horned Frogs recorded six first downs on the drive, converting two fourth down conversions and picking up a huge first down on a defensive pass interference call in the end zone on a third-down-and-goal at the nine.

The Horned Frogs dominated the time of possession in the second half, holding onto the football for 24 minutes and 10 seconds while running 52 offensive plays to LA Tech's 21.

Cameron finished the game completing 21-of-43 passes for 264 yards and two touchdowns with one interception while White (7-110, 1 TD) and Patton (5-67, 1 TD) were his top two targets. Lee rushed 20 times for 64 yards and one score.

Defensively, the Bulldogs were led by Jay Dudley (10 tackles, 1 TFL), Justin Goodman (9 tackles, 1.5 TFL) and Jamel Johnson (9 tackles).

Tech ends the season 8-5, the most wins by a Tech team since 1999. The Bulldogs also won their second Western Athletic Conference championship and participated in their second bowl game in the last four years.

JOE AILLET

One of the main building blocks of success for a football program is stability in the coaching staff, and for 40 years, Louisiana Tech had not only stability but incredible talent.

Joe Aillet remains the winningest football coach in Louisiana Tech history and was one of the most respected in the country during his 26-year coaching career with the Bulldogs. Aillet produced a record of 152-86-8 and won or shared 12 conference championships between 1940 and 1966. He served as Tech's athletic director for an additional four years.

A member of several national coaching halls of fame, Aillet was instrumental in forming the Louisiana High School Coaches Association in the 1930s and the Gulf States Conference in 1948.

Maxie Lambright replaced Aillet in 1967 and remained at Tech through 1978, producing a "Golden Era" of Bulldog football which included seven conference titles, three national championship seasons and two Division I bowl games. He produced 11 All-Americans and sent a dozen Bulldogs into the pros.

He also built the nation's longest college football winning streak at 23 games during 1973 and 1974.

MAXIE LAMBRIGHT

Another building block at Louisiana Tech was Maxie Lambright. Lambright coached the 1972 Bulldogs to a 12-0 record as Louisiana Tech won the National Football Foundation national title with a 35-0 win over Tennessee Tech in the Grantland Rice Bowl. The following season, Lambright's Bulldogs claimed the Division II national title defeating Western Kentucky 34-0 in the championship game.

During his 12 years on the Tech sideline, Lambright amassed a mark of 95-36-2 while winning seven conference titles.

BULLDOG HISTORY

The names ring like a Who's Who in the National Football League: Terry Bradshaw, Pat Tilley, Roger Carr, Mike Barber, Fred Dean, Matt Stover, Willie Roaf, Doug Evans, Tim Rattay and Troy Edwards.

They are just a few of the many great players who have donned a Louisiana Tech Bulldog uniform over the past century, and their accomplishments at Tech are even more impressive.

Starting with its very first game in 1901, Louisiana Tech has become a household name in collegiate football circles.

And over the years Louisiana Tech has produced numerous conference titles, numerous all-American honors, numerous professional players and two national championship titles.

This year's players and coaches should only add to an already impressive resume.

Although so much emphasis is placed on the present, with 108 seasons of Tech football in the record books, it's important to remember so many great moments, so many great players and so many great coaches that have already made Tech's history on the gridiron successful.

From the very first team to last season's squad, Tech football can be described with three words: TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE.

1901: First Recorded Intercollegiate Football Game

Louisiana Tech intercollegiate football history began with that 1901 season, as Edwin Barber — the first athletic coach employed by the young university — led the Bulldogs on the playing field.

And although records of some of the first years in Tech history are incomplete, Barber's team lost the only two games for which results do exist, falling to Louisiana State 57-0 and Arkansas 16-0. However, the Tech tradition had begun.

The November 1902 Industrialist, the first student publication at Tech, reported that Coach Frank Singleton led the second team to "a fairly successful season," although the record of that Bulldog squad is not known.

1904: First Recorded Intercollegiate Football Win

Coach E.G. Pierce led the 1904 Bulldogs to the first recorded win in school history with a 6-0 victory against Louisiana State during a 1-3 season. The game not only marked the inaugural win in Tech history, but also the first shutout.

Tech's first winning season was posted in 1906 as Z.T. Young led the Bulldogs to a 2-1-3 record with wins over Ouachita Baptist and the Ruston Athletic Club.

The following season, Coach George Watkins and the Bulldogs registered a 9-1 mark, which is still the most wins by a first-year head coach in Tech history. During that season, Tech outscored its opponents 248-37, with the lone setback coming against Louisiana State.

It is not known where those first Bulldogs played their games, but beginning with the 1904 season, all Tech athletic events were held in an athletic park, with a grandstand, located next to Harper Hall and present-day Howard Auditorium.

Coaches: Percy Prince (1910-1915); A. Flack (1916); V.S. Pugh (1917); Percy Prince (1918-1919)
Conference Affiliation (Years)/Titles: N/A

1910: First perfect season (7-0)

During this decade of Bulldog football, Prince coached Tech for seven seasons, including the school's first perfect year in 1910 with a record of 7-0. Prince was the first coach at Tech to coach for multiple seasons, finishing his career with a record of 24-16-5.

His 1911 and 1915 teams also posted winning records, recording marks of 4-2-1 and 3-1-2, respectively.

1916: First Recorded Game at Independence Stadium

In 1916, Coach A. Flack took over for Prince, but the Bulldogs struggled, going 2-4 with wins over Ouachita and Northwestern State. V.S. Pugh took over the coaching duties in 1917 and led Tech to a 2-3 season.

However, Prince came back and coached Tech for one last season in 1919 as Tech lost to Henderson State and Northwestern State in the only two recorded games.

Coaches: R.F. Clark (1920-1921); William Dietz (1922-1923); Phillip Arbuckle (1924); R.C. Kenney (1925); Hugh Wilson (1926-1927); F.A. Rockwell (1928-1929)
Conference Affiliation (Years)/Titles: Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association (1925-1929)/None

Six different coaches led the Bulldogs of the 1920s as Tech posted a winning mark of 38-34-8 during the decade.

Coach R.F. Clark helped start the 1920s right for Tech fans as his two Bulldog teams registered winning records of 5-1 and 6-0 in1920 and 1921. After Clark's 1920 team lost the first game of the season 12-0 to Northwestern State, he proceeded to win 11 consecutive contests over the span of the next two years.

William Dietz picked up where Clark left off in 1922 and 1923 as the Dietz-led Bulldogs posted records of 5-1-1 and 6-2, including a 100-0 win over Clark College in 1922 and a 66-7 victory over Northwestern State in 1923.

After struggling through a 1-6-1 season in 1924 under Coach Phillip Arbuckle, Tech began its first athletic affiliation, becoming a member of the multi-state Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association in 1925 under Coach R.C. Kenney.

Hugh Wilson coached the Bulldogs to a 5-2-2 record in 1926 and a 3-5 mark in 1927, a year that was highlighted by a game played against Mississippi College at Forsythe Park, the first intercollegiate football game played in Monroe.

1928: New Football Field Built

Then, in the fall of 1928, a new Tech athletic field was built immediately adjoining the men's gymnasium on the current site of A.E. Phillips Laboratory School. The field was dedicated on Homecoming day Nov. 5, before the game with UL-Lafayette (UL-Lafayette won 45-6).

Coaches: George Bohler (1930-1933); L.P McLane (1934-1938); Ray Davis (1939)
Conference Affiliation (Years)/Titles: Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association (1930-1938)/None; Louisiana IntercollegiateConference (1939)/None

The nickname Bulldogs and school colors of red and blue were decided upon sometime during the early years of the university. However, T.J. "Cotton" and Henry Matthews, two Tech freshman brothers from Bossier City, donated Tech's first live bulldog in 1930.

On the playing field, Coach George Bohler led Tech into the 1930s as the Bulldogs posted a 3-6 season in 1930 before rebounding to record the school's third perfect season at 7-0 in 1931.

1935: 5,000 Seat Football Stadium Built

In 1934, according to The Tech Talk, the Louisiana Legislature appropriated $25,000 for a concrete stadium to be built beginning in January 1935. The stadium seated 3,000, and wooden bleachers holding an additional 2,000 were built on the east side of the field.

Again, Tech — under the guidance of Coach L.P. McLane — and UL-Lafayette dedicated the facility as Tech won the game 25-0 on its way to an 8-1 season. It also marked the first night game played at Louisiana Tech.

1937: Johnny Wyss Named Tech's First All-American

The 1937 season brought two more firsts for Louisiana Tech football as the school's first sellout came Sept. 17, 1937, in the season opener against Oklahoma City. Following a 6-3-2 season, Bulldog guard Johnny Wyss was named Tech's first All-American.

The 1939 season brought with it a new coach and a new conference as Ray Davis took over the Bulldog coaching duties, guiding Tech to a 5-6 mark in the school's first year as a member of the Louisiana Intercollegiate Conference.

1940: Joe Aillet Era Begins

It is no coincidence that the first 10 years of Joe Aillet's tenure as football coach at Tech was one of the winningest decades percentage-wise in Bulldog history.

1948: Tech joins Gulf States Conference; Gulf State Championship

Aillet, who is still the school's winningest coach with 152 wins, took over in 1940 and promptly led the Bulldogs to four conference titles during the decade, three as a member of the Louisiana Collegiate Conference and one as a member of the Gulf States Conference which Tech joined in 1948.

Aillet, who was instrumental in forming the GSC, was the first president of the league.

Tech also posted eight winning seasons during the nine years of football in the '40s (football was discontinued during 1943).

Aillet, who is a member of the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame as well as being a charter member of the Tech Athletic Hall of Fame, led Tech to a 6-4 record in 1940 before guiding the Bulldogs to the school's first conference title in 1941 with a mark of 5-4-1.

Tech also won the LCC title in 1945 (6-4) and 1947 (5-4), while capturing the GSC title in 1948 (7-2-1) and 1949 (7-2).

A number of All-Americans led the Bulldogs during the 1940s, including the likes of Jimmy Harrison (1949), Garland Gregory (1941), Mike Reed (1946, 1947) and Ed Stassi (1948).

Amazingly, Joe Aillet's second decade as the Bulldogs' head coach was more successful as his teams won an incredible 70 percent of their games during the 1950s while claiming six Gulf States Conference titles.

Tech registered 10 winning seasons during the 1950s, never losing more than four games in a year. Tech captured its first GSC title of the decade during 1952, when the Bulldogs went 6-1-2, including wins over Florida State and Memphis State.

Aillet also led Tech to Gulf States titles in 1953 (6-3), 1955 (9-1), 1957 (6-4), 1958 (7-3) and 1959 (9-1).

During the era, Tech had 33 players earn All-Gulf States Conference honors including the family foursome of Tommy (three times), Pat (twice), Bobby and Joe Hinton (twice).

Record: 57-38 (.600)
Coaches: Joe Aillet (1960-1966)' Maxie Lambright (1967-1969)
Conference Affiliation (Years)/Titles: Gulf States Conference(1960-1969)/ 1960, 1964, 1969

The 1960s saw plenty of change for Louisiana Tech late in the decade.

However, early on it was the same old winning ways for Joe Aillet and his Bulldogs as Tech opened the era with yet another Gulf States Conference title and an 8-2 record.

After recording marks of 5-4, 4-4 and 6-3 over the next three seasons, the Bulldogs captured another GSC title in 1964 with a 9-1 record. A 14-7 loss at the hands of Southern Mississippi kept the Bulldogs from obtaining the perfect record.

Following another 4-4 season in 1965, the change began. Aillet's 1966 squad, his last at Tech, fell to 1-9, breaking a streak of 21 consecutive years of non-losing seasons under the Tech legend. Aillet's 26-year tenure as the Bulldogs head coach was over after 152 wins and 12 conference titles.

1966: Maxie Lambright Era Begins

The following season, Tech hired Maxie Lambright to take over the duties and after posting a 3-7 record in his first season, the Bulldogs resumed their winning ways in 1968 with a 9-2 record, thanks in large part to a young quarterback named Terry Bradshaw.

1968: First Game played in Joe Aillet Stadium

During the 1968 season, the Bulldogs also moved into a new home, the 23,000-seat present-day facility named Tech Stadium, which was renamed Joe Aillet Stadium on Nov. 11, 1972, in memory of the Tech coach who had passed away the previous year.

Lambright, Bradshaw and the Bulldogs ended the decade claiming the 1969 Gulf States Conference title with an 8-2 mark, the school's last GSC championship.

Forty-eight Bulldogs earned All-Gulf States Conference honors during the 1960s, while Bradshaw, Tom Causey, Jerry Griffin, Joe Hinton, John Williamson, and Mickey Slaughter all earned All-American honors.

1969: Grantland Rice Bowl Appearance

Bradshaw was selected as the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL draft following his 1969 senior year.

Record: 78-33-2 (.690)

It could easily be said that the 1970s was the premier decade in the long history of Louisiana Tech football.

1971: Pioneer Bowl Appearance

After opening the era with a 2-8 mark in 1970, Lambright guided the Bulldogs to a 9-2 record and a conference title in 1971, Tech's first season as a member of the newly formed Southland Conference. However, that was just the beginning.

1972: Grantland Rice Bowl Appearance

The next three seasons are considered the greatest three-year stretch in Tech football history. Lambright led the 1972 team to a perfect 12-0 record, and the Bulldogs defeated Tennessee Tech 35-0 in the Grantland Rice Bowl to claim Co-National Champion honors along with Delaware as chosen by the National Football Foundation.

1973: Camellia Bowl Appearance

The 1973 team would not be outdone, as Lambright and the Bulldogs finished the season 12-1 and defeated Western Kentucky 34-0 in the Division II National Championship game in Sacramento, Calif.

1974: Pioneer Bowl Appearance

Finally, the 1974 team made it three in a row by winning the United Press International College Division National Championship despite losing to Central Michigan, 35-14, in a Division II national semifinal game.

1977: Independence Bowl Appearance

The following season, Tech joined the Division I ranks for the first time, and two years later, the Bulldogs played in their first bowl game, defeating highly favored Louisville, 24-14, in the Independence Bowl in Shreveport.

1978: Independence Bowl Appearance

Tech made a return trip to the Independence Bowl in 1978 but was defeated by East Carolina, 35-13. The loss marked the end of another era at Tech, as Maxie Lambright retired from his 12-year coaching career with a 95-36-2 record, trailing only Aillet in number of victories as Tech football coach.

Larry Beightol was hired in 1979 and led Tech to a 3-8 record in his only season as the Bulldogs' head coach.

With the success Tech had during the 1970s, it is no wonder the Bulldogs had 66 players earn all-conference accolades, while the likes of Ron Alexander, Larry Anderson, Mike Barber, Roger Carr, Fred Dean, Ken Lantrip, Ardis McCann, Charles McDaniel, Joe McNeely, Chris Richardson and Billy Ryckman earned All-American honors.

Coaches: Billy Brewer (1980-1982): A.L. Williams (1983-1986): Carl Torbush (1987); Joe Raymond Peace (1988-1989)
Conference Affiliation (Years)/Titles: Southland (1980-1986)/1982, 1984

The 1980s proved to be a turning point for Louisiana Tech football as the university made the decision to move up to Division I-A status starting in 1989.

However, the '80s started slowly with two straight losing seasons under new head coach Billy Brewer (5-6 in 1980 and 4-6-1 in 1981). However, Brewer's third and last season was much more successful as the Bulldogs posted a 10-3 record and won the Southland Conference title in 1982, after being reclassified into Division I-AA.

The Bulldogs, led by quarterback Matt Dunigan, won their first-round playoff game before falling to Delaware 17-0 on a rainsoaked afternoon at Joe Aillet Stadium.

A.L. Williams took over the coaching reins in 1983 and after a sub-par first year (4-7), Williams guided Tech to the Division I-AA National Championship game in 1984.

After winning the Southland Conference title, Tech defeated Mississippi Valley State and Jerry Rice, No. 1 Alcorn State and Middle Tennessee before losing to Montana State 19-6 in Charleston, S.C., in the national championship game.

1987: Tech begins its move to I-A

Tech played in the Southland Conference for the final time during the 1986 season as university President F. Jay Taylor's goal was to leave what he called "mandated mediocrity" — Division I-AA. The Bulldogs competed as a Division I-AA independent in 1987 and 1988 during the "Movin' Up" campaign.

During those two seasons, the Bulldogs fought an uphill battle, playing road games against the likes of Baylor, Mississippi State, Texas A&M, Houston, Wyoming, Kansas State, Southern Mississippi and Florida State in an effort to meet Division I-A scheduling requirements.

Another 6,000 seats were added to Joe Aillet Stadium as part of meeting those same requirements to move up to the next level.

1989: Tech gains I-A status

Finally on Jan. 20, 1989, the call came from the NCAA, and at the football banquet that evening, the official acceptance into Division I-A football was announced by Tech President Dan Reneau. Tech officially began competing in the NCAA's highest classification with the 1989 season opener at UL-Lafayette, a contest the Bulldogs won 40-14 on their way to a 5-4-1 record.

On Oct. 4, 1989, the Spirit of 1988, a bronze Bulldog statue guarding the south entrance to Aillet Stadium, was unveiled to commemorate head coach Joe Raymond Peace's Tech team of 1988, which endured the brutal schedule in order to meet Division I-A scheduling requirements.

Thirty-one Bulldogs earned All-Southland Conference honors during the 1980s, while three Bulldogs earned All-Independent honors in 1989. Matt Dunigan, Walter Johnson, Doug "Tank" Landry and Glenell Sanders were named All-Americans during the decade.

1990: Independence Bowl Appearance

Louisiana Tech football opened and closed the 1990s with a bang as the 1990 Bulldog team earned an Independence Bowl berth while the 1999 team earned the school's first ever Associated Press Top 25 ranking.

The 1990s also proved to be the decade for quarterbacks at Tech as the program produced two of the top signal callers in Bulldog history in Jason Martin and Tim Rattay.

Coach Joe Raymond Peace led the 1990 Bulldogs, in only the school's second year as Division I-A Independent, to an 8-3 record during the regular season and an invitation to the Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La. The Bulldogs tied Maryland 34-34 in front of over 48,000 fans in one of the most exciting bowl games of the year.

1993: Tech joins Big West Conference

The following season, the Peace-led Bulldogs dropped the opening game and then proceeded to win eight and tie two the rest of the year. After a 5-6 season in 1992, Tech joined the Big West Conference in an effort to help scheduling and secure a bowl tie.

However, the Bulldogs' three seasons in the conference never yielded much success as Peace's squads compiled a 10-23 mark from 1993-1995.

The 1996 season saw a number of changes and much more success as Tech once again joined the ranks of Division I-A Independents and offensive coordinator Gary Crowton was hired as head coach.

Crowton, who was known for his great offensive mind and wide-open passing attack, molded quarterbacks Jason Martin and Tim Rattay into two of the nation's total offense leaders.

In 1996, Crowton guided Tech to a 6-5 season, including a 38-23 win at Southeastern Conference foe Mississippi State, while Martin had 3,360 yards and 32 touchdowns. It was just a sign of things to come.

The following season, Tech posted a 9-2 mark with wins at Alabama and against California, while sophomore quarterback Tim Rattay led the nation in total offense, passing for 3,881 yards and 34 touchdowns.

Rattay shattered his Tech records the following season, passing for 4,943 yards and 46 scores while leading the Bulldogs to a 6-6 record. Rattay's main target was wide receiver Troy Edwards, who caught 140 passes for 1,996 yards and 27 touchdowns, the latter two marks setting new NCAA records.

In a nationally televised game against defending National Champion Nebraska to open the season, Rattay and Edwards showed a preview of what Tech fans had to look forward to as Rattay passed for a school record 590 yards, while Edwards snared 21 passes for 405 yards, a new NCAA single game record.

After Crowton departed to the NFL's Chicago Bears in 1999, Tech Athletics Director Jim Oakes hired Jack Bicknell III as the 30th head coach in school history.

Bicknell led Tech to an 8-3 season, a 29-28 upset victory over eventual Southeastern Conference champion Alabama and the school's first Associated Press Top 25 ranking. Rattay finished his career ranked No. 2 in NCAA history in career passing yards, total offense and touchdown passes.

The 1999 season was made even more successful with an October announcement that the university would be making an allsports move to the Western Athletic Conference in the fall of 2001.

During the decade of the '90s, 54 Bulldog players earned all-conference honors, while Josh Bradley, Edwards, Marty Kent, Rattay, William Roaf, Bobby Slaughter and Willie Smith were named All-Americans.

Louisiana Tech finished its last season as a Division I-A Independent in 2000 with a 3-9 record. During the season, the Bulldogs played perennial powers such as Kansas State, Penn State, Auburn and Miami. Despite playing a difficult schedule, the Bulldogs were still one of the top offensive teams in the country, finishing 7th in the nation for passing offense.

2001: Tech joins Western Athletic Conference; Humanitarian Bowl Appearance

The Bulldogs made a splash in their new conference by going 7-1 in league play and claiming the 2001 WAC Championship. Louisiana Tech overcame an early conference loss to win its last six conference games to take the WAC title.

The championship earned the Bulldogs a berth in the 2001 Humanitarian Bowl, the school's first bowl appearance since the 1990 Independence Bowl. Despite a 49-24 loss to Clemson in the Humanitarian Bowl, the season was still a success and proved that Louisiana Tech would be a foe to be reckoned with in the Western Athletic Conference.

Tech began the 2002 season by defeating eventual Houston Bowl participant and Big 12 foe Oklahoma State to open the season in a thrilling last minute 39-36 contest. However, Tech's early non-conference schedule proved brutal with road losses to Clemson, No. 15 Penn State and No. 24 Texas A&M.

For the seventh straight season the Bulldogs ranked in the nation's top 10 in passing offense while senior running back Joe Smith earned first team All-WAC honors, becoming the first Tech player since 1994 to rush for over 1,000 yards.

The 2003 season started with a nationally televised home contest against defending national champion Miami at Independence Stadium in Shreveport as a Bulldog home record crowd of 43,279 witnessed the historic event.

And although the 2003 season didn't go as planned with Tech finishing 5-7, the Bulldogs did have plenty of bright moments topped by Tech's 20-19 come-from-behind road win over Michigan State, a team that went on to earn a Top 25 ranking and eventually earned a spot in the Alamo Bowl against Nebraska.

Individual highlights included senior kicker Josh Scobee becoming Louisiana Tech's second all-time scoring leader with 339 points. Senior quarterback Luke McCown finished his career ranked in the top 5 in NCAA Division I history in passing yards and total offense.

2004: Tech faces Top 25 schedule; Pulls upset over Fresno State

Tough wouldn't describe Louisiana Tech's schedule in 2004 as the Bulldogs played seven games against eventual bowl-bound teams and six games against teams ranked in the Top 25 at one point of the season.

And although Tech's 6-6 record fell one game short of being bowl eligible, it was still an accomplishment.

The biggest moment of 2004 came in Tech's 28-21 win over No.

17 ranked Fresno State Oct. 2 at Joe Aillet Stadium. Running back Ryan Moats rushed for 236 yards and four scores and the Tech defense intercepted two passes late in the game to seal the victory.

Moats shattered the school record with 1,774 yards rushing and 18 touchdowns before declaring himself eligible for the 2005 NFL Draft (third round, Philadelphia Eagles).

2008: Bulldogs Claim Independence Bowl Championship Title

Louisiana Tech opened its season with a visit from Southeastern Conference foe Mississippi State, the first SEC team to ever come to Joe Aillet Stadium. And after the Mississippi-based Bulldogs left after a 22-14 LA Tech win, they might be the last for a while. The win marked the first win over an SEC team since 1999 when Tech topped eventual SEC champion Alabama 29-28 in Birmingham, Alabama.

The Bulldogs continued their winning ways throughout the season, going 7-5 in the regular season and 5-3 in the WAC which was good enough for a second place finish. Included in the seven regular season wins was a 21-0 shutout victory at San Jose State, the first shutout by a Tech team since 1996 and the first road shutout since 1988.

Tech earned its first invite to a bowl game since 2001 as the Bulldogs received an invitation to play in the Independence Bowl against Northern Illinois.

Tech would capture the 2008 Independence Bowl title by virtue of a 17-10 victory over the Huskies, highlighted by a 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Phillip Livas. The Bowl victory was the first bowl win for the Bulldogs since they won the 1977 Independence Bowl.

Running back Daniel Porter became the eighth Louisiana Tech running back to ever rush for over 1,000 yards in a season as he rushed for 1,164 yards and nine touchdowns in 2008. Tech also placed a program record seven players on the All- WAC team, led by first team members in Porter, Livas, defensive tackle D'Anthony Smith and safety Antonio Baker.

In 2009 Porter continued to showcase his rushing talents, becoming the school's all-time leading rusher with 3,352 rushing yards to his credit while Dennis Morris earned all-America honors and was named the College Football Performance Awards' National Tight End of the Year after leading the country in touchdown receptions among tight ends.

2010-Present

Coaches: Sonny Dykes (2010-Present)
Conference Affiliation (Years)/Titles: Division I-A Western Athletic Conference (2010-Present)/One (2011)

Louisiana Tech began the Sonny Dykes era with high hopes for a high octane offense. The engine finally shifted gears midway through Dykes first season with a high offensive output in six of the team's last seven games, including 683 total offensive yards against Idaho, then the fourth-most in school history.

The 2011 season had an ominous 1-4 start (losing the season opener in the midst of Tropical Storm Lee in Hattiesburg) but the team rallied off seven-consecutive wins – the most since 1974 – and finished the year winning the WAC title. Tech came within a possession of upsetting No. 15 TCU in the Poinsettia Bowl game to close the season. Sonny Dykes was named the WAC Coach of the Year, Adrien Cole was named the WAC Defensive Player of the Year and was one of 11 All-WAC honorees and the Bulldogs stunned the country in the midst of its winning streak with a 27-7 throttling of Ole Miss.

#15 TCU 31, LA Tech 24

2011 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl

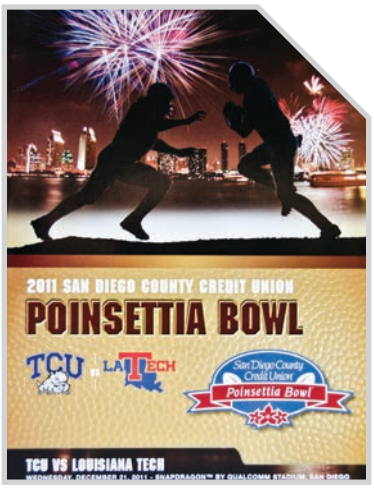
Qualcomm Stadium, San Diego, Calif.



SAN DIEGO - Fifteenth-ranked TCU scored two fourth quarter touchdowns to complete a 31-24 come-from-behind victory over Louisiana Tech in the 2011 San Diego Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl Wednesday night at Qualcomm Stadium.

With Tech (8-5) leading 24-17 midway through the fourth quarter, TCU running back Luke Shivers completed an impressive 18-play, 72-yard drive with a one-yard plunge with 7:49 to play to tie the game at 24-24.

After a three-and-out by the Bulldog offense on its ensuing possession, TCU (11-2) took the lead on a 42-yard strike from Casey Pachall to Skye Dawson with 4:26 to play. The touchdown came on a third-down-and-five play where TCU caught the Bulldogs blitzing and the speedster Dawson beat the LA Tech secondary for the score.

Quarterback Colby Cameron and the Bulldog offense had one final opportunity but another three-and-out - the third of the second half - forced a Tech punt and TCU ran out the clock by grinding out two first downs via the ground.

The Bulldogs had the momentum in the opening two quarters as Matt Nelson's 23-yard field goal with 8:30 to play in the first quarter gave Tech a 3-0 lead. The score capped a 13-play, 65-yard drive by Tech which was highlighted by a 28-yard pass from Cameron to Quinton Patton that took the Bulldogs down to the TCU 12-yard line.

However, Tech was unable to get into the endzone on six plays inside the TCU red zone, forcing the field goal attempt.

Following a Hunter Lee fumble inside the TCU 35-yard line late in the first quarter, the Horned Frogs drove deep inside Tech territory and tied the game on a Ross Evans 25-yard field goal with 14:11 to play in the second quarter.

Tech countered immediately with a seven-play, 59-yard drive that was capped by Cameron's two-yard strike to Patton - a play that was initially ruled as an incompletion but that was overturned after instant replay. Nelson's extra point made it 10-3. The drive was highlighted by a 26-yard toss from Cameron to Taulib Ikharo that took the ball down to the TCU four-yard line.

The Bulldogs appeared to have all the momentum heading into half until TCU corner Greg McCoy intercepted a Cameron pass with just over two minutes to play and returned it to the LA Tech 25-yard line. Four plays later, Ed Wesley tied the game on a seven-yard run with only 55 seconds to play in the half.

The two teams entered the locker room tied despite the fact Tech ran 21 more offensive plays than the Horned Frogs and outgained TCU 266-144.

TCU took its first lead of the contest on their opening drive of the second half as Matthew Tucker scored from one-yard out, ending an 11-play, 55-yard drive.

Trailing 17-10, Tech was forced to punt on its next possession but the Bulldogs special teams came up big as Josh Cuthbert recovered a muffed punt by Brandon Carter inside the TCU red zone. Three plays later, Lee hit paydirt from two yards out and the game was tied again at 17-17.

After neither team was able to move the ball on their next possessions, the Bulldog defense came up with a turnover as Quinn Giles intercepted Paschall on the Tech 39-yard line. On a third-down-and 10 play, Cameron found Myles White deep over the middle for a 61-yard touchdown. Nelson's extra point was good as Tech regained the advantage 24-17.

TCU then put together the drive of the night, marching 72 yards on 18 plays and tying the game at 24 on a one-yard run by Shivers. The Horned Frogs recorded six first downs on the drive, converting two fourth down conversions and picking up a huge first down on a defensive pass interference call in the end zone on a third-down-and-goal at the nine.

The Horned Frogs dominated the time of possession in the second half, holding onto the football for 24 minutes and 10 seconds while running 52 offensive plays to LA Tech's 21.

Cameron finished the game completing 21-of-43 passes for 264 yards and two touchdowns with one interception while White (7-110, 1 TD) and Patton (5-67, 1 TD) were his top two targets. Lee rushed 20 times for 64 yards and one score.

Defensively, the Bulldogs were led by Jay Dudley (10 tackles, 1 TFL), Justin Goodman (9 tackles, 1.5 TFL) and Jamel Johnson (9 tackles).

Tech ends the season 8-5, the most wins by a Tech team since 1999. The Bulldogs also won their second Western Athletic Conference championship and participated in their second bowl game in the last four years.

LA Tech 17, Northern Illinois 10

2008 Inependence Bowl
Independence Stadium, Shreveport, La.

It's no surprise that Louisiana Tech turned to its defense and special teams against Northern Illinois Sunday night at the 33rd Independence Bowl at Independence Stadium.

Those units were instrumental all season in leading head coach Derek Dooley and Co. to its first post-season appearance since 2001 and only its third since the program joined the Football Bowl Subdivision in 1989.

On Sunday night in Shreveport, once again, they came through leading Tech to a 17-10 win over the Huskies.

Phillip Livas, the offensive MVP of the game, got the game started for Tech with a 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the first quarter and then the Bulldogs defense stiffened the rest of the way.

After allowing a NIU touchdown on only its second possession, the Tech defensive unit limited the Huskies to three points over the final three quarters of play.

Senior defensive back Weldon Brown, playing before a home crowd – Brown prepped at Bossier High School – , earned defensive MVP honors after recording a career-high 14 tackles, one fumble recovery, one interception and a key pass breakup on a NIU fourth down play early in the game.

Northern Illinois jumped out to an early 7-0 lead on an 8-yard pass from Chandler Harnish to fullback Kyle Skarb with 1:56 to play in the first quarter. The play culminated an 11-play drive covering 69 yards in 1:56.

The lead was short-lived as "Saturday Night" Livas took the ensuing kickoff, ran straight up the middle before veering left towards the Bulldog sideline and raced 97 yards for a touchdown.

It was Livas' second career kickoff return for a touchdown and the sixth longest in Bulldog history. Livas, who also has two punt returns for scores this season, now has four returns for scores in his career, the second most trailing only Larry Anderson with five.

The kickoff return was the second longest in Indy Bowl history and the first since Duece McAllister returned one for Ole Miss against Texas Tech in 1998.

After a three-and-out by NIU on its next possession, the Bulldogs took a 14-7 lead on an 11-yard Daniel Porter touchdown run with 13:41 to play in the second quarter. The touchdown, which came on a draw play on second and goal, capped a 5-play, 42-yard drive over 2:04.

After another three-and-out by NIU, Tech appeared to have threatened again when senior Patrick Jackson took a handoff and raced over 50 yards inside the Huskies 10-yard line but a holding penalty negated the play.

After a failed third down attempt brought up a fourth down and seven, Tech attempted a fake punt but Quin Harris was tackled a foot short of the line to gain as NIU took over on the Tech 46-yard line.

The game remained 14-7 but the Bulldogs had a golden opportunity to take a bigger lead into the half when Weldon Brown recovered a fumbled punt return by the Huskies with only 36 seconds remaining in the half.

However, after three straight incompletions by Ross Jenkins, Brad Oestriecher had a 41-yard field goal attempt partially blocked by Jake Coffman as the Bulldogs entered the halftime locker room leading by a touchdown.

Oestriecher redeemed himself early in the third quarter as the Bulldogs marched 49 yards on eight plays and took a 17-7 lead on a 33-yard field goal at the 11:54 mark.

NIU answered on its ensuing possession as the Huskies drove 66 yards on 10 plays and connected on a 20-yard field goal by Mike Salerno. The big play for NIU during the drive was a third down completion from Harnish to Marcus Perez that covered 40 yards and gave the Huskies the ball on the Tech 8-yard line.

However, little did anyone know that would be the last of the scoring for either team.

Over the last five offensive possessions of the game for NIU, the Tech defense held the Huskies to only 103 yards and NIU ventured past midfield only once – the Bulldogs defense held on a fourth-down-and-five play on its own 46 yard line with less than two minutes to play.

The Bulldogs on the other hand had a couple of opportunities to add on to their total as Patrick Jackson fumbled inside the NIU 15-yard line after a 34-yard gain on a screen pass from Ross Jenkins midway through the fourth quarter.

Tech also failed to capitalize after Brown intercepted Harnish at the Huskies 37-yard line with 6:25 to play. The Bulldogs lost five yards on their three offensive plays and were forced to punt.

The eight wins is the most by a Bulldog team since the 1999 Tech squad posted an 8-3 mark and the bowl win was the first since the 1977 Independence Bowl.

Clemson 49, LA Tech 24

2001 Humanitarian Bowl
Bronco Stadium, Boise, Idaho

Four third-quarter touchdowns, including two Woody Dantzler scoring passes, were too much for Louisiana Tech to overcome, as the Clemson Tigers downed the Bulldogs 49-24 in the 2001 Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl before 23,472 fans at Bronco Stadium Dec. 31, 2001.

Trailing only 14-10 at the half, Tech failed to find an answer for Dantzler and company in the third quarter. Dantzler, who finished the afternoon completing 15 of 23 passes for 218 yards and four touchdowns, found running back Bernard Rambert for perhaps the game's biggest play early in the second half.

Leading 21-10, Rambert caught a short pass out of the backfield on third down, and after appearing to be stopped short, spun out of the arms of four Bulldog tacklers and raced 62 yards down the sideline to give Clemson a 28-10 advantage. The play seemed to take all of the life out of the Bulldogs.

A Rambert 21-yard touchdown scamper, followed by an Airese Currie 19-yard jaunt, increased the Tiger lead to 42-10 heading into the final stanza. The loss of All-WAC selections Bobby Gray and Jamie Nichols to first half injuries added to the Bulldogs' defensive difficulties.

After holding Clemson to only 14 points and 207 yards in the first half, the injury-riddled Bulldogs' defense allowed 35 points and 341 yards in the second stanza. Two Bulldog touchdowns in the fourth quarter, a 34-yard Luke McCown pass to Delwyn Daigre and a Joe Smith two-yard plunge, closed the gap to 49-24.

However, Clemson wasn't satisfied with the score. The Tigers drove down the field in the final three minutes and instead of running out the clock, attempted a pass into the end zone with under 30 seconds left before also attempting to run the ball in from the one-yard line on the game's final play.

Tech took an early 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a Josh Scobee 29-yard field goal on the Bulldogs' first possession. Clemson scored the game's first touchdown when Dantzler found tight end Mike Bailey from 10 yards out for a 7-3 lead with 5:48 remaining in the first quarter.

The Bulldogs retook the lead at 10-7 when McCown raced in from 11 yards away midway through the second quarter. However, a 15-yard penalty against Tech on the extra point allowed Clemson great field position on its next drive. Two plays later, Dantzler threw his second touchdown pass of the game and Clemson took a 14-10 advantage into the locker room.

One of the bright spots for Tech was the play of Daigre, who earned the most valuable player of the game award for the Bulldogs. Daigre caught 10 passes for 178 yards and one touchdown in his final game.

Despite the disappointing loss, the Bulldogs finished their season 7-5, including the program's first Western Athletic Conference title.

LA Tech 34, Maryland 34

1990 Independence Bowl
Independence Stadium, Shreveport, La.

SHREVEPORT, La. - An Independence Bowl record crowd of 48,325 showed up to see Louisiana Tech and Maryland battle to a 34-34 tie in one of the most exciting games of the bowl season.

Chris Boniol's 29-yard field goal as time expired gave the Bulldogs the tie.

Louisiana Tech, participating in its first bowl game since joining the Division I-A ranks prior to the 1989 season, fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter as Maryland running back Troy Jackson scored on a one-yard run and a two-yard run.

However, the Bulldogs would not let the predominantly Louisiana Tech crowd down as they fought back to tie the game at 14-14 at the half. Tech's first touchdown came with 8:30 remaining in the second quarter on a five-yard Michael Richardson run, and Boniol's extra point made the score 14-7 Terps.

Head coach Joe Raymond Peace's team tied the game with only 0:17 remaining in the first half on a three-yard Jason Davis touchdown run as the two teams entered their respective locker rooms tied at 14.

Jackson scored his third touchdown of the game for Maryland, but the extra point failed as Tech led 21-20. The Bulldogs upped their advantage to 28-20 when Gene Johnson hooked up with Bobby Slaughter on a seven-yard scoring toss.

A Boniol field goal gave Tech a 31-20 lead. Maryland scored two fourth quarter touchdowns to pull ahead 34-31, the last coming with only 0:52 remaining on a 15-yard touchdown pass from Scott Zolak to Barry Johnson on a fourth down play.

Lorenzo Baker returned the ensuing kickoff 41 yards to the Terps 39-yard line setting up the final Boniol heroics.

Richardson (81 yards, two scores) and Davis (72 yards, one score) led Tech's ground attack, while Johnson and Sam Hughes combined to complete 11 of 17 passes for 115 yards and one score.

East Carolina 35, LA Tech 13

1978 Independence Bowl
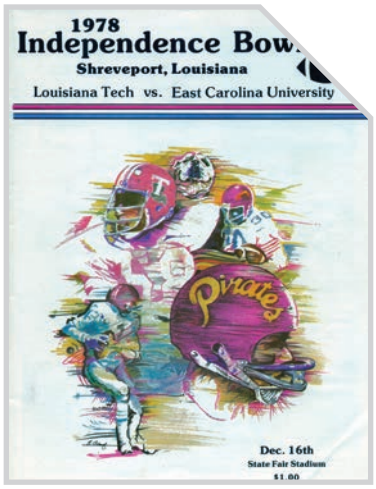
State Fair Stadium, Shreveport, La.



Tech's return trip to the Independence Bowl was quite different from the first as East Carolina defeated the Bulldogs 35-13. The Pirates forced four fumbles and intercepted Bulldogs quarterback Eric Barkley three times en route to the victory.

ECU took control of the game early, scoring twice in the first quarter. The Pirates pushed their lead to 21-0 on a touchdown run early in the second quarter. The Bulldogs answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown strike. Tech cut the lead to 21-10 with a 36-yard field goal less than a minute before the end of the half.

The second half was virtually all East Carolina.

Swilley booted another 36-yard field goal six minutes into the third quarter, but that was the end of the offensive night for the Bulldogs. Pirate running back Theodore Sutton raced 45 yards for a touchdown with just under seven minutes remaining in the quarter.

The Pirates sealed the victory with another touchdown late in the game. ECU rolled up 278 yards rushing on the night, while holding the Bulldogs to only 12 yards on the ground.

LA Tech 24, Louisville 14

1977 Independence Bowl
State Fair Stadium, Shreveport, La.

Tech used a high-powered passing attack and a stingy defense to defeat the favored University of Louisville, 24-14, in the school's first Division I bowl game appearance. Bulldog sophomore quarterback Keith Thibodeaux was named the game's most valuable player, completing 19 of 39 passes for 287 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

The Cardinals looked to take control of the game early when safety Kevin Miller returned a Bulldog punt 60 yards for the game's first touchdown less than two minutes into the contest.

However, that was the end of the road for Louisville as Thibodeaux proceeded to pick apart the Cardinal secondary. The Opelousas native drove the Bulldogs 68 yards to paydirt, tying the score. Running back Charlie Lewis capped the drive, punching it in from one yard out.

Later in the first quarter Thibodeaux hooked up with receiver George Pree for a 41-yard scoring strike to give the Bulldogs a 13-7 lead. Tech never looked back, pushing its lead to 21-7 late in the first when Thibodeaux connected with tight end Larry McCartney from eight yards out and Lewis added the two-point conversion.

Tech added a 21-yard Keith Swilley field goal in the second quarter. Louisville tried to climb back into the game in the third, scoring on a 13-yard run by Miller midway through the quarter.

However, that was all the Bulldogs would allow. Tech forced three fumbles, an interception and held the Cardinals to only 11 first downs. The Louisville offense could muster only 100 yards rushing and an astonishing 61 yards through the air.

POSTSEASON PLAY

1984 NCAA Division I-AA Championship

Montana State 19, Louisiana Tech 6
December 15, Charleston, S.C.

After an impressive run in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs, Louisiana Tech struggled in the 1984 National Championship game as Montana State defeated the Bulldogs 19-6.

After scoring 131 points in its three previous playoff wins to advance to the title game, the Bulldog offense sputtered all afternoon long in large part because of the stellar play of the Bobcats defense, which sacked Tech quarterback Kyle Gandy 11 times.

Montana State opened the game with a 33-yard Mark Carter field goal on its second possession after Gandy threw an interception deep in Bulldog territory.

Two possessions later, following a blocked punt by Montana State, the Bobcats scored the game's first touchdown as Kelly Bradley hit Joe Bignell for a 17-yard scoring strike. Carter's extra point was wide left, but Montana State still led 9-0.

Montana State's defense held Louisiana Tech without a first down in the opening 15 minutes of play while forcing two Bulldog turnovers.

The second quarter started better for the Bulldogs as Tech marched down to the Montana State 27-yard line before Gandy fumbled and the Bobcats recovered, ending the Tech scoring threat.

Montana State upped its advantage to 16-0 as it drove 80 yards, capped by a Bradley to Bignell 33-yard scoring strike. Carter added a 48-yard field goal right before the half as the Bobcats took a commanding 19-0 lead into the locker room.

After gaining only 62 total yards of offense in the first half, Tech had a little more success in the final two quarters of play. However, Gandy's 10-yard touchdown pass to Mike Sherman with only 0:48 remaining in the game was too little too late as Montana State won the 1984 Division I-AA National Championship.

Gandy finished the afternoon, completing 24 of 38 passes for 287 yards and the one score but was intercepted four times by the Bobcats defense.

Bradley posted stellar numbers for Montana State, completing 32 of 57 passes for 334 yards and two scores while Bignell registered 10 receptions for 130 yards and two touchdowns.

1984 NCAA Division I-AA Semifinal

Louisiana Tech 21, Middle Tenn. 13
December 8, Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Louisiana Tech running back David Green racked up 107 rushing yards, including an 80-yard touchdown run, to help seal a 21-13 win against the Blue Raiders in Murfreesboro, Tenn., to advance to the national I-AA championship against Montana State.

Tech jumped on the board first when Richie Sims returned a blocked punt to take a 7-0 lead in the first quarter. Middle Tennessee got on the scoreboard in the second quarter with a field goal and trailed 7-3 going into the half.

The Blue Raiders took a 10-7 lead in the third quarter on a seven-play, 46-yard drive that ended with a two-yard touchdown by running back Gerald Anderson.

The Bulldogs regained the lead minutes later when quarterback Kyle Gandy connected with Todd Breske on an 11-yard pass that capped a 13-play, 72-yard drive.

Middle Tennessee moved within one point at 14-13 with a field goal in the fourth quarter, but that was as close as the Blue Raiders got. On the next play from scrimmage, Green added his game-sealing run to give Tech the victory.

Gandy hit 16-of-28 passes for 134 yards and one touchdown while Breske led all receivers with 44 yards on four receptions.

1984 NCAA Division I-AA Quarterfinal

Louisiana Tech 44, Alcorn State 21
December 1, Jackson, Miss.

Louisiana Tech took on the SWAC Champs and the nation's No. 1 team in the 1984 quarterfinals in Jackson, Miss.

Both teams were held scoreless in the first quarter, but the Tech offense erupted in the second quarter. Running back Gerry Jones started the scoring on a five-yard run early in the second quarter to give the Bulldogs a 7-0 lead.

Three minutes later, wide receiver Mike Sherman hauled in a 12-yard pass from quarterback Kyle Gandy to push Tech's lead to 14-0. The Bulldogs added two points on a safety as the Tech defense sacked Alcorn's quarterback, Rich Myles, in the end zone. Gandy connected for two more touchdown passes in the quarter, an eightyard pass to Lester Mills and a five-yard pass to Todd Breske, to give Tech a 30-0 lead heading into halftime.

Tech continued where it left off in the third quarter, scoring two more touchdowns on rushing plays by David Green and Garlon Powell to build the Bulldog lead to 44-0.

By the time the Braves got on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter, the 'Dogs had rolled up 448 yards of offense and held Alcorn State to minus 67 yards rushing.

Gandy connected for 19-of-31 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns. Sherman led all receivers with 160 yards on eight receptions while David Green led the running backs with 73 yards on 18 carries and one touchdown.

Defensively, the Bulldogs held Alcorn State to minus 56 rushing yards.

1984 NCAA Division I-AA First Round

Louisiana Tech 66, Miss. Valley State 19
November 24, Ruston, La.

Tech fans had fun at this game, as the 'Dogs turned the tables on the explosive "run and shoot" of MVSU. Tech rolled up an NCAA playoff record 703 yards of total offense and also set or tied six other playoff marks.

The Bulldogs struck first in the game with a 49-yard George Benyola field goal in the first quarter. Three minutes later, Tech took a 10-0 lead as Todd Breske pulled in a 34-yard pass from quarterback Kyle Gandy.

Mississippi Valley scored its first touchdown at the end of the first quarter to close the gap to 10-6.

The Tech offense picked up in the second quarter as David Green scored on a one-yard run to push the Tech lead to 17-6. Tech's Gerry Jones scored two more touchdowns, an eight-yard pass from Gandy and a five-yard run to give the Bulldogs a 31-6 lead.

The Delta Devils scored with three minutes left in the second quarter to make the score 31-12, but Green answered with another Tech rushing touchdown with :33 left in the half.

However, MVSU was not done with its first-half scoring as future NFL star Jerry Rice scored on a 64-yard pass play as time expired to close the gap to 38-19 at halftime. It was the last time in the game that the Delta Devils scored.

The Tech offense picked up steam in the third quarter, scoring three touchdowns, including a 69-yard run by Cleve Bailey. The Bulldogs added a final score in the fourth quarter as Lester Mills pulled in a six-yard pass by Jordan Stanley.

Tech picked up 408 rushing yards in the game, led by Green who recorded 179 yards on 24 carries and three touchdowns. Gandy connected for 11-of-18 passes for 262 yards and three touchdowns while Breske led the receivers with 119 yards on three receptions and two touchdowns.

1982 NCAA Division I-AA Semifinal

Delaware 17, Louisiana Tech 0
December 11, Ruston, La.

Playing under cold and rainy conditions, the Bulldog offense failed to score against the Blue Hens as Tech was eliminated from the Division I-AA playoffs.

Delaware picked up a 7-0 lead in the first quarter after gaining good field position following a blocked punt. The Blue Hens took over on the Bulldog 24-yard line and five plays later, picked up their first score.

Under the harsh conditions, neither team could move the ball effectively in the first half as Delaware took the 7-0 lead into the locker room at halftime.

Delaware finally sealed the win in the fourth quarter on a 2-yard run by Kevin Phelan, giving the Blue Hens a 14-0 lead. Delaware added a late field goal to finish out the scoring.

Matt Dunigan led the Tech offense, completing 22-of-47 passes for 239 yards. Frederick Brown led the receivers with 66 yards on five receptions while Carlton Jacobs led the running backs with 33 yards on 11 carries.

1982 NCAA Division I-AA Quarterfinal

Louisiana Tech 38, South Carolina State 3
December 4, Ruston, La.

Louisiana Tech rolled up 474 yards of total offense to advance to the 1982 Division I-AA Semifinals.

South Carolina State scored the first three points of the game but that was all, as the Bulldogs amassed 38 points throughout the contest.

The Bulldogs tied the score in the first quarter on a 27-yard field goal by Roberto Dager. Tech added a touchdown early in the second quarter as Gerald McDaniel caught a three-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Matt Dunigan. Dunigan scored on a quarterback sneak with two minutes left in the half to give the Bulldogs a 17-3 halftime lead.

Tech extended its lead in the third quarter as Carlton Jacobs hauled in a threeyard touchdown pass from Dunigan. The Bulldogs scored two more touchdowns in the fourth quarter with Dunigan rushing for a second score and Kyle Gandy hitting Chris Tilley for an 11-yard strike to close out the score at 38-3.

Dunigan completed 19-of-41 passes for 211 yards and two touchdowns. The All-American also rushed for 72 yards on 11 carries for another two touchdowns. Tilley led the receivers with 49 yards on three receptions and one touchdown.

1974 Pioneer Bowl NCAA Division II Semifinal

Central Michigan 35, Louisiana Tech 14
December 7, Wichita Falls, Texas

The Chippewas built a 35-0 lead before Tech, hampered by six interceptions, scored two TDs in the fourth quarter.

Both teams remained scoreless in the first quarter before Central Michigan took control in the second quarter with two unanswered touchdowns to take a 14-0 lead into the half.

CMU added one touchdown in the third quarter and two more in the fourth quarter before the Bulldogs jumped on the scoreboard.

Tech's Arry Moody pulled in a five-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Steve Haynes to put Louisiana Tech on the scoreboard. Moody later scored again on a 15-yard run.

Haynes completed 10-of-23 passes for one touchdown while Moody led the Tech receivers with 45 yards on two receptions and one touchdown.

1974 NCAA Division II Quarterfinal

Louisiana Tech 10, Western Carolina 7
November 30, Ruston, La.

In a game which included multiple turnovers, Louisiana Tech edged by Western Carolina 10-7 to advance to the Division II Semifinals.

Tech opened the scoring in the first quarter as Roland Harper broke away on a 54-yard scamper to give the Bulldogs a 7-0 lead. The score was the only one in the first half as Tech took the lead into halftime.

In the second half, Western Carolina tied the game at 7-7 late in the third quarter.

The game came down to a 22-yard field goal by Tech's Jerry Pope with 1:36 remaining in the contest. Pope's kick cleared the uprights and sent the Bulldogs to another victory.

Steve Haynes led the Bulldogs with 89 yards passing while Harper rushed for 114 yards on 14 carries.

1973 Camellia Bowl NCAA Division II National Championship

Louisiana Tech 34, Western Kentucky 0
December 16, Sacramento, Calif.

The Bulldogs blew out the Hilltoppers to win the NCAA's first Division II national championship. Tech amassed 336 yards of total offense, compared to just 76 for WKU. The opponents were held to minus 12 yards on the ground, and Tech picked off four passes.

Tech picked up its first points in the first quarter on a 33-yard field goal by Jerry Pope. Two minutes later, Charles "Quick Six" McDaniel scored on a 1-yard touchdown run to give the Bulldogs a 10-0 lead.

The Bulldogs added to their lead early in the second quarter when Danny Curtis intercepted a Hilltopper pass and returned it 11 yards for a touchdown. A little over a minute later, quarterback Denny Duron connected with Roger Carr on a 36-yard pass to give the Bulldogs a 24-0 lead going into the locker room.

Louisiana Tech added to its lead in the fourth quarter on a 31-yard field goal by Pope and a 28-yard touchdown pass from Steve Haynes to Pat Tilley.

Duron completed 4-of-14 passes for 78 yards and one touchdown while Haynes completed 6-of-13 for 72 yards and one touchdown. McDaniel rushed for 116 yards on 21 carries while Tilley recorded 106 receiving yards on seven catches.

1973 Division II Semifinals

Louisiana Tech 38, Boise State 34
December 8, Wichita Falls, Texas

In a high-scoring affair, Louisiana Tech's Denny Duron connected with Roger Carr on a 21-yard touchdown pass with :12 left in the game to lift the Bulldogs into the 1973 Division II National Championship.

The Broncos took an early lead, scoring two touchdowns in the first quarter before the Bulldogs answered on a touchdown run by Charles "Quick Six" McDaniel.

Tech added to its point total in the second quarter on a field goal by Jerry Pope and another rushing touchdown by McDaniel to give the Bulldogs a 17-14 halftime lead.

The teams traded leads throughout the second half as Boise State scored another touchdown early in the third quarter to take a 20-17 lead.

Boise State and Tech traded scores early in the fourth quarter before the Broncos took their last lead on a touchdown play with 3:42 remaining in the game.

But the time allowed the Bulldogs to march down the field on an 11-play drive capped by Carr's touchdown grab to give Louisiana Tech the 38-34 win.

Duron completed 16-of-30 passes for 259 yards and two touchdowns while rushing 37 yards on 15 carries for another touchdown. Carr led the receivers with 117 yards on five receptions for two touchdowns while McDaniel rushed for 116 yards on 20 carries for two touchdowns.

1973 Division II First Round

Louisiana Tech 18, Western Illinois 13
December 1, Ruston, La.

Louisiana Tech gained 457 yards of total offense to advance to the Division II Semifinals.

Western Illinois took an early lead in the first quarter on two field goals to give the Leathernecks a 6-0 lead.

The Bulldogs picked up their first score on a one-yard rush by quarterback Denny Duron to tie the score at 6-6. Tech took the lead later in the quarter on a one-yard score by Charles "Quick Six" McDaniel, giving the Bulldogs a 12-6 advantage heading into the second half.

The Bulldogs padded their lead with a 68-yard pass from Duron to Mike Barber, giving Tech an 18-6 edge in the third quarter.

Western Illinois scored once more but it was not enough as the Bulldogs held on for the 18-13 win. Duron completed 10-of- 22 passes for 183 yards and one touchdown while rushing 10 times for 69 yards and another score.

McDaniel rushed for 91 yards on 20 carries and one touchdown while Barber caught three passes for 111 yards for one touchdown.

1972 Grantland Rice Bowl

Louisiana Tech 35, Tennessee Tech 0
November 9, Baton Rouge, La.

Louisiana Tech had a 375-94 advantage in total offense as the Bulldogs defeated Tennessee Tech 35-0 to win the 1972 Grantland Rice Bowl and complete a perfect 12-0 season.

The Bulldogs held a 7-0 lead after the first quarter but scored three second quarter touchdowns to take a 28-0 lead at halftime.

Tech added another score early in the third quarter and cruised the rest of the way to collect the victory.

Quarterback Denny Duron hit 11 of 20 passes for 227 yards and two scores while wide receiver Roger Carr had six catches for 141 yards including a 29-yard touchdown catch.

Running back Glen Berteau had 10 carries for 58 yards and two scores while linebacker Joe McNeely had a spectacular effort that included 12 individual tackles, a fumble recovery and a 31-yard touchdown run on an intercepted pass.

1971 Pioneer Bowl NCAA Division II Midwest Region Championship

Louisiana Tech 14, Eastern Michigan 3
December 11, Wichita Falls, Texas

Wenford Wilborn set a Division II record with a 91-yard punt return, and QB Ken Lantrip completed 14 passes for 170 yards and one touchdown as Louisiana Tech defeated Eastern Michigan 14-3.

The Bulldogs struck first as Lantrip connected with Glen Berteau for a 17-yard touchdown strike in the first quarter.

Eastern Michigan picked up a field goal in the second half as the Bulldogs carried a 7-3 lead into halftime.

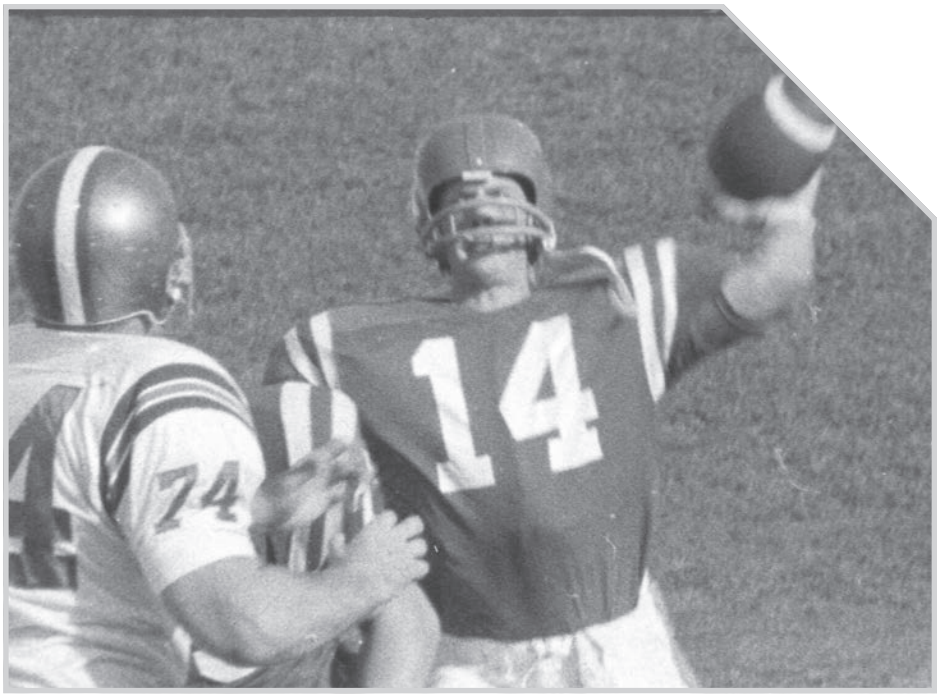
The Bulldogs stretched their lead as Wilborn broke a punt return 91 yards for the final score of the game.

Lantrip completed 14-of-34 passes for 170 yards and one touchdown to lead the Bulldog offense. Roger Carr led the receivers with 40 yards on three receptions while Berteau caught three passes for 34 yards and one touchdown. Berteau also led the team with 31 yards rushing on 14 carries.

1969 Grantland Rice Bowl NCAA Division II Mideast Region Championship

East Tennessee 34, Louisiana Tech 14
December 13, Baton Rouge, La.

In Terry Bradshaw's final appearance as a Bulldog, he completed 20 passes for 299 yards, but he was sacked 12 times for 143 yards in losses as the Bulldogs fell 34-14 to East Tennessee in the 1969 Grantland Rice Bowl.



The Buccaneers got on the scoreboard first with a touchdown in the first quarter to take an early 6-0 lead. East Tennessee extended its lead to 13-0 in the second quarter on a 37-yard halfback pass for a touchdown and took that lead into the locker room at the half.

The Bulldogs finally found the end zone in the third quarter on an eight-yard pass from Bradshaw to fullback Buster Herren.

The Buccaneers added a third-quarter touchdown before the Bulldogs pulled within 20-14 on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Bradshaw to Tommy Spinks.

That was as close as Louisiana Tech got in the game though, as East Tennessee iced the game with two last stanza scores.

Louisiana Tech 33, Akron 13
December 14, Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Playing in the school's first bowl game, the Bulldogs battled sub-freezing temperatures and the Akron Zips but came out with a 33-13 victory.

The Bulldogs didn't waste any time scoring, tallying three touchdowns in the first quarter. Quarterback Terry Bradshaw picked up the first score on a 16-yard run. Moments later, Bradshaw hit Tommy Spinks on a 36-yard pass to give the Bulldogs a second touchdown. Fullback Buster Herren added a third score on a 2-yard run to give Tech a 21-0 lead early in the game.

Akron picked up a touchdown in the second quarter and trailed 21-7 at halftime, then moved within eight points in the third quarter, making the score 21-13.

But the Bulldogs toughened up in the fourth quarter, scoring twice on plays led by Bradshaw. On the first score, Bradshaw shook off several Akron tacklers and hit tight end Larry Brewer on a six-yard scoring strike. Later in the quarter, Bradshaw scored again on an eight-yard run to close out the scoring.

Bradshaw led the Bulldogs offensively, completing 19-of-33 passes for 261 yards and two touchdowns. The young quarterback also led the team in rushing, collecting 35 yards on 12 carries for another two scores. Spinks led the receivers with 12 receptions for 167 yards and one touchtown.

THE LEGEND OF THE BULLDOG

The story takes place in the autumn of 1899 when five Tech students were returning home from school. They came upon an old, hungry bulldog sitting under a tree. The boys fed the dog with what food they had and continued their journey.

When they finally reached their destination, however, they found that the dog had followed them. Being sensitive young men, they sought permission for the dog to stay the night, and the landlord agreed – if the animal remained in the kitchen.

That night the house caught fire.

Their overnight guest was the first to awaken. The dog ran from room to room, rousing everyone in the building. Then, after all the other occupants had made their way to safety, one boy remained inside. The bulldog re-entered the smoke-filled house in an apparent attempt to rescue him, not realizing the boy had escaped in a different direction.

After the fire was extinguished and smoke had finally cleared, the boys went inside to see if the dog had indeed made it out to safety. But when they entered they found the lifeless bulldog lying in an unburned corner of one room. He had died from the smoke and the heat.

Naturally, the young men were shaken due to the death of their new friend. So they picked him up and carried him to the place they had found him the previous day. They then dug a grave and wrapped him in two jackets – one red and the other blue.

When the boys returned to school and related their story, the entire campus mourned the death of the homeless dog. The dog with no name had found a place in the hearts of Tech students.

Two years later, Tech organized a football team and decided the team needed not only school colors, but a mascot. A unanimous decision was reached as the bulldog, the first hero of Tech, was given the honor and the red and blue blankets he was buried in were made the school colors.

ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS

A number of student-athletes attend Louisiana Tech as a result of endowed athletic scholarships, which have been established as a means of supporting intercollegiate athletics.

Tech athletics would like to thank and recognize the following individuals who have established scholarships to benefit athletics or in whose honor or memory a scholarship has been established. The financial boost provided by these endowed scholarships is critical to maintaining a successful athletics program.

DR. DAN RENEAU

University President

For over half a century, President Dan Reneau and Louisiana Tech University have shared a reputation for higher education excellence, leadership and performance that is unrivaled anywhere in the State of Louisiana. With a passion for service and a commitment to his University and its constituents, Dr. Reneau has become one of the most respected and admired educational leaders in the history of Louisiana higher education.

Dr. Reneau's many accomplishments at Louisiana Tech began with a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering in 1963. He also earned a master's degree from Tech in chemical engineering in 1964, followed by a doctorate from Clemson University in 1966. Dr. Reneau returned to Louisiana Tech in 1967 as an assistant professor of chemical engineering and quickly distinguished himself as a scholar and researcher. He has published over 80 technical papers in books and journals, edited five books, and attended over 100 international meetings and conferences.

In 1972, Dr. Reneau was responsible for establishing Louisiana Tech's Biomedical Engineering Department – one of the first of its kind in the United States. The department and its undergraduate curriculum became only the fifth program accredited in the nation. The Biomedical Engineering Ph.D. program was later awarded a Commendation of Excellence by the Louisiana Board of Regents.

Dr. Reneau's continued vision and leadership resulted in his appointment as Louisiana Tech's Vice President of Academic Affairs in 1980. In this capacity, he served as chief academic officer to some 400 faculty housed in six colleges and three professional schools, offering 160 different degree programs. During his tenure, every major program with an accrediting agency was awarded accreditation. He was also instrumental in establishing Louisiana Tech's Center for Biomedical Engineering and Rehabilitation Science.

On February 20, 1987, the Board of Trustees for State Colleges and Universities selected Dr. Reneau as the 13th President of Louisiana Tech University.

While accomplishments have been many during Dr. Reneau's tenure as President of Louisiana Tech, some of the most notable include the implementation of selective admissions, achievement of Division I-A football status, establishment of the Institute for Micromanufacturing (IfM), construction of a new state-of-the-art Biomedical Engineering facility, attainment of the Carnegie Research University/High Research Activity classification, and the establishment of a 50-acre research park between the Tech campus and downtown Ruston called Enterprise Campus.

In 1995, Dr. Reneau was awarded the Distinguished Arthur T. Prescott Professorship in Engineering. In 1999, the Clemson Alumni Association, in conjunction with Clemson University, installed Dr. Reneau as an inaugural Alumni Fellow of the University. The American Institute for Medical and Biological Engineering selected Dr. Reneau as a 2000 AIMBE Fellow. In 2002, he was awarded the Newell Perry Award by the National Federation of the Blind – the highest honor that is given by the National Federation of the Blind.

In recent years, Dr. Reneau has led Louisiana Tech to the University of Louisiana System's (ULS) highest graduation rate, highest retention rate, highest average freshman ACT score, and fastest time-to-completion rate for first-time baccalaureates as well as achieving record graduate enrollment and doctoral graduates.

Dr. Reneau has led Louisiana Tech to a Tier One "National University" ranking by U.S. News & World Report, as well as a designation as an SREB Doctoral Four-Year 2 Research University, a Carnegie Foundation Research University with High Research Activity (RU/H) and a "statewide university" as defined by the Louisiana Board of Regents.

Louisiana Tech has been ranked in the nation's top 10 for graduating students with the least amount of debt for three consecutive years by U.S. News & World Report (2010, 2011 and 2012) and was the highest ranked Louisiana public university in mid-career median pay for graduates, according to PayScale.com (2010). Tech was also north Louisiana's only public university to make the 2010 President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll.

As he enters his 26th year as Louisiana Tech President, Dr. Dan Reneau continues to share his vision for moving Louisiana Tech forward and strengthen his commitment to serving the students and alumni of his University. Through Dr. Reneau's leadership, Louisiana Tech University has transformed itself from an aspiring regional university into one of the state's premier research institutions.

Dr. Reneau is a native of Woodville, Mississippi and is married to the former Linda Digby of Bernice, whom he met as a student at Louisiana Tech. They have two children, John and Dana, who are also both Louisiana Tech alumni. John currently lives in Las Vegas and Dana lives in Baton Rouge with her husband, Jim Bernhard, and their two sons, Michael and Ben.

BRUCE VAN DE VELDE

Director of Athletics

Joining Louisianan Tech University in the spring of 2008, Bruce Van De Velde became director of athletics on March 1, 2010 after serving as deputy director of athletics. During his initial months as director of athletics, Van De Velde led a national search and hired 2011 WAC Coach of the Year Sonny Dykes. Van De Velde also initiated the largest fund raising campaign in athletic department history in the Quest for Excellence, a $20 million initiative to raise private donations to enhance athletic facilities.

A veteran administrator Van De Velde has a track record of operating programs with integrity and with the student athlete as the top priority. As director of athletics at three NCAA Division I institutions, those programs have achieved no major rule infractions. This past season Louisiana Tech student athletes achieved their highest graduation success rate in University history. With Louisiana Tech's invitation to join Conference USA in 2013 Van De Velde and his administrative team have Louisiana Tech poised to reach its highest level of achievement.

"This is the dawn of a new era for Louisiana Tech University and a goal we have worked very hard over the past several years to achieve," said Tech President Dan Reneau. "I want to publically acknowledge the efforts of Bruce Van De Velde and his team, who were instrumental in telling our story and promoting our vision for the future of Louisiana Tech Athletics."

Van De Velde has more than two decades of experience at the Division I level as a senior administrator including the University of Oklahoma, University of Missouri, Kansas State University and Utah State University. Van De Velde also has a thorough understanding of coaches and the needs of student-athletes having served as an educator and coach early in his career.

On the forefront of national service to intercollegiate athletics Van De Velde has served on numerous NCAA cabinets and committees including NCAA Football Issues Committee, NCAA Championship and Competition Cabinet and the Division IA Athletic Directors Executive Committee. During his tenure in the Big XII Conference he served on the Television Committee and the Conference Bowl Committee.

"It is an honor to be the director of athletics at Louisiana Tech University," Van De Velde said. "Our vision is to build a program to a level where we can be associated with universities that aspire to academic and athletic excellence at the highest level."

During his tenure Van De Velde has been instrumental in a number of accomplishments that have helped further the advancement of the University's athletic department, including:

* Leadership and strategic direction for Louisiana Tech's invitation and transition to Conference USA from the Western Athletic Conference.
* Developed and implemented the largest fund raising campaign in athletic department history. Quest for Excellence: The Campaign for Tech Athletics is a $20 million campaign to upgrade athletic facilities.
* Reorganized annual giving program doubling the number of donors and increasing annual contributions to the program 140 percent; increased total contributions to intercollegiate athletics from $1.6 million in 2008 to $6 million in 2012.
* Hired head football coach Sonny Dykes and head men's basketball coach Michael White.
* Upgraded ticket operations improving customer service, marketing by ecommerce and out bound sales capabilities by partnering with Ticketmaster and the Aspire Group and established a new record for football season ticket sales.
* Student-athlete graduate success rate of 71 percent in 2011 was the highest in the history of the university and one of the top graduation rates in the nation. All 16 sports programs were APR penalty free and eight programs achieved their highest APR in school history.

In 2010, the Louisiana Tech athletic department was recognized nationally with the PRISM Award for excellence in athletics management under Van De Velde's leadership. The athletic department was also honored with the Excellence in Management Cup by Texas A&M University for three consecutive years and won the NCAA Pack the House for the Western Athletic Conference five consecutive years for its marketing and promotions efforts for women's basketball.

Tech has also seen plenty of competitive success since Van De Velde's arrival at Tech as the Bulldog football team captured the 2011 WAC championship and participated in the Poinsettia Bowl against 15th ranked TCU. The Bulldogs also captured its first bowl victory in more than 30 years with the 2008 Independence Bowl win over Northern Illinois.

The Lady Techster basketball team won the 2009 and 2011 regular season Western Athletic Conference titles, and the 2010 WAC Tournament title while the women's indoor and outdoor track and field teams won the 2009, 2010 and 2011 league titles.

The Bulldog basketball team under the direction of first-year coach Mike White advanced to the program's first ever WAC Tournament title game in 2011, defeating defending WAC Tournament champion Utah State and regular season WAC champion Nevada along the way.

Numerous individual success stories have also occurred under his leadership including sprinter Antoinette Cobb earning the 2010 Honda Inspiration Award and catcher Clint Ewing becoming a finalist for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award for their work both on the field of completion and in the classroom. In 2011, track star Chelsea Hayes earned the WAC's Joe Kearney Award while shattering numerous school records and qualified for the United States Olympic team in the long jump.

Prior to Louisiana Tech Van De Velde who has an extensive background in higher education fund raising served as a development consultant at the University of Missouri during their $100 million campaign and as Director of Athletics at Iowa State University.

Van De Velde's tenure at Iowa State University included an unprecedented five bowl appearances in six years and the highest national AP football poll ranking (9th) in school history. Iowa State's 2001 average football attendance of 45,172 reached its highest watermark in 18 years.

In 2002 and 2003, total football attendance exceeded 300,000; the most at ISU in two decades. The emergence of the Cyclone football program on a national stage with Van De Velde at the department helm was affirmed in 2002 when Iowa State was chosen to play No. 1 Florida State University in the Eddie Robinson Classic.

During Van De Velde's tenure at Iowa State, the men's and women's basketball teams won Big XII conference championships and participated in the 2001, 2002 and 2005 NCAA basketball tournaments.

Van De Velde, with a track record for generating revenue, increased the total annual operating revenues for the Cyclone athletic department from $19.6 million to $30 million dollars over a five year period. Revenue generated from fundraising, ticket sales, marketing and corporate sponsorships, licensing, radio and television reached all-time highs during his tenure.

In 2005, total fundraising increased from $4.85 million to $8.6 million and the annual giving achieved the highest membership total in its history with more than 6,000 donors participating and a record $4 million dollars in annual contributions. Under Van De Velde's leadership, over 1,500 new donors joined the National Cyclone Club.

Including capital project gifts, scholarship endowments and annual contributions, over $35 million dollars was raised during his tenure.

Iowa State's graduation rate of 89 percent for student-athletes who complete their eligibility was second in the Big XII Conference, and graduation rates for minority student-athletes more than tripled during Van De Velde's tenure.

In 2004-05, Iowa State was one of eight universities nationally to have its football team win a bowl game and have its men and women's basketball teams participate in the NCAA tournament. The Sporting News in 2001 rated Iowa State as the seventh best athletic program among more than 115 NCAA Division I-A programs nationally. The ranking considered competitive success, graduation rates, fan support and NCAA compliance to determine national rank.

During his time as athletic director at Utah State University, Van De Velde made his mark by hiring Stew Morrill as the head men's basketball coach. Morrill has guided Utah State to nine straight postseason tournaments and is the most successful coach in the history of the Utah State program.

While serving as the associate athletic director for football operations under legendary head coach Bill Snyder at Kansas State University, Van De Velde was part of the resurrection of Wildcat football in Manhattan as the program became a national power participating in five bowl games. Van De Velde was recipient of the Admiral U.S. Grant Sharp Award at the 1997 Holiday Bowl for his contributions to the Kansas State football team when the nationally ranked Wildcats finished with a 10-2 record.

As the senior associate athletic for external affairs at the University of Oklahoma, Van De Velde served as a senior administrator for the athletic department and oversaw the areas of fundraising, marketing, corporate sponsorships, ticket sales, media relations and licensing. Van De Velde managed units that generated in excess of $35 million in annual revenues. Van De Velde directed the Campaign for Sooner Sports, a $100 million dollar capital campaign to fund facility improvements and scholarships.

As associate athletic director for development at the University of Missouri, Van De Velde supervised a $50 million dollar capital campaign for facility improvements for the Sports Park at MU.

Van De Velde received the General Robert Neyland Award from the National Football Foundation in 2005 for his service and contributions as an athletic director. Van De Velde currently serves on the 1A Athletic Directors Association Executive Committee and on the NCAA Football Issues Committee.

He and his wife Debbie, who is a Kansas State alum and who serves as the development officer in the LA Tech College of Business, are the proud parents of 12-year-old daughter, Ashley who is entering the sixth grade.

MARY KAY HUNGATE

Deputy Athletics Director/ Senior Woman Administrator

Deputy Athletics Director and Senior Woman Administrator Mary Kay Hungate enters her 28th year as a member of the Louisiana Tech Athletics Department and has proven to be an integral part in the emergence of the University's programs on the playing fields and in the classroom.

Not only does Hungate serve as the sports administrator for men's and women's basketball, women's soccer, softball, women's tennis, women's bowling and women's volleyball, but she is also in charge of NCAA compliance for all of the university's 16 NCAA sanctioned programs.

As one of the top two ranking administrators in the Tech Athletics Department, Hungate is part of a senior staff that was instrumental in helping the University earn an invitation to join Conference USA starting July 1, 2013.

In addition, Hungate and the current senior staff has also garnered a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech athletics department has also finished in the Top 10 three of the past four years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

Hungate serves a vital role in the hiring of coaches. Hungate proved instrumental in the decision by former Tech Kodak All-American and WNBA All-Star Teresa Weatherspoon - who played for Hungate in the late-80s - to return to Louisiana Tech in June of 2008. Weatherspoon was promoted to head coach in February of 2009 where she has led the program to a trifecta of Western Athletic Conference titles and two straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

She also served as the point person in the hiring process of head women's soccer coach Kevin Sherry. Sherry led the Lady Techster soccer team to four straight winning seasons (the first ones in program history), the program's first ever WAC victories and its first appearance in the WAC Tournament in 2010.

Another of Hungate's responsibilities includes overseeing the academic side of the Tech athletics department, another area which has improved drastically as proven by the fact LA Tech's graduation rate continues to be one of the highest in the state (Federal Graduation Report).

This past year Tech student-athletes boasted an all-time high 72 percent four-year graduation success rate while a total of 92 student-athletes earned Academic All-WAC accolades. Tech football was recognized nationally with the Academic Achievement Award presented by the American Football Coaches Association while the Bulldog golf team earned an NCAA Public Recognition Award.

For the fourth consecutive year, Louisiana Tech saw impressive improvements in the majority of its Academic Progress Rates (APR) as all 16 of its NCAA sanctioned programs are penalty free for the second consecutive year. Louisiana Tech saw nine of its programs record their highest multi-year APR scores ever while five registered their highest single year APR score ever. Four of the programs also earned a perfect 1,000 score on the single year rate.

Hungate also plays an important role in LA Tech's NCAA Certification process. As a member of the Steering Committee and the liaison between the athletic department and the University's Self Study Committees, she provides the information needed for the committees to write their reports. In 2006, LA Tech completed its second NCAA Certification cycle and once again was certified without conditions.

Hungate joined the Louisiana Tech staff in 1985 as an assistant women's basketball coach and remained in that role for five years. During that time, the Lady Techsters participated in four Final Fours and won the NCAA National Championship in 1988.

In 1990, Hungate made a move out of coaching and became assistant athletics director for academics and compliance as well as senior woman administrator. One of Hungate's early accomplishments as assistant director of athletics was the creation of the Louisiana Tech Athletic Academic Center program.

Hungate has served terms on the NCAA Division I Academics/Eligibility/Compliance Cabinet, the NCAA Division I Interpretations/Legislative Review Subcommittee, the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators Wade Trophy Selection Committee and as an NCAA Peer Reviewer. She has also served on the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Issues Committee since 2004.

She currently serves on the Western Athletic Conference Council, the Conferences' Legislative Review Committee, the Finance Committee and the Code Book Committee. In addition, along with Athletics Director Bruce Van De Velde, she represents the athletics department as an ex-officio member of the LA Tech Athletics Council.

Hungate's professional career began as Women's Sports Coordinator and head volleyball, head basketball and head softball coach at Illinois' Carl Sandburg Junior College. She spent four seasons at the college where she guided the basketball team to a mark of 80-22 which included an 11th place finish in the 1976 NJCAA national tournament.

In 1978 Hungate took over the head coaching position at Richwoods High School in Peoria, Ill., and quickly compiled one of the top prep coaching records in the nation.

During her seven seasons at Richwoods High School, Hungate's team ran up an impressive record of 195-13, including a state-record 63 consecutive victories. Hungate was named the National Coach of the Year by USA Today in 1985. Before coming to Louisiana Tech, Hungate amassed a career coaching record of 275-35.

JAMES LIBERATOS
Faculty Athletics Representative

Dr. James Liberatos enters his 15th year as faculty athletics representative for Louisiana Tech University.

Since arriving at Tech in 1989, Liberatos has been responsible for so much more than just molding young minds as a professor of biology. In 1996, he was named a member of the Louisiana Tech Athletics Council and in 1998 was elevated to chair of the council. Also in 1998, Liberatos started serving as chair of the Louisiana Tech Athletics Hall of Fame.

As faculty representative, Liberatos has been designated by the university to serve as a liaison between the institution and the athletics department, and also as a representative of the institution in conference and NCAA affairs. He does so to ensure that the academic institution establishes and maintains the appropriate balance between academics and intercollegiate athletics.

A native of Charleston, South Carolina, Liberatos earned a bachelor of science in biology from the College of Charleston in 1980. He continued his education at Florida State University earning a master's in science in 1982 and a PHD in biology in 1986.

Liberatos is an avid swimmer who also enjoys fishing. He and his wife Beth have been married since 1988 and have two sons, Jim and Nicholas who both attend Louisiana Tech.

LEAH BEASLEY
Associate A.D./Marketing and Game Management

Leah Beasley enters her eighth year as a member of the Louisiana Tech athletics department staff, including her first as associate athletics director in charge of marketing and game management.

Beasley has spent the past six years as the assistant athletics director but received a title promotion this past summer.

Some of Beasley's responsibilities include game management supervision, coordinating the booking of many of the halftime activities for Tech home events, serving as the main liaison between the Tech athletics department and the Tech student body and faculty and staff, as well as working closely with many of the coaches for marketing ideas for their programs.

During her time at Louisiana Tech, Beasley has proven her merit as she has been directly and indirectly associated with numerous department awards.

Since its inception by the NCAA in 2007, Beasley has taken the lead on Louisiana Tech's participation in the NCAA's Pack the House Challenge - a marketing promotion geared towards increasing the awareness of women's basketball across the country.

Beasley's creative marketing campaigns have helped LA Tech earn the top spot among the Western Athletic Conference schools for five straight years, making it the only program in the country to win it every time for their respective league.

Her 2010 NCAA Pack the House marketing campaign of "Cage the Tigers" won the bronze award given out by NACDA for the Best Single Day Attendance Promotion.

The past two years, Beasley's 2011 NCAA Pack the House marketing campaign of "FAIR-well Fresno" and "FAIR-well Fresno State: The Rematch" drew crowds of more than 7,000 fans to the Thomas Assembly Center as promotions included a real live Fair with carnival rides and food outside the Thomas Assembly Center.

Beasley has also been a part of a staff at LA Tech that has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech Athletics Department has also finished in the Top 10 the past three years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

Beasley also served as the athletic department's point person for Bulldogs Tackling Breast Cancer, a fundraiser started by Dr. Allison Dooley, wife of former LA Tech AD and head football coach Derek Dooley in 2007. During its five years, this fundraising campaign raised more than $50,000 for the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure Foundation in northeast Louisiana.

This past year, Beasley was instrumental in the inaugural Wiggin' Out Dinner as Tech Athletics teamed up with the Northern Louisiana Medical Center and The Minute Magazine to raise money for the battle against breast cancer. The event, held in conjunction with the Bulldogs Tackling Breast Cancer initiative, helped raise funds for women across northern Louisiana unable to purchase wigs while undergoing radiation and chemotherapy treatments.

Beasley also serves on several campus and conference committees, including the WAC's Championships Committee and Game Management Committee, and the University's Marketing Advisory Board, Spirit Squad Committee and Traditions Committee. She is also the WAC's representative to NACMA.

Beasley lettered for four years at Louisiana Tech as an outfielder on the Lady Techster softball team, earning Academic all-WAC honors every season and earning all-America Scholar Athlete awards two seasons.

The Ruston native earned her bachelor's degree in marketing in May of 2005 and her master's degree in marketing in August 2006.

MALCOLM BUTLER
Associate A.D./Media Relations

Malcolm Butler begins his 14th year in the Louisiana Tech Athletics Department, his sixth as the associate athletic director in charge of media relations.

A 1994 graduate of the Louisiana Tech journalism department, Butler joined the athletic department in July of 1999 as the assistant athletic media relations director.

Butler was then promoted to director four months later and served in that capacity until the fall of 2007 when he was promoted to associate athletic director.

The Ruston native is in charge of media relations for women's basketball, softball and men's golf and also serves as the secondary contact for football while overseeing the daily operations for the entire department.

During his time at Louisiana Tech, Butler has been instrumental in promoting numerous high-profile student-athletes. He has also worked closely with a number of highly-successful head coaches, including 4-time Hall of Famer Leon Barmore, current Tennessee head football coach Derek Dooley and current Lady Techster women's basketball coach Teresa Weatherspoon.

Over the course of his tenure, Louisiana Tech's Media Relations Department has proven to be one of the best in the state of Louisiana. Over the past 11 years, members of the Tech media relations department have won a total of 37 awards at the annual Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA) state SID contest – the second most behind only LSU.

During that same period of time, Butler has garnered 24 of those awards which is second most among all state SIDs behind only LSU Associate Athletics Director Michael Bonnette (26).

Butler is part of a senior staff at LA Tech that has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech athletics department has also finished in the Top 10 three of the past four years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

He was instrumental in forming the partnership between Louisiana Tech and CBS College Sports in the fall of 2007 in the redesign and hosting of the athletic departments website, www.latechsports.com. The website has undergone two redesigns since the inaugural release.

As part of the agreement with CBS College Sports, a new web-streaming platform - LA Tech All-Access was created - which allows fans from all over the world to watch live streams of almost all of the university's home athletic events. LA Tech All-Access annually streams more than 125 live events.

Butler has served as the host media coordinator for three NCAA Women's Basketball First- and Second-Round sites hosted by Louisiana Tech (2000, 2001 and 2003) while also serving as the host media coordinator for the 2008 WAC Baseball Championships hosted by Louisiana Tech at J.C. Love Field in Ruston.

In addition to his media relations responsibilities, Butler has served as the radio broadcaster for the nationally-prominent Louisiana Tech Lady Techster basketball team for the past 13 years, including the past 12 as the play-by-play announcer.

During that time, he has broadcast more than 350 women's basketball games - including 15 NCAA Tournament games. He has also broadcast in excess of 100 softball games, including four in the 2008 NCAA Tournament, and served as the color commentator on numerous Bulldog football and basketball broadcasts. Butler is the host of Inside Tech Basketball with Teresa Weatherspoon, a 30-minute radio show.

Butler implemented a fundraising campaign for his department in the fall of 2007 and since that time it has raised over $30,000, which has been used to purchase additional equipment, software and other essentials within the media relations department.

He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA), United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) and Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

MARIE GILBERT
Associate A.D./ Chief Financial Officer

Marie Gilbert enters her 28th year at Louisiana Tech and her fifth as associate athletics director and chief financial officer in the athletics department.

Gilbert is responsible for the day-to-day business operations of the athletic department, including overseeing the individual budgets for 16 varsity sports, monitoring athletic funds of the Louisiana Tech Athletic Foundation, serving as liaison with the university's business offices and supervising the athletic ticket office.

She is part of a senior staff at LA Tech that was instrumental in the University's invitation to join Conference USA starting July 1, 2013. She has also been actively involved in numerous initiatives to enhance the athletics department, including signing new agreements with companies such as Learfield, the Aspire Group, Ticketmaster and Pepsi.

The hard work and vision of that same senior staff has led to numerous national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech Athletics Department has also finished in the Top 10 three of the past four years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

Gilbert previously served as the budget manager for the College of Engineering for six years where she had similar duties. She was also in the College of Liberal Arts as the dean's assistant handling day-to-day business in the office while working with budget planning for the year.

In 2002, she received the Distinctive Professional Performance and Conduct Award from the Institute of Micromanufacturing at Louisiana Tech.

Gilbert has earned two degrees from Louisiana Tech University and completed a master's certificate in technical writing.

She is a current member of the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA). She is also actively involved in the American Cancer Society and serves as the chair for the Relay for Life Luminaria Service. She is on the Executive Committee for the ACS Relay for Life in Lincoln Parish and serves as the budget manager for the Relay.

Gilbert and her husband, Tim, reside in Bossier with their four dogs.

BRIAN WHITE
Associate A.D./External Affairs

Brian White enters his first season at Louisiana Tech as associate athletic director for external affairs.

White works closely with the unit heads of development, marketing, media relations and the ticket office coordinating all external affairs for the department. White supervises the sports of men's golf and baseball and assists the athletic director in football administration and scheduling.

White also coordinates all activities for the department with multimedia rights holder Learfield and Louisiana Tech Sports Properties as well as the Aspire Group for ticket sales.

Before coming to Louisiana Tech, White spent over three and a half years at IMG College (formerly ISP Sports) at the University of Arkansas (Razorback Sports Properties) and at the University of California Berkeley (Cal Sports Properties), initially as an account executive before being promoted to a senior account executive.

While at IMG College, White was charged with growing revenue through corporate sponsorship sales of multimedia assets. In his first year with Cal Sports Properties, White achieved a sales number equivalent to 275 percent of his personal sales goal. In both years at the University of Arkansas, White surpassed his individual and property sales goals.

While pursuing his undergraduate and graduate degrees, White gained valuable experiences through various internships working for the IMG College Corporate Office, Ohio University Athletics, Arizona State University Athletics and the NCAA Headquarters.

He earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Notre Dame in 2006 and a master's in business administration from Ohio University in 2008.

White comes from a family entrenched in intercollegiate athletics. His father, Kevin, is director of athletics at Duke while his brother, Danny, is director of athletics at Buffalo. His brother, Michael, is the head men's basketball coach at Louisiana Tech.

LISA MERRITT
Assistant A.D./Academic Affairs

Lisa Merritt enters her sixth year as a member of the Louisiana Tech Athletics Department serving as assistant athletics director for academics.

Merritt joined the athletics department after serving for 11 years in the LA Tech speech department with her husband Kevin where she taught speech classes while serving as an academic advisor for students majoring in speech communication.

She is a member of a senior staff at Tech that was instrumental in the University receiving an invitation to join Conference USA starting July 1, 2013.

Since joining the Tech athletics department, Merritt has helped the University's student-athletes excel in the classroom as proven by the fact LA Tech's graduation rate continues to be one of the highest in the state (Federal Graduation Report).

This past year Tech student-athletes boasted an all-time high 72 percent four-year graduation success rate while a total of 92 student-athletes earned Academic All-WAC accolades. Tech football was recognized nationally with the Academic Achievement Award presented by the American Football Coaches Association while the Bulldog golf team earned an NCAA Public Recognition Award.

For the fourth consecutive year, Louisiana Tech saw impressive improvements in the majority of its Academic Progress Rates (APR) as all 16 of its NCAA sanctioned programs are penalty free for the second consecutive year. Louisiana Tech saw nine of its programs record their highest multi-year APR scores ever while five registered their highest single year APR score ever. Four of the programs also earned a perfect 1,000 score on the single year rate.

Tech's student-athletes also show incredible diversity when it comes to majors as each of the University's five colleges and virtually every degree program on campus boast at least one Tech student-athlete.

In her current role, Merritt oversees the student-athletes' academic progress and success while advising them regarding class schedules and degree plans, monitoring eligibility status and providing general academic guidance.

Merritt also runs the athletic academic center, provides "Life Skills" seminars for student-athletes, meets with prospective recruits and serves as faculty advisor for SAAC (Student-Athlete Advisory Committee).

SAAC is a pro-active group of student-athletes communicating views or comments on WAC and NCAA rules and governance, which helps to ensure academic and athletic excellence for all student-athletes. Members of SAAC are also active in various community service projects such as hosting an annual Halloween carnival as well as serving as greeters for the annual St. Jude's Radiothon, participating in the Big Event, and supporting the WAC's charity of choice.

Merritt oversees and reviews the advising process to ensure compliance with both university and NCAA policies and serves as a liaison between faculty and coaches, as well as speaks at "New Faculty Orientation" each fall and during the year to the University Senate. She also meets recruits and their families to describe the college experience and how it will affect the student-athlete.

Merritt earned her bachelor's degree in agricultural economics in 1991 and master's in speech communication consultancy in 1994 both from Oklahoma State University.

She and her husband taught conversational English in Kyoto, Japan, for one year before coming to Louisiana Tech.

Outside of work, Merritt is a huge health and fitness buff who loves cycling (road and mountain), running and swimming. In 2002, Merritt and her husband completed the Florida Ironman Triathlon.

Merritt and her husband Kevin reside in Ruston and have an eight-year old daughter named Maisie and toddler named Ivy.

DOUG SUTHERLAND
Assistant A.D./Ticket Operations

Doug Sutherland enters his first year as the assistant athletics director in charge of ticket operations at Louisiana Tech University after joining the athletic department staff in July of 2012.

Sutherland brings a wealth of experience to the position after spending the past nine years in a variety of ticketing roles at some of the top AQ programs in the country, including Florida, Ohio State, Miami and USF.

In addition to the normal day-to-day responsibilities of the ticket office, Sutherland will coordinate all marketing and sales efforts with The Aspire Group, will coordinate game day staffing for ushers, ticket takers and sales staff, will oversee the Ticketmaster system and will coordinate donor tickets and seating with the Foundation and LTAC. He will also work closely with the business office setting revenue goals and balancing accounts as well as overseeing the annual audit.

Sutherland comes to Ruston after spending more than two years at the University of Florida where he served as the student ticket supervisor before he was promoted to the assistant director of ticket operations. During his time in Gainesville, he oversaw the distribution and administration of all UF student tickets, assisted in the daily management of ticket office operation including overseeing staff and creation of seasons/events in the Ticketmaster/Archtics system. He also supervised ticket operations for volleyball and lacrosse including NCAA post-season events and was a member of the Athletic Association's Annual Plan Committee.

The Laurel, Delaware native also spent time as the director of athletic ticket operations at the University of Miami (2009) and as the assistant director of athletic ticket operations at USF (2007-09) during a time that saw football ticket revenues exceed its goal by $2 million dollars.

At Ohio State University he started as a sports programs associate in the ticket office in August of 2004 before being promoted to the assistant director of ticket operations less than a year later. Previous to Ohio State he had the opportunity to intern for the New Orleans Hornets and a year in the UCF ticket office (2003-2004) as an intern where he started his career in college athletics.

He earned his bachelor's degree in forest resources and conservation from Florida in 2001 and then earned a pair of master's degrees in sports business management as well as business administration from UCF in 2004.

MASON ELLENBERGER
General Manager/ LA Tech Sports Properties

Mason Ellenberger serves as General Manager for LA Tech Sports Properties, the Ruston-based entity designed to oversee all aspects of the 10-year partnership between the University and the collegiate marketer Learfield Sports.

At LA Tech, Ellenberger is responsible for spearheading all elements of the relationship between LA Tech and Learfield Sports, which was announced in late July 2008 and includes managing and selling multimedia and sponsorship rights for the Bulldogs and Lady Techsters.

Ellenberger is also responsible for all aspects of the LA Tech Sports Network which broadcasts over 250 Louisiana Tech games, daily shows and coach's shows throughout the year.

During the 2009-10 athletic season, Ellenberger and his team at LA Tech Sports Properties were recognized as the #1 new growth property in the Learfield Sports portfolio.

In Ellenberger's previous role as the Team Sports Marketing Manager for Alltel Wireless, he led Alltel's strategic team sports marketing efforts in the United States. He oversaw the national promotions and activation of the sponsorship stable owned by Alltel Wireless in the US including the professional and collegiate sponsorships.

Prior to his years at Alltel, Ellenberger spent the previous 13 years in strategic sales leadership, sports marketing and public relations roles in the telecommunications and entertainment industries.

The Birmingham, Ala. native has served on numerous endowment boards and board of directors for sports and education organizations including Pagnozzi Charities and the Arkansas Aeronautical Education Center.

He has been honored by White House Communications Agency for providing critical communications for the President of the Unites States and White House Staff. Ellenberger holds a BBA and MBA in Marketing both of which he graduated Summa cum Laude. Ellenberger is also an Eagle Scout and a long-time supporter of the Boy Scouts of America.

He is married to the former Wanda Jackson from Mobile, Ala., and the couple has two sons, James and Hunter and reside in Ruston.

RYAN GOTTLIEB
Manager/Aspire at Louisiana Tech

Ryan Gottlieb is entering his second year as the manager of the Aspire Group's Louisiana Tech Fan Relationship Management Center (FRMC) which services Louisiana Tech University Athletics.

Ryan's responsibilities include overseeing the FRMC, which is a third-party ticketing sales and service initiative whose primary objective is generating new ticket sales revenue and growth across all sectors, including full and partial season plans, group tickets, improved customer retention and ensuring excellent customer service.

Ryan joined the Aspire Group in the Georgia Tech FRMC in August of 2009 as a part-time sales consultant. By Thanksgiving of that year, the University of South Carolina graduate was already among the leaders in Men's Basketball Season ticket sales and was therefore promoted to a full-time position.

In March of 2010, the Atlanta native was promoted again, this time to a Senior Sales Consultant where he led GA Tech in new season ticket sales for 2010-11 Men's Basketball as well as 2011 Football.

As one of the leaders at the GA Tech Center from 2009-2011, Gottlieb played an integral role in hiring, training and mentoring numerous team members, while maintaining his "top of the board" sales productivity.

ADAM McGUIRT
Director of Athletic Advancement

Adam McGuirt enters his sixth year with the Louisiana Tech Athletics family as the Director of Athletic Advancement, working in the Division of University Advancement.

At Louisiana Tech, McGuirt is responsible for all areas of athletic development, including donor relations and all aspects of the Louisiana Tech Athletic Club (LTAC).

During his previous five years at LA Tech, McGuirt has been instrumental in helping more than double the number of LTAC members which has resulted in a large increase in private donations.

McGuirt also works closely with the Alumni Association in the development and implementation of events for alumni and friends throughout the state of Louisiana and surrounding areas.

McGuirt has also been a part of a staff at LA Tech that helped the University receive an invitation to join Conference USA starting July 1, 2013. That same staff has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech Athletics Department has also finished in the Top 10 three of the past four years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

A native of Shreveport, McGuirt graduated from Louisiana Tech in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

McGuirt is married to April, and the couple has three daughters: Lily, Sophie and Emily.

TOMMY SISEMORE
Director of Facilities

Tommy Sisemore is one of the longest tenured employees in the Louisiana Tech Athletics Department beginning his 33rd year at the University, his 16th as director of athletic facilities.

Some of Sisemore's varied duties include serving as travel coordinator and business manager for the football team, handling all aspects of team travel, including hotel, food and travel arrangements.

Sisemore also handles all the financial expenses incurred in the travel process.

Sisemore is part of an administrative staff at LA Tech that has been instrumental in garnering a number of national awards, including the 2010 Turnkey PRISM Award - which recognizes colleges for managerial excellence across four areas: marketing/branding; fan development; community relations; and customer/client service.

The Tech athletics department has also finished in the Top 10 three of the past four years in the Excellence in Management Cup, which recognizes the most efficient athletic departments in the nation.

Prior to working in the athletic department, Sisemore spent 17 years working in the Louisiana Tech Physical Plant.

Sisemore and his wife Stephanie, who is a Louisiana Tech graduate, are the proud parents of two daughters, Jessica and Anna-Claire.
